Gadabouting in Baltimore

What? Townsfolk flip lids over a little snow? Never!

With Lula Jones Garrett

The blizzard may have closed up government offices, churches, schools and even markets . . . but that thing tagged Baltimore society merely flipped a finger at the 18 inches of snow.

From the babies who refused to postpone birthday celebrations to their elders, who had more formal affairs on their agenda, townsfolk just yanked out their high top boots and took off for the parties.

And as for Cupid . . . that intrepid little master treated the snowflakes as if they had been orange blossoms.

* * *

THE STORM blocked guests from getting to Douglas Memorial Church and the florist from delivering the flowers, but Mrs. Della Malone and Alfred Chisholm merely shifted the hour of the ceremony and the setting for their wedding on Sunday afternoon.

Instead of being married at one o'clock at the church, they substituted four p.m. and the Madison Avenue home of their daughter, the place and time scheduled for the reception.

The Rev. Marion Bascomb officiated, and the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Ohio.

Looking as pretty and practically as young as her daughters, Mrs. Malone was a lovely bride in aqua.

Her gown of poie de soir fitted her petite figure like a dream. 'Twas sheath smooth at the front, with a square neckline, and the skirt flaring at back, a bouffant panel pouffed at the back hemline in the Barem manner.

A tiny hat of flowers held her veil, long crushed gloves, shoes and even her hose were in the same aqua.

She was attended by her daughter, Mrs. Audrey Simmons, who wore mint green . . . a fitted bodice with wide cummerbund and full skirt, of eyelet over taffeta. Her flower hat, shoes and gloves were of the same mint green.

Mr. Chisholm was attended by his son, Alfred Jr. as best man.

The newlyweds will spend two weeks in Chillicothe, Ohio, as guests of his mother.

CHARLOTTE SUZANNE BRACY (she's the daughter of the Joe Bracys) celebrated her third birthday at a party in her parents' home, Saturday afternoon.

And from the time the children blew in with the snow and were handed big green lollipops hats and horns, until they had eaten their ice cream and cake, filled their party napkins with candy and departed, never was a more devastating time had by anyone.

Charlotte was particularly prideful of her birthday cake made by Godmother Vyna Skinner, as seems to be becoming a yearly tradition.

The fashions in little ladies' wear was right up to date. Beth Woodland was c-u-t-e-y in a sailor chemise and Rosa Phillips sweet in short, short yellow.

Patti Lou Gilliam gave her interpretation of the rock and roll . . . and that little three-year old kept her rhythm in fact even to the snap of her fingers.

Lester (Chuckie) Hudgins gave a fine piano concert on Charlotte's toy piano and played very well until a young lady excitedly for-bade, making requests. Then, as a lot of artists do, Chuckie became temperamental and refused to play anymore.

Marvis Davis, tired of all the carryings on, left the club room and chillren to make it clear that he preferred the company of grown ups.

But the payoff came when Roxanne Johnson decided that that the honoree should be baptised, took Charlotte to the bathroom and put her under the shower, party dress, curls and all.

When the party was through, Mommie (Eleanor) was too, and that was for sure.

Children at the party were: Jang Carter, Roxanne Johnson, DeWitt Howard, Lisa Randolph, Marvin Davis Jr., Beth Woodland, Janet Kelly, Mark and Michael Carter;

Patrice Gilliam, Rosa Phillips, Jackie Robinson, Dereva and Jan Griggs, Lester Hudgins, and Joan Bracy.

Their accompaning elders included: Drs. and Mesdames Daniel Skinner and Simon Carter, Mr. and Mrs. James Gilliam, and Mesdames Elaine Howard, Gloria Phillips, Nicki Randolph, Ada Woodland, Wilma Kelly, Lou Robinson, Connie Johnson, Jean Davis and Orien Griggs.

AND DO YOU THINK Sunday' situation deterred that epicurean club, the Creoles?

Not in the least. They climaxed their 10th anniversary celebration with their scheduled cabaret party at the Famous Ballroom.

The celebration that began one week previous was very charmingly topped with this affair.

The hostesses were Mesdames Alease Jones, president; Rosita Uncles, V. President; Margaret Austin, secretary; Margaret Durham, treasurer; Catherine Young, sergeant-at-arms; Romaine Taylor, business manager.

Members Henrietta Thoms, Willie Valentine, Elizabeth Forde, Margaret Hawkins.

Their escorts were Norman Uncles, George Austin Jr., Edward Durham, Charles Mack, Leroy Taylor, McKinley Thomas, Philip Valentine, Albert Hawkins.

The members made a beautiful picture in their lovely frocks as did their guests.

Guests danced to the melodious strains of Gil Monroe and his Orchestra.

The tables were kept filled with delicious foods and tid-bits by the caterers.

At intermission hot hors d'houres were served and at the end of the evening, hot coffee and buns.

Attending the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Earnest Owens, Wallace Hall, Paul Lawson, Joseph Dial, George Carter, Lawrence Brown Jr., Jerome Johns, Clarence Ringgold, Joseph Fellen, Handy Coulbourn, Ray Holland.

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Johnson, Arthur Clash, James Bolden, L. Dusenberry, Julius Pryor, Clinton Stewart, Irving Fields, Calvin Johnson, James Persons, Dewey Williams, William Stanford, Earl Anderson, Hugh Tross; Gordon Owens;

Mesdames Mabel Hubbard, Doris Thomas, Grace Thoms, A. Shaw, Mabel Dennis, Sarah Johnson Virginia Brooks, Virginia Booker;

Misses: Gilda Grey, Vernice Johnson, Doris Brewer Geneva Holman, Naomi Stokes;

Glover Campbell, Isadore Smith, Mr. Dorsey, Norman W. Uncles, Louis Nichols, Walter Cook, Robert Utley, Colon McNeill and William Addison.

ON SATURDAY, also, the mothers of the Mondawmin Child Study Group treated their children to a bit - belated Valentine party.

Derrick, Yvette and Kevin Matthews hosted the affair.

A show, "The Prince Takes A Valentine" was presented by Mrs. Jean Rosenbaum, local marionette creator.

At the party were Wayne Lockley, Gale and Dwayne Highginbottom, Lynn Carpenter, Brenda Liston and LaVerne George;

Also Karen Brune, Karen Williams, Kirk DeBeal, Flan and Eric Couch, Cheryl Gregory, Carlton Rice and McNeal Brockington.

Miss Lillie Ross entertains for Western High graduates

Misses Sarah D. Cousins, Lillye B. Clayborne and Bernice Young, recent graduates of Western High School, were honorees at a party, following commencement exercises, recently.

The party was given by Miss Lillie Ross of 2315 Winchester St., advisor to the Pee Zee Youth Group of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. A table, decorated in the graduation motif, carried out the sorority colors of blue and white in both service and delicacies.

CONGRATULATIONS took the form of readings, songs and gifts as Miss Ross presented to each graduate a blue wallet with inscriptions.

The three honorees attended Western for the past three years. Miss Cousins was fourth on the honor roll at graduation.

All three have matriculated at Morgan State College, where Miss Clayborne will major in business education; Miss Young in sociology and Miss Cousins in mathematics.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM BUTLER
Sweethearts for 50 years

—Sweethearts 50 years

Mrs. Elizabeth Powell.

Her father, Amos Powell, a delivery stable employee, died before she was married.

She was 19, the youngest of five children, and Mr. Butler was 21 just two days before the formal wedding which took place at the bride's home.

Mrs. Butler recalls how handsome he looked in a Prince Albert, cut-a-way coat, striped pants and all the finery befitting a gentleman of the era.

Mrs. Butler wore fashionable white silk with voile and lace. There were 100 people present.

BUT THE most delightful event of the grand occasion was that Mrs. Butler's best friend was her bridesmaid.

Mrs. Harriett Banner Wright, now residing at 2732 W. Lafayette Ave., and she were Sunday School classmates and "bosom friends."

Mrs. Butler recalls "She just had to be my bridesmaid. And she caught my bouquet of white carnations."

* * *

MR. BUTLER has been employed at the main office of the Union Trust Bank for 21 years.

He has been a member of the Emanuel Christian Community Church for 20 years while she is a lifelong member of the Madison Avenue Church and member of the board of deaconesses.

The Butler daughters are Mesdames Alverta Forbes, Martha Wright, Hazel Lampkin, and Miss Elizabeth Butler, all of Baltimore.

The sons are John, an Armour Packing Co. employee, Kansas City; William, a Boston, Mass., research chemist; and Samuel, a custodian at the city Department of Education.

SHRIMP AFLOAT on waffle boats, preceded by tangy tomato juice cocktails, make a tempting Lenten dish.

Shrimp afloat on waffle boat fine start on Lenten planning

WAFFLES HAVE earned a spot as a time - tested main dish for Friday and Saturday night suppers. Crisp - crusted, golden brown waffles can be stirred up in a hurry, baked right at the table. Why not plan to serve waffles during Lent topped with smooth, hearty creamed shrimp?

Onion, paprika and green pepper blend in the sauce to excentuate the shrimp. The mild, whisky complement of waffles beneath is a fine flavor foil.

You'll like this combination well enough to try waffles with other creamed seafoods — tuna, crabmeat, and to be especially elegant, lobster.

The waffles are made with two cups sifted enriched flour, one tablespoon baking powder, one teaspoon salt, and three eggs, separated, one and one-half cups milk, six tablespoons melted shortening.

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Beat egg yolks and add milk. Add to flour mixture. Add melted shortening. Mix well. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in hot waffle baker. Serve with creamed schimp.

For creamed shrimp use one-fourth cup butter or margarine, one-fourth cup chopped onion, one - fourth cup enriched flour, one - half teaspoon salt, dash paprika, two and one-fourth cup milk, one cup cooked, cleaned shrimp, and one - third cup chopped green pepper.

Melt butter or margarine in saucepan. Add onion and brown lightly. Stir in flour, salt and paprika. Add milk and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add shrimp and green pepper. Heat thoroughly and serve over waffles.

Makes four to six servings.

Prune muffins

A nutritious, well - balanced breakfast helps keep you feeling energetic all day. You're off to a good start when you include "Prune Wheat Muffins" in your breakfast—prunes being a good source of many minerals and vitamins.

Serve these tender whole wheat muffins with sliced oranges, soft - boiled eggs, link sausages and hot coffee.

* * *

PRUNE WHEAT MUFFINS are made with three - fourth cup cooked prunes, one cup sifted all - purpose flour, one-fourth cup sugar, four teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt, one cup whole wheat flour, one egg, one cup milk, and two tablespoons melted shortening.

Cut prunes from pits into small pieces. Sift all - purpose flour with sugar, baking powder and salt. Stir in whole wheat flour and prunes. Beat egg lightly.

Add milk and shortening and stir into dry mixture, mixing only until all of flour is moistened. Fill greased muffin pans about two - third full. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot.

Makes about 15 small muffins.

2nd Baptist wins S.C. opening round

AIKEN, S.C. — Second Baptist trounced Greendale, 29-6 Saturday morning at the Schofield gymnasium to open the first round of play in the Aiken County boys basketball league.

In the second game, Friendship Baptist eased by Wesley Methodist, 18-16, with Marion Smith and Lynwood Breeland dropping in six points each. Daniel Curry of Wesley was high man for the game with 10 points.

COOKING IS FUN

You can perk up Lenten meals with a variety of easy tricks

Perk up your Lenten meals with a lole of cute tricks that are fun to devise as well as a sure escape of menu boredom.

For instance, you can make a quick and easy tartar sauce for fish suppers.

Merely stir two teaspoons finely chopped onion into your mayonnaise, along with a generous measure of chopped parsley, sweet or sour pickle relish and a squeeze of lime juice.

* * *

EGGS ARE SURE to play an important part in your Lenten meal planning . . . but they do take to a bit of garnishing with great fun.

Make creamed eggs distinctive by flavoring the sauce with a little California dry Vermouth. Serve over toasted cornbread squares for a good Lenten supper.

And onion biscuits are teasingly good served with fish, egg or cheese dishes.

Simply stir two or three teaspoons instant minced onion into the milk when making baking powder biscuits. You'll enjoy the sweet, mild flavor of this moisture - free onion.

And eggs and olives taste wonderful together. Next time you scramble eggs, stir in a fourth cup of ripe olive wedges. Try some chopped ripe olives in deviled egg sandwich filling.

* * *

ADD A LIFT to your fish stories. Baste fish frequently while baking with California Chablis or other white - table wine. Use some of the pan drippings as part of the liquid when making sauce to serve over the fish.

Or serve fish fillets in mustard sauce.

You will need four individual fillets (for four servings), of course, a tablespoon melted fat, a tablespoon flour, salt and pepper to taste, a half teaspoon dry mustard, three - fourth cup milk, a fourth cup crumbs mixed with fat.

Place fillets in a greased shallow pan. In a saucepan, blend fat and flour, add seasonings and milk.

Cook, stirring, until thickened. Pour this sauce over fish and sprinkle the crumbs.

Bake in a moderate oven about 35 minutes.

Food, nutrition meeting set

Mrs. Judith A. O'Neil, food and nutrition specialist of University of Maryland will give training to food and nutrition leaders and interested homemakers at 10:00 a.m. February 28, Maryland Hall (Food Laboratory), Maryland State College.

Mrs. Pheil will demonstrate how to include the "Basic Seven Foods" with ease in everyday meal planning for the family. She will plan, prepare and show how to serve an attractive family meal.

This training is given at the request of Somerset County homemakers through Home Demonstration Plan of Work for 1958. The public is invited to attend.

A series of events and training will follow this meeting. These will include National 4-H Club Week, March 1-8; Fashion Hobbies For The 4-H Girls of Today, March 13, at Somerset High School.

Macaroni, with tomato-zestful

"Tomato Macaroni" is a recipe designed to please those who prefer mildly - seasoned foods.

This easy casserole combines macaroni with tomato juice, cheese and ripe olive wedges. You may add a pinch of dried herbs, if you like, but this dish is delicious seasoned only with salt and pepper.

* * *

YOU make Tomato Macaroni with one cup ripe olives, one and one - fourth cups macaroni, one tablespoon butter or margarine, one tablespoon flour, two cups tomato juice, three - fourth cup grated American cheese, salt, and pepper.

Cut olives into large pieces. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Meanwhile melt butter and blend in flour. Add tomato juice and cook and stir until mixture boils.

Remove from heat, blend in cheese, olives and salt and pepper to taste. Pour over well-drained macaroni. Turn into shallow baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 20 minutes.
