'PICKUP ALLEY' AT ROYAL, STARS MATURE, ECKBERG

Screen taboos are lifted for the first time to bare the whole shocking story of the huge international dope syndicate in "Pickup Alley," which stars Victor Mature, Anita Ekberg, and currently plays the Royal.

Said to be the first expose on the international drug traffic ever permitted on film, "Pickup Alley" tells the whole amazing story of the world's dope peddlers, enslaved women and other hopelessly trapped victims, and the ruthless smugglers who operate around the world.

Further, it reportedly shows in graphic detail how U.S. T-men work with agents of Interpol, the international police, in a never-ending war against the world's most despicable criminals.

Sal Mineo and J. Carrol Naish star in "The Young Don't Cry," added attraction on this bill.

Story of a teen-ager too tough for tears in the brutal world of a Georgia orphanage, Mineo is magnificent as he fights to retain his dignity and self-respect against the brutality, sadism and cynicism of the "big guys" around him.

FAREWELL TO ARMS' OFFERED AT REGENT

David O. Selznick's eagerly-awaited CinemaScope, De Luxe Color production of Ernest Hemingway's "A Farewell to Arms," a Twentieth Century-Fox release which is now playing at the Regent Theatre, tells the story of the romance of an American ambulance driver and a beautiful English nurse against the backdrop of war in the Italian Alps.

The monumental film preservation stars Rock Hudson, Jennifer Jones and Vittorio De Sica and includes a feature and supporting cast of international talent.

Combining the proven ability of Director Charles Vidor and tempered with the genius of Producer Selznick, this Hemingway story of the difficult love of Lieutenant Frederic Henry (Rock Hudson) American serving in the Italian Ambulance Corps, and Nurse Catherine Barkley (Jennifer Jones), an English woman, has retained all of the scope and the power of the book, often called the best war novel of contemporary writing.

Moving against the authentic backdrop of Hemingway's beloved Italian Alps and the beautiful plain cities of Northern Italy, where the famous author himself saw service during the First World War, the film will show how these two young lovers strive to find a place for their love in the seething world around them.

Promising to be a major film achievement from every angle, the picture boasts an impressive cast of feature players led by Alberto Sordi, Italy's top comic, Kurt Kasznar, popular both in America and Europe, Mercedes McCambridge, Oscar Homolka, Elaine Stritch, Leopoldi Trieste and Franco Interlenghi.

MET HOLDS THRILLER FOR THE SECOND WEEK

She makes up her plots in the bathtub — while she eats apples. That's one of the little known facts about wellknown Agatha Christie, whose most successful book and stage play, "Witness for the Prosecution," now a gripping movie starring Tyrone Power, Marlene Dietrich and Charles Laughton is held over for second smash week at the Met Theatre through United Artists release.

Miss Christie is in her 60's and has been writing successful crime stories since 1916 when her sister dared her with these words: "I bet you can't write a good detective story!"

And before that, Agatha's mother, one day when Agatha was sick in bed with a cold, demanded that her daughter write a short story.

That started the pen moving in the hand of the now-famous Agatha Christie, whose total works to date are 60 novels and 13 plays published in almost every known language spoken in the world.

"Witness for the Prosecution" stars Ty Power as the never-do-well egg-beater salesman accused of murder.

Marlene Dietrich is Power's German refugee wife who holds the key to his innocence or guilt. And Charles Laughton plays the ailing defender of justice, the barrister.

ADVENTURE FILM ON HARLEM'S SCREEN

Filmed in beautiful Eastman Color in the backlands of New Guinea, "Walk Into Hell," tells of three men and a girl who dare brave the swamps, mountains and jungles, each for his own reason.

The motion picture now playing at the Harlem Theatre, relates a story of amazing adventure in the unusual in an ancient land where white man's civilization is only a myth and every bush may mask hidden death.

Chips Rafferty produced and stars in the adventure film and plays the part of an Australian official in charge of a trek into the interior.

Francoise Christophe portrays a beautiful French woman doctor on a U.N. assignment in the jungle where ancient superstitions and jealously guarded secrets of a primitive people bring the danger of death to intruders.

WESTERN IS FEATURE AT THE NEW ALBERT

As the commandant of a Western frontier Army post in Allied Artists' "Oregon Passage," now at the New Albert Theatre, Edward Platt stars in one of the most forceful roles of his career.

It is a role that calls for much action, as his post is attacked by a ruthless Indian band and he is called upon more than once to lead his men in bitter fighting.

THE WORLD'S MOST WANTED WOMAN, Anita Ekberg is hunted by T-man Victor Mature in "Pickup Alley," now at the Royal with "The Young Don't Cry" starring Sal Mineo.

John Ericson and Toni Gerry, seen as a new romantic team on the screen, and Lola Albright, cast as Platt's wife are the other stars of this Lindsley Parsons production.

The film, in CinemaScope and color by De Luxe, was directed by Paul Landres. John H. Burrows was Parsons' production associate, and the screenplay was authored by Jack DeWitt.

Six pianists and one vocalist were presented in the sixth student recital of the 92nd annual season at Peabody Conservatory last Tuesday.

One of the pianists who gave an outstanding performance was Sister M. Benigna of the Oblate Sisters of Providence. Sister Benigna, a native Baltimorean is a faculty member of St. Francis Academy, one of the oldest Catholic educational institutions in Baltimore.

She is also supervisor of and directress of liturgical music at the Novitiate, Druid Hill Ave. and Mosher St., and at the convent in Washington, as well as at the Mother House on Forest and Chase Sts.

At the Peabody, Sister Benigna is a senior student majoring in music education. Twenty members of the order from Baltimore and Washington attended the recital.

"PICKUP ALLEY"
but how could an honest picture about DOPE TRAFFIC be anything else?
It is a story with guts that took guts to make.
Fearlessly, cameras plunged into the sordid "pickup alleys" of New York, London, Paris, Lisbon, Rome, Naples and Athens ... to depict the private hell of the "hooked", the nightmare underworld of the "pushers", the merciless war being waged by Interpol—the International Police Organization—against the narcotics network.
We selected Anita Ekberg to play her first dramatic role as the trapped "pusher", fighting her way back from purgatory; we picked Victor Mature as the American narcotics counter-agent, fighting the enemy with its own ruthless weapons. Trevor Howard portrays the peculiarly twisted master-mind of the syndicate.
Never before has the screen been permitted to handle this adult theme ... in such an adult manner. We predict that it will cause quite a stir, within you and around you. We urge you to see it.
