

9. Do you believe it would be for the interest and advantage of all the parties to sell the farm at that price?

A. Yes. I think it would. Mrs. Summers, at her age, could not manage the farm and the other parties in interest are all away from home and the condition of the property would soon become worse.

To the general interrogatory?

A. Nothing else.

Spencer E. Stutz

Thelma Glisan, one of the complainants, testifying on her own behalf, and being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says:

1. State your name, age and relation to this suit.

A. My name is Thelma M. Glisan, aged 42 years, and am one of the complainants.

2. How long did you know the late Andrew J. Summers?

A. All of my life, he was my uncle.

3. Do you know the date of his death?

A. February the 17th, 1941, I think the 17th is the date.

4. What relatives did Mr. Summers leave at his death?

A. He left his widow, Alice Summers, a sister, Mrs. John J. Dohoney, who is now dead, no children or descendants and the following nieces and nephew: Grace L. Summers, Thelma M. Glisan and Landis M. Summers. and Austin M. Summers.

5. Did Mr. Summers leave a last will and testament?

A. Yes, I look at Exhibit B to the bill of complaint and it is a certified copy of his will.

6. Did he own any real estate?

A. Yes. he owned a farm of 56 acres, more or less, located about 3½ miles North of Frederick on the Opossumtown Pike.