FOUR OUT OF FIVE—As predicted over a month ago in the AFRO, the 1958 college Basketball All-America team is dominated by colored players. Only Don Hennon of Pittsburgh (center) broke the tan monopoly as selected by the Associated Press on Wednesday. All-Americans are left to right: Oscar Robertson, Cincinnati; Guy Rodgers, Temple; Hennon, Elgin Baylor, Seattle; and Wilt Chamberlain, Kansas. It marked the first time in history that more than three tan players were named to the mythical five.

13 Tan Faces On '58 College All-America

NEW YORK—A total of 13 colored players are included in the cream-of-the-crop list of college stars named to berths on the 1958 All-America basketball squad.

The annual poll of the Associated Press placed four colored aces on the first team, leaving only one berth open to Don Hennon, of Pittsburgh University.

AS PREDICTED in an AFRO Magazine article of February 1, the following tan players were picked to the mythical five:

Wilt Chamberlain of the University of Kansas, Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati University, Elgin Baylor of Seattle University, and Guy Rodgers of Temple University.

CHAMBERLAIN, a junior named to the All-America for the second straight year, led the voting with 1652 points and 297 first team votes on the basis of five for a first team vote and two for a second team placing.

Robertson, a sophomore who put Cincinnati back on the basketball map, was second with 1,330 and 256 firsts. Baylor was third with 1,327 and 249 firsts, Rodgers had 975 and 172 firsts and Hennon 717 and 109 firsts. No one else came near getting 100 firsts.

BARELY MISSING the first team was Bob Boozer, key man on the top-ranked Kansas State University quint, Boozer was named to the second team.

Two others were chosen on the AP third team: These were Johnny Green, high-scoring rebounder of Michigan State University, and Tom Hawkins, record-holding pointmaker for Notre Dame.

SIX TAN FACES are among the "honorable mentions" of the 1958 poll. They are:

Barney Cable of Bradley University, Boo Ellis of Niagara; Earl Robinson of California, Gene Brown of San Francisco, Wayne Embry, Miami (Ohio) and Hal Greer of Marshall College.

Training camp roundup

CHICAGO (ANP)—Joe Durham, who batted only .188 in 77 games with the Baltimore Orioles last season, hopes a more level swing will bring a more productive performance at the plate.

Before he was summoned to the American League club, Durham was batting a stratospheric .365 with San Antonio of the Texas League.

IN HIS early appearances at the Scottsdale, Ariz., training camp of the Orioles, Durham displayed a shoulder level swing which he said he used to bat .319 in the Venezuelan winter league.

He said last season he received a lot of instruction that might have disconcerted him.

"Too much changing around can get a fellow confused," the young outfielder said. "Let's hope I'm okay now. I did pretty well in South America with a little shorter stride."

JUAN PIZARRO, young left-hander of the Milwaukee Braves, has set a goal of 15 wins for this season. Pizarro arrived at the Braves' training camp in Bradenton, Fla., after a sizzling record in the Puerto Rican winter competition. He won 14 and lost four, with a 1.32 earned run average and 183 strikeouts in 170 innings.

"I think I'm better pitcher now," he said, "I got better change-up and screw ball. Last year I didn't use them much. Screw ball gets right hand hitters out pretty good."

UP FOR his last shot with the Brayes, Humberto Robinson says all he wants is a chance.

"I never got much of a chance before," said the slender Panamanian. "I pitched 15 straight scoreless innings my first spring (1955). After the season started I shut out Cincinnati for seven innings. A couple of days later I was sent to the minors.

Robinson, after hurling for Toledo in the American Association, returned later that season and went the distance against Philadelphia. He finished with a 3-and-1 record. He AA. Last season, he hurled for Toronto, International League pennant winners, winning 17 and losing 7.

JULIO GUERRA six-foot-four, 175-pound Cuban right-hander in the camp of the Cleveland Indians at Tucson, Ariz., made an early impression with his smoking fast ball. He pitched for Cocoa in the Class D Florida State League last season, Guerra won 26 games and lost nine. The 22-year-old hurler struck out 368 batters and walked only 11.

Billy Harrell, the Indians' infield aspirant, was tried at shortstop in the early stages of training. One of the speediest players in Cleveland's camp was Dave Mann, an outfielder who stole 55 bases and batted .320 for Reading in the Class A Eastern League last season.

Clippers, Bears in double-header

Two local basketball teams will be featured in a double-header with a pair of out-of-town fives starting at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the Lexington St. Recreation Center, 734 W. Lexington St.

The Baltimore Clippers, managed by Linwood Stevens, will oppose the Hopeville (Va.) Bears, and the Lexington Stars will play host to the Washington Stonewalls.

Ex-Giants star now NY bartender

NEW YORK (ANP)—According to reliable sources, Hank Thompson, former New York Giants infielder, is now tending bar in a tavern on Broadway. Thompson played with the giants for several seasons, competing in at least one World Series.

Russell & Co. calm after NBA pennant

DETROIT (ANP)—It might be that the Boston Celtics basketball team has just gotten used to winning championships, but last Thursday the Celtics took their second straight National Basketball Association title pretty much in stride.

Defeating the Detroit Pistons, 106-99, for the Eastern Division title, the Celtics were unusually calm in their dressing room.

There were no dousings under the shower or other antics that characterized their victory last year. Coach Red Auerbach and tan rebounder Bill Russell were spared the trip to the shower.

Coach Auerbach, meanwhile, hinted that the team is saving most of its steam for the playoffs. But he did say it is hard to figure out how "we made it," adding: "This has been our worst year for injuries."

In Memoriam 1

BARRETT — In loving memory of our beloved mother, IDA BARRETT, who departed this life one year ago, March 8, 1957.

God saw the road was getting rough
He gently closed her loving eyes
And whispered "Peace be thine dear one"
Sweet are your dreams, her days of pain
Her weary nights are past
Her everpatient, worn-out frame
Rests in God's acre at last.
DEVOTED DAUGHTER,
THELMA CREEK,
WILLIAM BARRETT.

BENTHAL — In loving memory of our dear father, grandfather and great - grandmother, CORNELIA, who passed March 9, 1957.

We loved you, but God loved you best.
THE FAMILY

BROWN — In loving remembrance of our dear sole and our mother, ANNIE M., who departed this life one year ago, MARCH 8, 1957.

Once upon you left us,
Your face no more to see
But our thoughts are full of memories
Of you, dear mother.
In our hearts you'll always be.
LENNIE AND CHILDREN
BEN JR., LEROY, ANN AND RUBY

DAWSON — In loving memory of my beloved husband and our father, ROBERT JACK DAWSON, who departed this life, March 8, 1957.

Nothing but memories as we journey on
Longing for a smile from a loved one gone
Time crosses the depths of our deep regret
But we remember and will never forget.
DEVOTED WIFE AND SONS

GASKINS — In loving memory of our dear mother, LOVIE R. GASKINS, who fell asleep March 9, 1955.

A family circle broken
But its bonds of love shall keep
Holding the hearts that mother taught
Before she went to sleep.
Knowing that He who tends His flock
Shelters her with His sheep.
MARY WATKINS,
VIOLA TALIAFERRO

GOUGH — In loving memory of my dear daughter and my beloved cousin, GLADYS, who passed away two years ago, March 6, 1956.

Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain
To have, to love and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many a face
But this they wipe out never.
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.
LOVING MOTHER AND COUSIN

GRANT — In loving memory of JEAN on her birthday.

Your memory brings back to me
Your face,
I'll remember and will never forget.
RUTH DOUGLAS

GREEN—In loving memory of our dear wife, GERTHA BELL (TILLIE) GREEN who passed away

March 8, 1957.
We miss you now,
our hearts are sore
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your loving smile
your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.

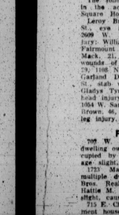
Loving Husband,
JOHN.



LEWIS—In loving memory of my dear husband and our dear uncle, REV. ROBERT W. LEWIS, who passed away March 8, 1957.

We walked together always in sorry and joy
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love,
For through the mist we see,
Our glad reunion in the sky
For all eternity.
LOVING WIFE AND NIECES.

In Memoriam 1

MURPHY— In loving memory of our beloved husband and father, ISAAC THOMAS, who departed this life March 9, 1957.

Yes, Gone are the good times we've had with you
We lived in such peace and harmony
But dear one to us you'll always be Loving, kind, and Devoted.

RUTH AND OTHO MURPHY

PARKER — In memory of our dear mother, CARRIE M., who passed away March 4, 1932.

Years ago our hands and yours
Were joined in marriage vows
That God, today, your perfect peace
Brings comfort to your heart.
THE FAMILY

PITTS — In loving memory of my dear Aunt, SARAH E. PITTS, who passed away March 9, 1951.

Peaceful be thy rest, Dear Aunt,
It is sweet to recall the theme,
As life we leave you behind
In death, we say, "Not farewell."
LOVING NIECE,
ALICE M. COLES

SCOTT — In memory of my mother, ALVERDA, who passed away March 8, 1956.

Her memory to me is a keepsake,
With which I shall never part;
Though God has her in His keeping
I still have her in my heart.
Devoted Daughter
SARAH SCOTT

SHEPHERD — In loving memory of CHARLES, who passed away March 8, 1957.

We often sit and think of him,
When we are all alone
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
Life lyes on the withered oak
When all other things decay
Our love for him will still keep
And never fade away.
Wife,
VICTORIA
Daughter,
ORETHA GRAY
