'Turkey Surprise' can end post-holiday worries

By FANNIEJOE REID

By the time you pick up this column you will be needing this recipe . . . one to take care of your left-over turkey.

For this, I offer Turkey Surprise.

You will need an envelope gelatin, a half cup of sugar, an envelope of blackberry flavored gelatin, juice of one lemon, three cups fresh cranberries, and a can of crushed pineapple for part one.

. . For part two, the turkey stand get one envelope gelatin, a half cup cold water, a half cup mayonnaise, a half cup cream or top milk, three cups chopped turkey, a teaspoon of salt, an eighth teaspoon each of chopped celery, and onion, and thyme, an eighth teaspoon sage, and cup black walnuts.

Now for part one: Blend gelatin, sugar and blackberry gelatin in sauce pan. Stir in water. Heat, stirring constantly, until all are dissolved. Cool, chill until thick. Add cranberries. Turn into ring mold. Let stand until turkey is prepared.

Part two: Soften gelatin in water. Heat slowly until gelatin is dissolved. Combine mayonnaise and cream. Blend in dissolved gelatin. Stir in turkey.

Let chill and thicken. Add nuts, celery, onion, salt, sage, and thyme. Turn out in square pan. When cranberry is thoroughly firm, place cranberry ring in center. Fill the ring with mayonnaise. Place whole on bed of crisp lettuce. Garnish with parsley.

"AS EASY AS PIE" certainly applies to this pie!

The crust is a new idea for a no-bake crust! It's made of rice cooked in milk, slightly sweetened and flavored with pecans. Use almonds if you like.

The crust can be made a day ahead and stored in the refrigerator. Use a prepared pie filling mix for an extra easy dessert. A pudding type filling or a fruit filling may be used, top with a meringue or with whipped cream.

Since the crust uses milk, it must not be held at room temperature longer than 4 hours. Since a lemon meringue pie is better not refrigerated, plan to serve this kind of pie within 4 hours after the filling and meringue are put in the rice crust. You'll enjoy making this easy crust that's so nutritious.

INGREDIENTS include one and one third cups of water, two-third cup of uncooked white rice, one teaspoon of salt, two cups of milk, one-fourth cup of beet or cane sugar, one-half teaspoon of vanilla, one-fourth cup of finely chopped pecans or almonds, prepared lemon or blueberry pie filling, or your favorite pudding or fruit filling.

Put the water, rice and salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil over a high heat. Turn the heat down low. Cover with a lid and simmer over this low heat 14 minutes. Stir in the milk. Cover and simmer over a low heat 40 to 55 minutes or until the milk is absorbed. Time will depend upon amount of heat under saucepan. Do not allow to boil. Stir occasionally. Stir in the sugar.

After the rice cools, stir in the vanilla and pecans or almonds. Spread over the bottom and sides of a wet 10 inch pie plate with sloping sides. Do not spread on the rim. Final shaping of crust is done when rice is cold. Cover well and store in the refrigerator to chill. Store overnight if desired. Before filling crust, build up sides so crust will hold 2 to 2¼ cups of filling.

Prepare filling according to package directions or use your own favorite pie filling recipe. Filling should be thick enough to need no additional cooking after being placed in the rice crust. If lemon filling is used top hot filling with a meringue. Bake at 400 to 425 degrees F. until a golden brown. Serve within 4 hours. If fruit filling is used, store in the refrigerator until time to serve. Serve with whipped cream. Store any remaining pie in the refrigerator. This recipe makes 10 servings.

HERE'S A REFRESHINGLY new fruit combination that doubles as a sundae sauce or fruit cup. "Double Duty Fruit Sauce" sets forth frosty strawberries, sliced dates, bananas, oranges, pineapple and avocado cubes in handsome fashion. Spoon the luscious mixture over vanilla ice cream or into sauce dishes to serve with crisp almond cookies.

Calavo avocados are easy to cube. Simply cut avocado in half; remove seed and skin and cut fruit into cubes. The lovely light green color will stay fresh and bright with the other fruits.

Make Double Duty Fruit Sauce with one (10-ounce) package frozen strawberries, one orange, one Calavo avocado, one cup of drained canned or frozen pineapple, and Vanilla ice cream.

Partially thaw strawberries. Pit and cut up dates. Peel and slice banana; peel and segment orange. Cut avocado in half; remove seed and skin and cut fruit into cubes.

Combine all fruits and serve over vanilla ice cream, or spoon into sauce dishes and serve with crisp almond cookies if desired.

Makes 4 to 5 sundaes or fruit cups.

Choco crisps

"Chocolate Refrigerator Crisps" are an inspiration towards keeping your cooky jar full! They are rich and crisp; dark and very chocolaty. The recipe makes at lot, about 7 dozen small cookies, but they go awfully fast. Good keepers, though, if they have a chance to show what they can do on this score.

Walnuts play the leading role in giving this refrigerator cooky superb flavor and good eating. This firm-textured nut bakes to a toasted goodness that's enjoyed at every bite. Let "Chocolate Refrigerator Crisps" make their contribution to your lunch boxes, gift boxes, and in-between meal snacks. Just wait 'til you try them with a tall, cool glass of milk!

CHOCOLATE Refrigerator Crisps are made with one cup California walnuts, one cup shortening, two cups brown sugar (packed), two eggs, one teaspoon vanilla, four (1-ounce) squares unsweetened chocolate, two one-fourth cups sifted all-purpose flour, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon baking powder, one-half teaspoon soda, and one teaspoon instant coffee powder.

Chop walnuts coarsely. Cream shortening and sugar together thoroughly. Beat in eggs and vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water, cool slightly and blend into creamed mixture. Sift remaining ingredients together, and blend into cream mixture.

Blend in walnuts. Shape into 3 rolls and wrap in waxed paper. Chill several hours or overnight. Cut into thin slices and place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 10 minutes.

Remove to wire rack to cool. Makes about 7 dozen small cookies.

Pea pilau

When United Nation's Day was celebrated, last month, one of the most attractive of the dishes offered at a reception which featured recipes from around the world was Pakistani Pea Pulao.

The recipes for this and other of the dishes served, have, of course been translated into a sort of American version. More than likely you will enjoy this spicy rice dish.

You will need a cup of long-grained rice, two and a half cups of boiling water of chicken stock, a teaspoon salt, a teaspoon fresh lemon juice, five whole cloves, five whole cardamon seeds, a fourth teaspoon whole black pepper, a fourth teaspoon whole cumin seeds, 2 bay leaves, two sticks whole cinnamon, three - inches long; a package frozen peas and two teaspoons butter or margarine.

Sprinkle rice in saucepan containing boiling water or chicken stock, salt and lemon juice. Crack cloves, cardamon seeds, black pepper and cumin seeds. Crumble bay leaf and break cinnamon sticks and tie in a cheese cloth bag. Add to rice.

Cover and cook 20 to 25 minutes of until tender. Remove spice bag. Cook peas according to directions on package. Saute in melted butter or margarine. Add to rice and toss. Yield: six servings.

Butter beans

"Grandmother's Butter Beans" are the creamy kind. They are simply cooked, seasoned with sweet cream, some salt and pepper.

Can't beat the old - fashioned simplicity of this for flavor and easy fixing, or those California large dry limas for tender, mealy texture.

For Grandmother's Butter Beans you will need one cup California large dry limas, two and one-half cups boiling water, one teaspoon salt, one-half cup cream, two tablespoons butter or margarine and freshly ground black pepper.

Rinse limas, add water and boil two minutes. Cover and let stand one hour. Add salt and boil slowly one to one and one-half hours, until limas are tender. Add cream, butter, salt and pepper to taste.

Pecan pie

When families get hungry for a really special dessert, can you think of anything that's more welcome than a big, old-fashioned peacan pie?

It seems to be just about everybody's favorite dessert.

You've never tasted pie like it — it's so rich and delicious . . .the creamy - smooth caramel filling covered with lots of crunchy peacans. And here's the amazing part! Rich and perfect as this pecan pie is, you don't use a speck of butter in it! That's because it's made with Pet Evaporated Milk, the milk that's twice as rich as ordinary milk.

FOR PECAN PIE use two tablespoons flour, three-fourths cup sugar, one teaspoon salt, one cup dark corn syrup, two eggs, one-half cup evaporated milk, one cup broken pecans, three-fourths teaspoon vanilla shell.

Mix in a one and one-half quart bowl the flour, sugar and salt. Mix in syrup well. Beat in eggs with a fork, one at a time. Mix in milk, pecans and vanilla. Pour into a 9-in. pie pan lined with unbaked pastry.

Bake near center of 375 oven (high moderate) about 50 min. or until firm. Cool before serving.

Miss W. Boyd wed to John R. White

with Lula Jones Garrett

A dream walking was charming Wilma Grace Boyd, who exchanged marriage vows with John Ronald White in St. Pius Catholic Church, Sunday afternoon at four.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Coritha Monroe Boyd, and the bridegroom, son of the Rev Mr. and Mrs. Arthur White of Ellicott City, Md.

Both of the principals are students at Morgan State College; she a sophomore, and he, a former Airman of the Strategic Air Command, now an inactive Reservist.

She is also active in the junior branch of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Given in marriage by her brother, Michael J. Boyd, the bride wore white taffeta with a chapel train, designed with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline.

Her fingertip veil was attached to a tiny hat, also of white taffeta. She carried white orchids attached to a white Bible. Her jewelry was matching pearl necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

Shirley Franklin, maid of honor, wore aqua net over taffeta, with matching shoes and hat, and bridesmaids in identical yellow, pink and blue net dresses, also with matching accessories, were Meredith White, Jean White and Geraldine Manokey.

Calvin Thanles was best man, and the ushers were Chauncey Miller, Vernon Fitzgerald and John Douglass.

Father Mulligan officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Morris Queen was at the console.

A reception was held at the Madison Avenue branch YWCA and later the couple left for New York City.

The new Mrs. White wore an ostore gray suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses for her wedding trip.

IN ST. JAMES EPISCOPAL Church, Saturday, at three, Miss Dehavilan Elizabeth Sydnor became the bride of Charles Eugene Jones.

Miss Waters is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Sydnor, and the bridegroom the son of Arthur Jones and the late Mrs. Jones.

Given in marriage by Mr. Sydnor, she wore a formal wedding gown of lace, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Wilhelmina Tucker, who was gowned in yellow and carried yellow roses. Melroy Mise was best man.

FATHER CEDRIC MILLS officiated at the double-ring ceremony, and William Parrott was at the console.

A reception followed at the Harlem Avenue home of the bride's parents. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Alice Tucker and Mrs. Leona Abrams.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Fregman, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Arthur and William Vince of played games.

Washington; and Samuel D. Walters and Mrs. Eva Price of Chicago and Granville Waters, N.Y.

THE Donald W. O. Hugheses (she's the former Estelle Price) of Washington, had their 11-month-old daughter, Jeanine Estelle christened in Douglas Memorial Church, here, Sunday.

The Rev. Marion Bascom officiated.

The baby is the grandaughter of Mrs. Blanche Hughes and the late Dr. Bernard Hughes of this city; and of A. D. Price Jr. of Richmond, Va. and Mrs. Mary Price Mason of Orange, N.J.

Following the services Mrs. Hughes entertained at a buffet dinner at her Druid Hill Avenue home.

Guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hill, godparents; the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bascom and their children Bernadette, Marion Jr. and Peter;

James V. McAllister, attorney, Mrs. McAllister and their children, Singleton, Donna and James Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Butler, Mrs. Geneva Hillen, Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Evans and children: Michael and Marguerite; and Denslow Evans, all of this city;

Mr. and Mrs. Neville Baron, Miss Roberta Fitzgerald and Maynard Brown of Washington; and A. D. Price Jr., of Richmond.

THE GUYS AND DOLLS, opening their fourth year of activities, met in the home of Deborah, Henry and Gale Bundy (children of James L. Bundy-attorney, and Mrs. Bundy) Saturday.

For this group of little folk, whose ages range from four to eight years, twas an unusual meeting. In previous years, the children has been enjoying informal fun and free play.

The parent body, of which Vivian Washington is now president, had taken care of organizing and planning activities. At this meeting, however, the tots had their first real grown-up type club session.

They elected as officers: Cheryl Russell, president; Karl King, vice president; Cynthia Stewart, secretary; Patrice Pinkett, chaplain.

After election the children had a work period under guidance of Ruth King. During this period, cut-out invitations for their Christmas party were made. Mary and Sarah Bundy directed singing activities and games later. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Guys and Dolls were treated to a party repast of ice cream, cookies, punch, peahuts and candies.

The Guys and Dolls include Gale and Henry Bundy, Deborah Wilson, Sarah Lee Foster, James Green, Karl King, Stephanie Lee, Patrice Pinkett, Cheryl Russell, Cynthia Stewart, Errol Taylor, Valdimar Washington and Linda Young.

Members of the parent club are:

Mesdames Vivian Washington president; Eugenia Young, secretary; Marie Fosfer, treasurer; May Pinkett, Edna Russell, Ameta Lee, Ellen Stewart, Ruth Kings and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bundy.

THE BALTIMORE chapter of Links inducted four new members, Saturday evening, at their session hosted by Etta Phifer.

In a ceremony conducted by Beatrice Butler, a former national officer; Yvette Murphy, Emma Michaels, Pauline Watts and Lydia Mussenden were inducted.

After toasting the new inductees with champagne, Et ta served dinner and the group
