Winter COAT

"Vivian this is your Delta life"

"VIVIAN EDWARDS WASHINGTON, this is your life in Delta."

Thus, Delta Sigma Thetas introduced their soror to the fact that cognizance of her achievements was being taken, at an elegant surprise party, Saturday night.

The party was at the home of Charlotte Mebane . . . who had invited Vivian over on the pretext that she was having a few friends in for the evening. Even when Mrs. Washington arrived, and commented on the number of Deltas present, she still did not suspect.

And when she had been given a seat of honor . . . and her sorors (in a script beautifully written by Christine Moore) began to unfold her achievements she was still too surprised to comprehend.

The script told of her induction into the sorority while a student at Howard University from which university she graduated Magna Cum laude in 1938; of her garnering two master's degrees, of her holding the offices of chairman of Job Opportunities, as president of Epsilon Sigma chapter, of serving as a member of the regional planning committee, of being member of the national Coordinating Council.

It also recounted her serving as national convention director for the California conclave, as chairman of the national nominating committee, of the past convention, becoming national treasurer of the sorority . . . and of, recently, the publication of her book "Mount Ascutney."

And, when the praise was over, they gifted her with a beautifully bound book of the proceedings, and an even more beautiful gold bracelet with the sorority's Greek letters forming the charms.

There were letters and telegrams from Mrs. Vashti Murphy, founder; Mesdames Elizabeth Johnson, Annette Johnson, Maxine Higginbotham, Jennie Taylor, regional director;

From Dr. Jeanne Noble, grand president; and the grand officers of the sorority headquarters staff in Washington. Present was the administrative assistant of national headquarters, Ann W. Shepherd; and other special guests including Mrs. Edna Gover, Mrs. Ethel Rich and Mrs. E. Louise Anderson.

Town sorors at the party included:

Misses Alberta J. Thomas, Portia Boston and Constance Hazzard of Alpha Gamma (Morgan College);

Mesdames Dorothy Barrick, Mary Pool, Mamie Todd, Olivia Dixon, Christine Moore, Doris Moore, Mae Allen, Juliet Bragg;

Mesdames Inez Reed, Delores Green, Sally Fletcher, Dorothy Briscoe, Ruth Rosedom, Gladys Simms, Ella Clark, Frances Lucas, Laura Knight;

Mesdames Gladys Shepherd, Drucille Carter, Ann Fuller, Catherine Dawson, Vivian Owings, Thelma Cox, Mary Spellman, Beryl Williams, Helen Chamberlain;

Mesdames Cornelia Smith, Minnie Caesar, Josephine Brown, Phyllis McKinney, Charlotte Mebane, Delores Jessups;

Misses Ivan Cofe, Delores Adams, Martha Gover.

Mrs. Chamberlain was chairman of the committee which arranged the affair.

Lambdas mark Report Week

Kappa Coapter, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority observed American Education Week in a public program, recently at Coppin State Teachers College.

Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, president of Morgan State College; Mrs. Juanita Mitchell, attorney; and Clarence Roberts, Principal of School No. 100, were speakers for the afternoon.

* * *

MRS. FANNIE POULSON, presiding, emphasized that education is the foundation of our American Way of Life and that now is the time to evaluate our educational programs. To evaluate the theme, "Report Card, U.S.A." the speakers discussed "Education for Survival," "Education and Responsible Citizenship," and "The Teacher and the Curriculum."

Dr. Jenkins noted that the Russian Sputnik or the introduction to the Space Age and the Little Rock Crisis revealed two great weaknesses or problems in the United States; namely, our presumptuous and scientific superiority and the symbol of ignorance, defiance to law and denial of education to children.

The answer to these weaknesses, he said, is education. Three issues in education stressed by Dr. Jenkins were who should go to college, who should pay for a college education, and what should be taught in college.

It was emphasized that we should guard against saturating our educational programs too highly with science and mathematics. They are necessary but other phases in our educational programs are equally necessary, such as the humanities, literature, art, social sciences, etc. which enable us to cope with many problems facing mankind today.

"We should expand rather than restrict enrollments, be willing for the public to pay a greater share of the student's college education and use care in the selection of the curriculum. We must do our utmost to insure that we will have the kind of educational program we can and should have," Dr. Jenkins said.

* * *

MRS. MITCHELL felt that the whole of United States has not fully realized the harm caused by segregation. "Segregation" said she "channels the thinking and behavior patterns of people even early in childhood. People of the same social strata usually react in the same manner to similar situations. It is a great responsibility to carry the problems of an entire people on the back
