Another Champion Passes Away

SONNY BOY MURPHY

He fell asleep, Friday, November 21st, 1958, at 2 p.m., in the fullest triumph of a dog's faith, age eight and a half years old.

If ever there was a dog who possessed and emulated the finer qualities of a human being, it was he, because they were born and bred in him. He was affectionate and lovable.

In the show ring, he exhibited the true qualities of a Champion as awards therein attest. He was also adored by hundreds of those who knew him, especially children.

His passing does not leave a vacant chair in our home as in human relations, but everywhere, throughout the house, he will be missed.

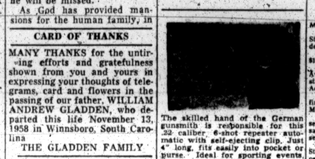
As God has provided mansions for the human family, in His kingdom, we believe also, that He has provided a resting place for others of His creation.

What a joyful moment it will be for us when, with Two-Spot, Captain Cadet, Scooty Boots and Sonny Boy, we see each other again. With this in mind, he now lies in the family plot in Oaklegh Pet Cemetery awaiting the glorious reunion.

We now realize more fully than ever before, the truth of the preacher, when he said, "Vanity of Vanities."

The past eight and one half years of companionship with Sonny Boy, although they terminated too quickly, will always remain as a solace in the years ahead.

Marie & Jack Murphy Jr.



The skilled hand of the German gunsmith is responsible for this .38 caliber 6-shot repeater automatic with self-ejecting clip. Just long fits easily into pocket or purse. Ideal for sporting events stage use. (not available to Calif. residents). Comes for $6.95 ppd. from: Best Values, Dept. G-250, 402 Market, Newark, New Jersey.
