Man convicted of attempted incest among 92 parolees

The Department of Parole and Probation disclosed that 92 persons were released on parole from penal institutions during the month of November.

Among them was Hercules Williams who was convicted and given 20 years on an assault and attempted incest charge in 1956.

Mr. Williams was charged with molesting his four daughters, and sentenced to the penitentiary on Aug. 7, 1956 by Criminal Court Judge Joseph L. Carter.

However, Williams appealed the sentence and the Maryland Court of Appeals granted him a new trial.

In Oct., 1957 the 20 year sentence was reduced to 3 years.

THE DEPARTMENT of Parole and Probation has recently inaugurated a program by which certain inmates eligible for parole may be released under special supervision.

The purpose of this program is to release more parolees in a given period of time, thereby reducing the problem of crowded jails.

Fifteen such persons were released under this program during the month of November.

They are:

MRS. ELEANOR P. REID
Services set Saturday

Mrs. Eleanor P. Reid, retired principal, dies

WASHINGTON

Eleanor P. Reid, 81, retired elementary school principal died Wednesday night at her residence, 2704 Thirteenth St., NE.

Mrs. Reid served for fifty years both as teacher and principal in the Wilson, North Carolina public school system.

Upon her retirement in 1944, she moved to Washington where she had since maintained her home. Her long years of service as an educator were always characterized by high Christian principles, inspirational power, educational vision, and the ability to make friends.

THROUGHOUT HER life she functionalized her educational philosophy. "Education is that tool which should enable individuals to live happier, more useful, and more responsible lives." This fact is evidenced by the scores of young people whom she encouraged, inspired, and aided financially in the continuance of their formal education; and by her active civic, social, and political life.

Mrs. Reid is survived by the following members of her immediate family: her husband, James D. Reid Sr., retired government employee, two sons, Mr. Esther Hayes, retired, of this city, Mrs. Robert Kornegay, retired educator, Mount Olive, N.C.; five children all of Washington; Mrs. Matthew J. Whitehead, teacher in the public schools of the District; Bruce T. Reid, government employee; Dr. James D. Reid Jr., practicing dentist; Paul F. Reid, postal worker; Herbert O. Reid, professor of law at Howard University, and four grandchildren, Joselyn Eleanor Whitehead, Matthew J. Whitehead III, Herbert O. Reid Jr., and Carleine F. Reid.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 11 o'clock at the Calvary Episcopal Church, 6th and Rhode Island Ave., NW.

$50 A WEEK — that's the amount the AFRO has available each and every week for news tips and newspshots. If you have a newsshot, call MUL. 5-6015 or MUL. 5-1812 and say "I have a newsshot." If no answer call LA. F. 3-2324. Bring your newsphoto to the AFRO City Desk, 628 N. Eutaw St.

Four hunters killed in Va.

SOUTH BOSTON, Va. — William R. Barksdale, 30, of Germantown, Pa., and three hunting companions, Albert Logan of Jamaica, L.I., Edward Hawkins of NYC and Alvin Garvin of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., were instantly killed here Tuesday when their car collided head-on with a tractor trailer.

The men, who had been spending the Thanksgiving weekend with relatives at Halifax, Va. were returning to Halifax from West Virginia when the accident occurred.

Private funeral services for Mr. Barksdale, a retired businessman were scheduled to be held Friday from the William Young funeral home at Germantown. Interment is to be in Fairview Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Betty Barksdale and a sister, Mrs. Charles Jackson, wife of a well known Chicago mortician.

Mrs. Anna Fleshman of 717 N. Monroe St., who told the Court that she and Albert Fleshman had been separated on three occasions, said the last separation has lasted since May, 1954.

She divorced him last week. They were married in 1951.

"Each time (after a separation) he would ask me to take him back. The last time he left he had been back only three weeks. But he drank and he didn't have any money."

"He left on a Tuesday in May, 1954, came back for his clothes on Friday, and hasn't been back since," she said.

A DIVORCE also went to Mrs. Barbara Evans from Robert L. Evans, and the wife regained her maiden name, Walker.

Mrs. Evans, of 1103 Myrtle Ave., who is employed as a clerk in the Department of Employment Security, said that her husband deserted her on March 30, 1957 after their marriage on April 10, 1956.

Frank Smith, 2442 Woodbrook Ave., postal worker, also charged that he was deserted in a suit that won him a divorce from Mrs. Barbara Smith.

Married on April 8, 1955, Mr. Smith said that the union lasted slightly less than two years.

"I was a student at the time I was going to Morgan College. On March 15, 1957 when I came home she had moved most of the furniture.

"I saw her next day and she told me she didn't care to be married any longer, that she wasn't coming back."

He worked like, and when he came home he couldn't get in.

That was the story told to a Master of Chancery by Carl Cullum of 2605 E. Biddle St. in testimony against Mrs. Iris A. Cullum.

He won a divorce on grounds of desertion.

Mr. Cullum, 25, said that his 26-year-old wife had the doors locked and wouldn't let him in. "I don't want you anymore. Get away and don't come back," is what she told him, he said.

He added that when he went back next day his wife had all his belongings packed and waiting for him.

Detectives guard Hopkins Hospital

Pinkerton's National Detective Agency Inc. has assumed operation of the Johns Hopkins Hospital's security department on November 17.

The establishment of the security department, succeeding the protection department, transfers responsibility from the hospital's staff to a professional agency for organizing, training and maintaining a force within the Hospital.

THE SECURITY department, operated and staffed by Pinkerton, will provide uninterrupted protection coverage under the supervision of the Hospital's department of security services. With an average of 21 guards on duty daily, security coverage is being expanded from 813 to 1044 hours per week.

Bridegroom shot man during 'acute anxiety'

Jay Arthur Jackson was a bridegroom of little more than a month on Oct. 17, the day on which he was charged with fatally shooting John Harden, 28, 2500 block Kennedy Ave.

The 23-year-old soldier, whom police say met his 18-year-old bride, Doris, here in July and married her on Sept. 4, reportedly shot Harden when he got out of a car at McElderry and Gay Sts. in which Mrs. Jackson was seated.

Jackson, who had been living with his wife's parents in the 1200 block Young Ct., was State Hospital on Monday by Criminal Court Judge Anselm Sodaro after Dr. Manfred S. Guttmacher, of the medical examiner's office, reported Jackson was suffering from "acute anxiety" at the time of the shooting.

Police said the shooting occurred after Jackson went out to look for his teenage bride when she had not returned home after midnight, nearly four hours after leaving their residence.

N.Y.C. store hiring termed 'outstanding example of equality'

NEW YORK — A department store report on colored sales personnel employed in stores here was termed "one of the outstanding examples of progress toward equality on the world today," last week by Gov. Averell Harriman.

The report, released by Charles Abrams, chairman of the State Commission Against Discrimination, revealed that colored sales personnel in "commonplace" today.

This is in contrast to 10 years ago when such was not true, the report read. Of complaints by colored persons against 23 stores since 1945, only four remained open as of last Oct. 1, the SCAD survey showed.

TOURING TURNER STATION

Mervin Wilson's services held at New Shiloh Baptist

Mervin Wilson of 123 Oak St., Turner Station, was eulogized at the New Shiloh Baptist Church recently with the pastor, the Rev. James A. Everett, officiating.

Over the many years, I have have never seen so many floral designs for any one funeral. Every inch of space that could be occupied by a person was taken. Chairs lined the aisles.

The crowd started to gather at 10:30 a.m. for the 12:30 p.m. services.

Mr. Wilson was the son of the late James Wilson and Lillie Liggins Wilson Allmond. He was born in Isle of Wight County, Va., on August 28, 1912 and died Thursday, Nov. 20, after being in poor health for a number of years.

Early in life he became interested in religious activities and became connected with the Jones Grove Baptist Church where he served in the singing groups and later as superintendent of the Sunday School.

He married Marie Eley on December 28, 1938 and from this union there were five children. They have lived in Turner Station for 20 years and Mr. Wilson made himself a worthwhile citizen of the community by his activities.

He belonged to New Shiloh Baptist Church and was one of the oldest members point of service on the senior choir.

He was a member of the Men's a member of the Balmer New Service Corporation, the YMCA, the Workers Realty, and the Turner Station Health Center.

HIS SURVIVORS include his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Shirley Spencer of New York City; four sons, Kelvin, Lorliss, Clarence, and Melvin of Baltimore; his mother, Mrs. Lillie Me. Allmond of Smithfield, Va.

Seven sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Byrd and Mrs. Tyrice Glover of Smithfield, Va., Agnes B. Mason of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Edith E. Jordan, Mrs. Mary Gwaltney, Mrs. Bernice Williams, and Emily E. Allmond of Baltimore; six brothers Claybourne, Samuel and Tony Allmond of Cleveland, Ohio, Ernest Allmond of Smithfield, Thomas and Henry Allmond of Baltimore; five grandchildren and a number of other relatives and friends.

Mr. Wilson was returned to his native home for burial in the cemetery of the Jones Grove Baptist Church.

THE SOLLERS POINT HIGH School is proud of the fact that three former members of the Chapter of the National Honor Society are on the honor roll at Morgan State College. They are Robert Washington, Bernard Newby, and Juanita Daugherty.

MR. AND MRS. Harold McDaniel had as their house holiday season, Mr. and Mrs. guests for the Thanksgiving Jubee McDaniel of New York City and Clarence Dunnaville, attorney of Brooklyn, N.Y.
