—Mrs. Santa needs help

writing you about a family who will appreciate a nice Christmas because the father is not steadily employed.

It takes all he can earn to provide rent money and a little food. There are 6 children in this family whose ages range from 20 months to 12 years.

I share what I can with them, but they need more.

If there was ever a deserving and needy family, this is one.

(Will the writer of this letter please send the correct ages and sizes for the members of this family, including shoe sizes, dress, shirt, etc.)

CASE 4: "Dear Mrs. Santa, Could you please send me a car coat for school? My father just died in July and my mother has six children. There are four boys whose ages are 16, 15, 10, and two 12 sisters' ages are 7 and 12. Dec. 14 is my birthday and I wanted a bicycle. My father had said he would try to get me one, but he died.

I need a car coat for school and my mother has to sew clothes by hand every day and she would be glad for a sewing (sic) hand washing m. (sic).

My shoe size is 2. My sisters will be glad for anything I can get. But I really need a car coat. Mine didn't fit those days because I have to walk across the Lee St. bridge every day to school."

CASE 5: Dear Mrs. Santa, I have only a very small income which comes every two weeks and I am the mother of 10 children. They are very much in need of clothing and shoes. My money has to be used for heat and food. I have six daughters and 4 sons. Could you send us a basket, too?

(Will the writer of this letter send ages and sizes in clothing children wear).

CASE 6: Dear Mrs. Santa, I would like very much for you to help my family.

My father died five years ago and I have two more sisters and a brother. My mother only gets a small income to care for us.

Please try to help us for Christmas. We need it badly. (Will the writer please send sizes of mother, sister, brother and herself?)

CASE 7: Dear Mrs. Santa, I am a young mother whose little boy never got a chance to see his father. His father died.

I am unable to get him anything for Christmas. I would like him to have some pants, a little food and a toy or two.

He takes the size of a five-year old in pants.

CASE 8: Dear Mrs. Santa, I am writing this letter for my mother. My father died 7 years ago and since then, my mother has had all the responsibility on her in trying to pay rent and keep her children in school.

I also have two children and my husband was laid-off from work since Nov. of last year. I have been in a hospital with tuberculosis.

There are four children in our family. Two boys aged 9 and 2, two girls aged 10 and 5. We need any help you can give.

CASE 9: Dear Mrs. Santa, Could you please help one of my neighbors? She has eight children.

Her ages are 12, 14, 8, 6, 5 and the youngest is an infant. Her two girls are 12 and 2.

Please help them. Money and food for these children.

CASE 10: Dear Mrs. Santa, My children did not have a happy Thanksgiving and I would like someone to make Christmas a happier time for them.

Their father has been out of work for four months and we have been living on his $30 a week minus $20 for rent. Father is also in the hospital now with a broken leg.

We have three girls aged 11, 6 and 2 and four boys aged 10, 8, 5 and 4. We need clothing, shoes and food.

CASE 11: Dear Mrs. Santa, I have six children and I make $25 a week. My husband has been dead for a couple years.

Our lights are off and we need some kind of stove to heat the house.

My girls' ages are 7, 5, 4, 12 and 10. We need the rest of it.

Mother is sick and the rent of a room. We need food and clothes.

CASE 12: Dear Mrs. Santa, My three girls want a doll buggy and shoes very badly. They have a pair of sneakers now and I know that we haven't any money.

(If you would just fill a stocking for the little ones, they would be very happy.

Our house is cold because we can't buy coal for our furnace. My little girls can't gather wood from burnt houses when they can find it.

CASE 13: Dear Mrs. Santa, I have 10 children and my husband is unable to work. He had an operation for cancer and will have to have another as soon as he is strong enough.

His doctor says he might not live to see another Christmas and this year we cannot even give him a pair of socks.

Our children don't have shoes or decent clothes to wear to school.

Seven of our children are at home. Five boys' ages are 19, 12, 11 and 10. My oldest son was working and was laid-off a few weeks ago.

The girls' ages are 15 and 3.

CASE 14: Dear Mrs. Santa, I would like very much for my children to have a few clothes, toys and food for Christmas.

I would also like something for my husband. He deserves it because he tries so hard. He keeps his chin up and tells us we will make it some how.

He is a construction worker and work is seldom. When he does work, he needs warm clothes.

My girls are 12, 10, 7, 6 and 21 months. The boys are 8, 4 and 3.

My husband wears a 36 suit. We would like to have some kind of suit for him.

CASE 15: Dear Mrs. Santa, My daughter is convalescing in a home for rheumatism and she would like a music box for herself and roommates and other children in the hospital whose families can not afford to give them things.

She would also like to have a shoulder bag with a mirror and a handkerchief included.

My two sons would also like a couple of red toys.

(If the people on the second floor to receive a basket, too, because the husband has not been able to work and his unemployment checks are exhausted.

CASE 16: Dear Mrs. Santa, Please make our Christmas bright. Last year our Christmas was very poor. I have two boys, 6 and 3 and two girls, 7 and 4.

The boys want cow boy suits. They need food, clothes and toys.

The seven-year-old daughter in the family also wrote asking that Mrs. Santa not forget her mother who wears a 34 slip, 36 petticoat.

CASE 17: Dear Mrs. Santa, I would like help for my four little boys. They need basic clothes and toys. Their ages are from 9 to 2-year-old.

CASE 18: Dear Mrs. Santa, I am writing for my mother who has 10 children and I am the oldest. Our ages range from 16 to 4 months.

My father walked out on us so long ago and is not trying to support us.

My mother makes enough food to prepare a Christmas dinner but she is unable to buy the presents.

We wanted to tell the younger ones talk about what Santa might bring them but we can't. My mother and I know that we haven't any money.

CASE 19: Dear Mrs. Santa, I have four children. Two boys, one watch the other seven months. Two girls, 2 and 2. We need shoes, socks, clothes, toys and food.

CASE 20: Dear Mrs. Santa, My husband is 63-years-old and sick and I am 54 and hard of hearing. We keep our 16-year-old grand daughter.

We cannot pay our back rent which is $12 a week. We need food and clothes badly. My husband wears a 36 suit.

CASE 21: Dear Mrs. Santa, I have a little boy 5-years-old. He wears a size 6 in clothes and 9½ shoes. He also wants a bike. We did not have a nice Thanksgiving and want Christmas to be better. Thanksgiving my little boy cried because we did not have turkey.

CASE 22: Dear Mrs. Santa, I am the mother of 6 children and my husband and I are separated.

My children need food, clothes and toys. The boys' ages are 19, 13, 11, 9 and 7. The girl is 8-years-old.

CASE 23: Dear Mrs. Santa, I am the widowed mother of 3 children.

My oldest son is in Dunbar High School.

We need food, clothes and toys. (Will the writer of this letter please send the ages and sizes in clothes children wear).

CASE 24: Dear Mrs. Santa, I have been sick for three years and unable to work. I have five children aged 9, 7, 4, 2 and 10 months. We need food, clothes and toys.

CASE 25: Dear Mrs. Santa, I have six children. I make less money and can not be able to go back to work.

We have no food and no clothes. We need food and clothes.

Lexington Terrace scheduled to open before Christmas

The new Lexington Terrace apartments are slated to open sometime around Dec. 15, according to Urban Renewal and Housing Authority officials.

On Wednesday Robert Moyer, information director, told the AFRO: "The first families should be moved in before Christmas. However, before they do we have to make tests of the heating system, the incinerators and other equipment.

"The opening will be accompanied by an official program which is incomplete as of this date."

Warren Weaver is manager of the $7,621,743 housing project which is located on 15 acres bounded by Fremont Ave. on the West; Mulberry St. on the North; Myrtle Ave. on the East and Fayette St. on the South.

ing on the bone of the skull under the scalp.

When asked how a doctor and nurse had overlooked the bullet, Robert Hoyt, Lutheran Hospital administrator, stated that Miss Pitts was "most uncooperative" when brought to the hospital and it was difficult.

Mr. Hoyt said however, that after a thorough examination, consult-for the doctors to administer the matter would be looked into.

MISS PITTS declared Thursday that this was not so. She stated:

"I felt nothing after it happened so I came home. The police stopped by and carried me to the hospital.

"If I had felt pain I would have gone to the hospital myself.

"They asked me all sorts of questions about what had happened and whether or not I was sitting or standing when it happened.

"I figured that was the business of the police to ask me those questions, so I didn't tell them.

"They didn't put any iodine, a bandage or nothing on me and I was taken back home," Miss Pitts said.

BEFORE LEAVING the hospital the injured woman said she was handed a scrap of paper with this notation:

"Mrs. Stubbs

Charge Janice Pitts $1.50 for acc. exam on 11/30.

Collins"

On Wednesday a bill was received in the mail from Lutheran requesting payment of $1.50 for examination.

IN TELLING why she decided to see her own doctor Miss Pitts said:

"While on the job I began to feel bad and my head ached when I held it down. I just wasn't satisfied so I came home."

Mrs. Pitts' said that her family plans to take no action against the hospital.

MISS PITTS was shot around 2 a.m. Saturday while sitting in an automobile outside of a Forest Park Ave., home, police said.

Others wounded at the time were Mrs. Jessie L. Pendleton, 22, and her husband, Rudolph Pendleton, 25, of the 2900 Block Forest Park Ave.

Mrs. Pendleton was treated for a gun shot wound of the left chest at Lutheran.

Her husband received treatment for a head injury and a bullet wound of the right wrist at Provident Hospital.

Northwestern District police reported that when they found Mr. Pendleton four blocks away from his home, he put up a struggle and struck his head against the pavement when they tried to arrest him.

The report also said that Mrs. Pendleton was in bed when her husband left the house, and later that she heard two shots and a scream outside.

When she went to the door to investigate the noises she was also shot, the report said. On Monday, Mr. Pendleton was charged with assault by shooting the two women. He is out on $3,000 bail pending a Dec. 14th hearing.

erine, 3, and Patricia Bell, 4.

At 1200, the home of Mrs. Veronica Johnson, three more children were found unconscious.

They were: Michael, 7; Lloyd Jr., 4; and Jonathan Johnson, 5.

All six children were taken to St. Josephs Hospital where they were treated for smoke inhalation and held for observation.

At AFRO press time their condition was described as good.

DURING THE fire, Ernest Bell, 6, suffered minor injuries when he jumped 15 feet from a second-floor window.

His fall was broken by William R. Lucas of the 900 block E. 20th St.

Mr. Lucas was among a group of bystanders who formed a circle beneath the windows of the burning building and told the children how to jump into their arms.

Janice, Catherine and Patricia Bell were removed from their home by firemen with the assistance of Patrolmen Ambrose Januchowski and Joseph Skiba who mounted a ladder, and Patrolmen John Martin and Charles Podgmek of the Northeastern District.

Dr. William Subik, a staff member at St. Josephs Hospital who happened to be passing the scene at the time rendered first aid to the Bell children.

Two other Bell children were led to safety by their 9-year-old sister Carolyn, and their 10-year-old brother James Jr. They were: Keith, who is three weeks-old and Ronald, one year.

WHILE THAT rescue effort was in progress, Sgt. Casper Utz of the Northeastern District forced open a first-floor door at 1200, and with the assistance of an unidentified man rescued Michael, Lloyd Jr., Johnathan Johnson.

While assisting with the rescue, Firefighter Walter Rosakowski of Truck Co. No. 5 was overcome by smoke.

He was assisted to safety by Firefighters Arthur Krieder and Milton Potter.

FIREMEN, backed up by four pieces of firefighting equipment and two ambulances fought the stubborn one alarm blaze for more than 50 minutes.

While the fire fight was in progress, neighbors told police to find the children's mothers.

One mother, who was visiting in the home of a neighbor at the time, returned to find her apartment going up in smoke.

When she tried to enter the building she was restrained by neighbors.

Tenants of homes on both sides of the burning houses were evacuated by firemen.

DAMAGES TO the Bell home, and a vacant third floor apartment were extensive.

Investigators expressed a belief that the fire might have started when one of the children spilled kerosene in a second-floor apartment while trying to light a stove.

Damages to the first-floor apartment of Charles and Elizabeth Hockaday at 1202 were confined to smoke and water.

The 28-year-old Mr. Hockaday is the neighbor who carried three of the Bell children to safety.

tween us is one of pure friendship.

"I admire Mr. Powell greatly, but only as a friend of myself and my family. I go to his church and I vote for him." (Mr. Powell was recently re-elected to Congress and is pastor of Abyssinian Baptist Church.) "Surely, no one can make a romance of that."

Several attempts were made to reach Congressman Powell but to no avail.

At his office in Washington, a spokesman said, "Mr. Powell is in New York. If you are trying to get him to comment on any matters pertaining to women, I'm afraid you're wasting your time."

On the first of two calls at his New York office, the AFRO was told Mr. Powell would be asked to return the call "when he contacts us."

On the second call, the paper was informed: "Mr. Powell is not expected. He is out of the city and we do not know where he is."

IN BALTIMORE Miss Blair's mother, Mrs. Sarah Hutchins, was thrilled by the prospect of her daughter's projected European trip.

In characteristic maternal thinking, she asked the AFRO to tell Sallie to "buy a Storm King coat; it's cold in London."

When she got the message, Miss Blair laughed: "Okey, but where in the world do you buy those things?" — SAM LACY.

—Vonny

is such a pretty little girl been hospitalized all this time?

The answer is, she likes (or used to like) jam and one teaspoon of "jam" got her in a jam.

IT HAPPENED this way.

On June 15, Fathers Day, the cute little tot decided she wanted some jelly and bread between meals.

Her mother thought Vonny was taking a nap but instead, the little girl was tipping down the steps on the way to the kitchen.

Still unnoticed by her mother who has four other children, Vonny climed up high to the cupboard and reached for a jar she expected to be jam.

Unable to wait to spread it on bread, Vonny placed a spoonful of the "jam" in her mouth and swallowed it.

In a few minutes Vonny had a very bad tummy ache.

The jam turned out to be a brand of oven cleaner which contains caustic substances excellent for cleaning stoves but capable of burning and destroying living tissue such as tiny girls' tummys are made.

Before she knew it, Vonny landed in Halstead surgical clinic with damaged esophagus, the tube which connects the mouth with the stomach.

SINCE JUNE 15 she has been fed through a rubber tube directly into her stomach. Somewhat improved now, Vonny is able to have a liquid diet.

Twice a week she is placed under an anesthetic and wheeled to the operation room where surgeons open the esophagus with surgical instruments.

However, Vonny is patient and takes the ordeal in stride. She is the darling of Halstead 3. Ward nurses have come to love her dearly.

Her favorite nurse is Mrs. Bessie Lewis, 1802 N. Washington St., who combs her hair and sometimes reads to her.

MRS. LEWIS told the AFRO: "She's the nicest little child we've ever had. She's very good all the time.

"It would make Vonny very happy to have some new books and pretty toys to play with while she's waiting to get well."

At home, also hoping Vonny will be well soon are four sisters and brothers.

Denise, the oldest child, is four years old. Amanda is two; Patrick the Ball's third daughter will be a year old in December while the only boy of the family is Delman, who was born Nov. 6.

AND, SEVENTEEN years ago, the same week of the Pearl Harbor sneak attack, the AFRO reported that Baltimore had been rated a "first target area" because of its proximity to airplane and steel plants and army installations.

Another story appealed for 1328 air raid wardens and announced the air raid signals for the state.

All news 17 years ago did not concern the war.

One story told of a testimonial for the late Mrs. Sarah C. Fernandis, honored for 29 years' service as head of the Cooperative Women's Civic League.

AND, THE success of the Urban League's six-month campaign to get the then Postal Telegraph (since merged with Western Union) to hire colored messengers, was told in another story which announced three new messengers had been employed.

Their names were given as Donald R. Fallin, 402 N. Carrollton Ave., William R. Kesyom, 428 Laurens St., and Floyd Scott, 12 N. Caroline St. Where are they today?

Big news on the social page was the wedding of the former Miss Olivia Pierce and Walter Dixon, head of the Cortez Peters Business School. Today, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon still make their home in Baltimore and, in fact, he is a city councilman.

Another wedding 17 years ago —Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones — she was the former Virginia Hankerson. Where are they today?

AND, ON another page, a story reported the retirement from the post office of William Arthur Jones, who had served 43 years.

An editorial about his retirement commented on the fact that Mr. Jones when asked if he had his life to live over would he still go into postal work, replied no, because the postoffice did not provide sufficient opportunity for colored men to advance because they were confined chiefly to jobs as clerks and carriers.

Mr. Jones is well and happy. Recently, he observed his 81st birthday. In his retirement, he enjoys participation in Masonic affairs.

And, the post office in 17 years has changed . . . there have been increased opportunities for colored employees who qualify. And the present postmaster — William Laukaitis — is pledged to see that promotions and jobs are handed out on a democratic basis.
