Wife wins divorce on desertion charge

Charging that she was deserted Mrs. Margaret Williams of 2922 Grantley Rd., has won a divorce from Elvin Williams, address unknown, according to court records.

The wife said that they were married in 1940 and that he left her in 1952.

She said he was tired of married life and the responsibility," Mrs. Williams said.

She was given custody of their three daughters and an order for $30 for support of the children was placed against him.

LEON DICKERSON of 1816 W. North Ave. who won a divorce from Mrs. Thelma Dickerson, was charged with the support of their 14-year - old son, though he testified that he does not know where the mother and child are.

He said that Mrs. Dickerson left him in 1950 and took the child.

He also said that he thinks they live at 1734 Druid Hill Avenue at some times and in Philadelphia at other times.

The couple married in 1943.

Held for burglary

William Wiggins Jr., 19, 600 block W. Conway St., was held for Grand Jury Action under $3,000 bail in Southern Police Court Tuesday on a charge of burglarizing a transfer company in the 500 block W. Barre St. and stealing $675 worth of office equipment.

Final rites held for fire victim

Funeral services for Daniel Benjamin Redd, 49, who died in a fire in his home at 913 Shuter St. Sunday night, were held Wednesday afternoon from a funeral parlor in the 1600 block N. Broadway.

The Rev. I. A. Muller, pastor of the Trinity AME Church, officiated.

Sgt. Kasper Utz reported that he arrived at the Shuter St. address about 8:30 Sunday night and found Mr. Redd lying on the floor, his clothes aflame. He ripped away the remaining garments and smothered out the fire.

A friend who had been in the home with Mr. Redd earlier, said when she left just before the fire, he was seated in a chair smoking a cigarette.

A NEIGHBOR from across the street, Mrs. Martha Mills, 910 Shuter St., said she sent her son over when she noticed the smoke.

The middle-aged laborer was born here in Baltimore.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Estella Redd of Baltimore; a brother, Howard B. Redd of Philadelphia; and an uncle and aunt, Phillip Morton and Mrs. Betty Marine, both of Baltimore.

Housing meeting planned Tuesday

An all day conference sponsored by the Steering Committee on Changing Neighborhoods will be held at the Sherton Belvedere Hotel on Tuesday.

Beginning at 10 a.m., the meeting will feature panel discussions on the following subjects:

"How Do We Stop Block-Busting"; "New Housing for Colored Persons, "How Do We Get It"; "How Neighborhood Resources Can be Used"; "How Do We Make Older City Housing Competitive with Newer Housing in the Suburbs?"

Judge praises cop who nabbed robber

"You are a brave, vigilant and courageous police officer and a real credit to the Department."

That was the comment of Judge Anselm Sodaro in Criminal Court on Monday when he praised a tan patrolman, William Young, of the Eastern District, for bringing a holdup suspect to justice.

Minutes later the defendant, George (Funger) Wallace, of the 100 block Colvin St., heard himself sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary for armed robbery involving less than $10.

The 26-year-old construction worker, who appeared in court with his arm in a sling, was convicted of robbing a restaurant in the 1500 block of E. Fayette St. last September.

Following the robbery Wallace was shot in the arm by Patrolman Young as he fled from the scene. The officer was off-duty at the time.

MISS IDA SNOWDEN of the 1800 block N. Caroline St., cashier at the restaurant, stated that when the holdup man enter.d the building armed with a pistol, he ordered her "to give it to me."

Police later learned that Wallace had been armed with a a weapon that would not fire.

In a statement introduced in court the defendant said that he decided to pull a holdup after visiting a neighborhood bar.

Patrolman Young stated that while enroute to work in a taxi cab he noticed a commotion as he rode past the restaurant.

HE SAID that when he saw an armed man running he chased him to Dallas St. where he fired two warning shots and then a third which struck Wallace in the arm.

Records were produced by prosecuting attorney Frank J. Marcelino which indicated that Wallace had been in and out of jail on sentences imposed by five judges of the Supreme Bench.

Charges of pointing a gun at Patrolman Young and assault on Miss Snowden were dropped by the State.

Two held for sale of 'moonshine'

A young matron and a 61-year-old man was placed under $1,000 bail each for Grand Jury action in Police Court Wednesday, on charges of possessing and selling untaxed moonshine whiskey at their home.

The two are Mrs. Ermadean Dunlap, 21, and John Young, both of the 700 block N. Eden St.

TO LOT OWNERS LAUREL CEMETERY

A meeting of all lot owners of Laurel Cemetery will be held on Tuesday Evening, November 25th, at 8 P.M. in Fellowship Hall, Gillis Community Church, Calhoun and Mulberry Streets, for action in the matter of the sale of the cemetery to private interest. Lot owners are urged to attend.

In Memoriam 1

BIBBINS — In loving memory of my dear mother, MAMIE BIBBINS, who passed away November 22 1957.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore.
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.
Daughter
KATHERINE LEWIS.
GRANDCHILDREN AND GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN

GREAT GRANDCHILDREN.

GOODEN — In loving memory of my dear son, LOUIS ORLANDO GOODEN, who passed suddenly November 22, 1955.
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days,
Sincere and true in his heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.
Loving
MOTHER,
SISTERS
AND BROTHERS.

HAMMOND — In loving memory of my mother, JANIE HAMMOND, who passed away November 18, 1942.
Dear God will thou a message take
To mother who wake above
Whisper that our hearts are with her
And we send her all our love.
HER LOVING CHILDREN.

HAMMOND — In loving memory of my dear husband, ROBERT HAMMOND, who passed away November 18, 1955.
Only God knows how much I miss him.
In a home that is lonesome and sad
Is the moments of my deepest grief
My Savior comforts me.
Wife,
ANNIE McDANIEL.

MONROE — In loving memory of our dear sister, ESTELLA J., who passed away November 20, 1957.
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one who was loved by all.
Gone to rest in earth you did your best,
Oh God grant you eternal rest.
Sisters,
ANNA M. CAMPHOR,
ALICE C. GROSS.

PERKINS — In loving memory of my husband, JOHN ROBERT PERKINS, who passed November 20, 1957.
Sad and sudden was the call;
Of one so dearly loved by all;
Death brings grief a shock severe
It was to part with one so dear.
Often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died.
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best
Oh God grant you eternal rest.
Loving Wife,
MILDRED PERKINS,
and brother,
DAVID PERKINS AND FAMILY.

Card Of Thanks 2

PAUL—The family of the late WILLIAM F. PAUL, would like to take this opportunity to thank its many friends for the cards, gifts and other acts of kindness and loyal friendship expressed during its recent bereavement. It helps to ease the loss and brings comfort to know that so many understand and offer great consolation.
Sincerely,
THE FAMILY
William F. Paul

TATE — The family of the late GLENTON D. TAYLOR, wishes to express to all its sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses accorded it during its hours of distress and bereavement. Our burden were lighter because you remembered us in everything. May God ever bless you.
