

What is the date of the report, and the date of the filing of the doctor's report?

There is no date on it.

Can you state from your abstract whether the report of the doctor was in the form of an affidavit attached to the petition filed by Mr. Brown, the States Attorney in that case?

It is.

Will you read the report of the doctor?

Exception.

The doctor's report of the patient shows a family history which tends to leave her with an unsettled nervous system, that from neighbors and acquaintances it was related that she had been regarded as queer for the past fourteen years. The patient was given a mental examination, and the findings were that it be placed in a simple mentia praecox of long standing, and it was the doctor's opinion that that was what he was dealing with, to-wit; mentia praecox residual state, existing over a period of years, that the patient was irresponsible and incapable of properly caring for herself, and was subject to numerous outbreaks, and was a menace both to herself and to others.

Mr. Donaldson, is it because of the information which the Maryland Title Company acquired from the records in that case, and as to which you have briefly testified, that the Maryland Title Guarantee Company refused to pass title to this property?

Exception.

It was,

is there any further testimony in the record of that case to prove of the sanity of Mrs. Arrington?

A son of Hattie Arrington, namely, Daniel H. Arrington, Jr., testified before the jury.

What is that testimony?

Objection.

Daniel H. Arrington, Jr., a son of Hattie Arrington, testified before the jury that his mother had not been well for
