THE PLANNING OF two major events were on the agenda when Alpha Zeta chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority held its monthly meeting.

The first will be the Founder's Day dinner to be held in January and the second, the annual celebration of Finer Womanhood Week in February.

The chapter heard reports from delegates who attended the Atlantic Regional Conference in New York, as well as a dynamic address by their soror, Mrs. Anita Turpeau Anderson of Coatesville, Pa.

Miss Beatrice Maye, basileus of the chapter was named chairman of the Finer Womanhood Week activities for the Atlantic Region.

Other sorors who attended the conference were Ruth Cleaver, Emma Dudley, Lillie Ross, Goldia Ford, Elizabeth Demby, Katharine Johnson, Alice Hall, Jessye Valentine, Doris Howell, Mary Hurt, V. Hill, Eva Washington and Catherine Banks.

An appropriate program, in keeping with the Thanksgiving season was presented under direction of Soror Henson. Hostesses for the session were Sorors Audrey Davis, Catherine J. Mayo, Bernice Shorter, Carrie Scott, Sarah Lyles and Iris Wheaden.

POT-POURRI: Thanksgiving can't be counted rightfully over until the Jesse (Mattie) Smiths have laid their bountiful spread and gathered to their board their annual holiday guests... and this they did on Sunday night.

Guests came in from the game, half - frozen, but to have pleasantly under Jessie's administrative pouring. And there were so many dishes on their dining table that it took on the air of a smorgasbord. So, buffet service it was, with plates piled greaning high.

Dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. John J. deCecilio, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams and daughters, Ann and Nina; Mrs. Ruby Grooms, Thomas Freeland, Mrs. Mary Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Patterson and Assistant District Attorney George Rosedom and Mrs. Rosedom.

When the Baltimore chapter of Guardsmen filled in its Thanksgiving void with an elegant dinner party in the new home of Dr. and Mrs. William Garner, Saturday night, guests were too busy admiring the Garners new mansion (in the Morgan Park area) to worry about what the usually suave Guardsmen gals were wearing. ... that is, with the exception of the chic maternity frock Mrs. Dave Mason had donned. ... and an especially eye-catching frock which Mrs. John Wood had created and was wearing. The latter was a form-fitting sheath in black, over which was imposed a black chiffon balloon.

The Waters Catering Company did its tops with the dinner... and why not, two of the Guardsmen (Biddy and Junky Wood) are sons of the establishment... the men were suave in dinner jackets... gifted their mates with charming silver bracelets.

The Spearman family, who had an addition of triplets to their family of nine the past June was the special Thanksgiving project of Pi chapter of Tau Gamma Delta Sorors.

And the Women's League of Coppin State Teachers College soothed their own souls with a beautiful program of music, prayers and inspirational readings... and aided needy families to the tune of 15 heavily laden baskets as their holiday project.

The baskets went to families suggested by Northwestern Police Station and were accepted by Sgt. Violet Hill Whyte. Along with Mrs. Whyte as guests at the program were Captain Wade H. Poole, and Policewomen Carolyn Robinson, Marion Sheppard and Frances Seidlich.

Presiding at the program was Miss Phyllis Fludd. Other participants were Misses Jeannette Somerville, Shirley Smith, Bernita Thomas, Gloria Alston and Audrey Seabrooke; Mrs. Parlett Moore, Mrs. Pauline Brooks, Miss Mildred Birdsong, president of the Douglass High School Student Council; and Miss Doris Arvin.

Mrs. Louise Perrin, college personnel counselor, is sponsor of the Women's League.

When the Epicureans of Washington had a party at the Arlington Airport, Saturday night, a good representation of the Baltimore unit was on the spot.

Guests from three cities mark 75th birthday of Mrs. Grove

Guests from three cities gathered here, Sunday, to celebrate the 75th birthday of Mrs. Alene Grove of 1527 Edmondson Ave.

The reception was given by her daughters, Mrs. Ella M. Spell, Mrs. Cora Harrison and Mrs. Flource Montgomery, in the latter's home, 2427 McCullon St.

THE HONOREE was charming in a gown of blue-flowered silk, with a corsage of red rosebuds.

From Philadelphia were Messrs. and Mesdames Randolph McGhee and Clifton Lomax; Mesdames Martha Ward, Lena Valentine, Fannie Harris, and Louise More; Miss Ruby Jackson and John Alexander and Ernest Watson.

* * *

GUESTS FROM WASHINGTON were Messrs. and Mesdames Howard Williams, Jesse Williams and Calvin Acker; Mesdames Ella Robinson, Mamie Williams, Maggie Davis, Helen Thompson and Catherine Tucker; and Calvin Acker Jr.

Baltimoreans present were: The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hines, Messrs. and Mesdames Edward Smith, Maxwell Haynes, George Veney, Louden Robinson, Harry King, James Broadie, Granville Garner, Charles Gray, Alison Chambers and Rudolph Chambers;

Mesdames Ellen Ward, Ada M. Daton, Harcum, Maggy Bailey, Edna Coward, Louise Turner, Emma Harper, Inez Lucas, Lily Morris, Dolores Wade, Naomi Harp;

DATE DATA: The fabulous Martiniques will present their second "Evening in Paris" affair on Tuesday evening December 30th, at Unity Hall in Dundalk, Md., for benefit of the Anna Mae Hunter Home for the Blind.

This project, and others like it, are only a few of the things that this group engages in during the club year. Each Christmas and Thanksgiving the members contribute to the needy, and are generally charitable to indegent families in Baltimore.

The Tune Toppers will bring music for dancing.

Subscriptions are being dispersed by club members Myrtle Thompson, Beatrice Smith, Susie Moore, Dorothy Lee Davis, Alma Perry, Geraldine Lipscomb, Hester Greenway, Helen Tucker, Victorine Adams, Justina Chandler, Ruth Paysour, Dorethea Foster and Irene Cooper, Harris.

President, Serena G. Forehand says that such a worthwhile project as the Home for the Blind warrants the kindness of every one, especially at this time of year, when the inmates of the Home Cannot see the beauties of Christmas as others do.

The Martiniques are appealing to your graciousness through this cocktail - dance. Please be kind!!

The Co-operative Women's Civic League has scheduled its benefit party for Saturday (tomorrow) at the League House.

This is the annual money raising affair for the upkeep and maintenance of the Civic League property. The House serves the community as a meeting place for clubs and organizations, as well as head quarters for the Cooperative Women's Civic League, the pioneer women's civic organization of the city.

The committee which has arranged the affair includes Mesdames Vivian Pendleton, chairman; Harriet Jones, co -chairman; Claire Parker, decorations; Katherine Lane, prizes; Nellie V. Waters, hospitality; Marguerite Petersen, Candy sale; Gertrude Tucker, donations;

Mesdames Violet Hill Whyte, sponsors; Lena Dickerson, scores; Margaret Proctor, tables; Bernadine Harrison, Wintergreens; Emerson Walden, arrangements; Gladys Shepperd, housing chairman; Vivian H. Bundy, contests; and Vivian E. Cook, League president.

Free rides for guests at party

Youngsters attending the gigantic Christmas Party on Christmas Eve morning at the Regent Theatre won't have to worry about transportation — The Baltimore Transit Co. will take care of that.

On Thursday the BTC announced that it will take the children to the theatre and back home again without charge.

This will be accomplished through the use of special tickets which will be distributed to the youngsters.

* * *

MEANWHILE, Henry R. Hornstein, owner of the Regent Theatre announced that the feature picture for the show will be a Dean Martin-Jerry Lewis laugh riot, "Partners."

The theatre party is part of the AFRO's Mrs. Santa Claus Project, the annual event designed to aid needy families.

This year, through the cooperation of the Regent, the children in such families will receive an extra treat in the form of the free show at the Regent.

In addition to viewing the offering on the screen, the youngsters will also see a live show with Maurice (Hot Rod) Hubert as the master of ceremonies.

From the Deborah London School of the Dance will come four talented youngsters who will delight the hearts of the audience.

Also scheduled to appear on the show will be the magnificent Great Hymns Choir, directed by the Rev. Daniel L. Ridout, which will provide the traditional music of the holiday season.

Other program participants will be announced in future stories on the party and on Dec. 24, the youngsters will see a show that will give them a wonderful feeling to start the Christmas holidays.

Tickets will be distributed prior to the show.

Crownsville Auxiliary sets Sunday meeting, coffee hour

The Crownsville State Hospital Women's Auxiliary will hold its first general meeting of the 1958-59 season on Sunday at the hospital. The public is invited.

The meeting will be held in the nurses' lounge and will feature a talk on community participation in mental health by Dr. Furman Templeton, executive secretary of the Baltimore Urban League. A coffee hour will follow.

Mrs. Simon Carter, president of the Auxiliary, will preside.

The Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting at Mental Hygiene headquarters in Baltimore on Wednesday and discused hospital problems with Dr. Charles S. Ward, superintendent of Crownsville.

Payne-Brown wedding held

Miss Vinita Kay Brown, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Brown of 2119 N. Smallwood St., became the bride of Samuel L. Payne Jr. here, Saturday.

The ceremony, at six in the evening, took place in St. Gregory Roman Catholic Church with Father Conklin officiating.

* * *

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her cousin, Charlie Gray, the bride wore a gown of white lace, made with long sleeves, a Sabrina neckline and chapel train. A panel of ruffles enhanced the skirt, and she wore a matching veil of lace, held by a coronet of sequins and shed pearls.

Her flowers were a sheath of bridal roses.

She was attended by Mrs. Mary Cuffee, matron of honor, whose ballerina gown was in salmon pink lace. Accessories matched the gown. Two bridesmaids, Misses Caroline Colbert and Phyllis Lake, wore identical ballerina gowns in blue and pink, respectively.

They carried bouquets of vari - colored flowers.

* * *

AMERICUS ROYE was best man, and ushers were John Eubanks and Edward Payne. Portia Brown was flower girl. Her ensemble was in white.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Payne are graduates of Laurinburg Training School in Laurinburg, N.C. He also attended Morgan State College.

SIMPLY ELEGANT! mix-and-shape Fruitcake Fancies

No baking! The secret is double-rich Pet Milk . . .

Fancy these, all from one recipe . . . delectable finger morsels and a frosted cake, all moist and spicy, mellowed into the very taste of Christmas by double-rich PET Evaporated Milk! No other form of milk will do, because no other has this creamy richness, this special blending quality.

Just mix it, shape it as you please, and be festive the easy way. WRITE NOW FOR "FESTIVE TREATS," your free PET Milk cookbook. Send postcard with name and address to Pet Milk Company, 1630 F Arcade Building, St. Louis 1, Missouri.

FESTIVE FRUITCAKE RECIPE

Put into 3-qt. bowl 1 cup PET Evaporated Milk, 32 large Marshmallows, finely cut (or 4 cups of the miniatures) and 6 Tablesp. Orange Juice or alcoholic flavoring. Into another larger bowl, measure 8 cups fine Graham Cracker Crumbs (about 8 doz. 2½-in. size, crushed), ½ teasp. Cinnamon, ½ teasp. Nutmeg, ¼ teasp. Cloves, 2 cups seedless Raisins (½ golden and ½ dark variety), 1 cup finely cut Dates, 1½ cups broken Walnuts, 1½ cups cut-up, mixed Candied Fruit. Work in milk mixture with spoon, then with hands until crumbs are moist. Make one large fruitcake in an angel cake pan or shape into Fruitcake Fancies. If mixture becomes too crumbly to shape easily, add a few drops PET Milk. Cover tightly. Chill 2 days before serving. Makes 4½ lbs.

FRUITCAKE FANCIES. One-half of the mixture makes any one of these:

FROSTED WREATH—Press mixture firmly into waxed-paper-lined, 5-cup ring mold. Remove after chilling and dizzate thin powdered sugar frosting over top; then decorate with candied fruit.

TINY TIMES—Press mixture firmly into paper nut cups. Decorate with candied cherries. Makes about 18.

HOLLY TREATS—With wet hands, shape teaspoons of mixture into ¾-in. balls. Dip in PET Milk. Roll in cut-up coconut or finely cut nuts. Makes about 6 dozen.

CHRISTMAS GEMS—With wet hands, shape teaspoons of mixture into date-shaped pieces. Decorate with walnut halves. Makes about 6 dozen.
