Recreation needs discussed for Govans-Wilson Park area

Warned that recreation, like other activities in Baltimore, is taking "quite a shellacking" from the Efficiency and Economy Commission, representatives of 14 community organizations discussed recreation needs in the rapidly changing Govans-Wilson Park areaon Tuesday night.

Theodore Brown, senior supervisor of the Bureau of Recreation, told approximately 70 area residents who met at School No. 55 of city-wide recreation goals and problems.

Immediate attainment of some of the goals he pointed out, has been adversely affected by the current "freeze" on recreation department personnel caused by municipal budget limitations.

"Whether or not leadership will be put in the Winston project," he said, "will depend upon the action of people in the neighborhood and the showing of their interest."

SPECIFIC ACTIVITIES undertaken by various community groups in efforts to provide traffic safe play areas for small children and wholesome recreation for teen-agers were described by a panel consisting of Robert C. Pettigrew of the Kimberleigh Road Neighborhood Club, Mrs. Zada Malachi of the Wrenwood Avenue 4700 Block Club and Dr. Thermon B. O'Daniel of the Radnor Community Association.

During a question and answer periodMr.Brown stressed the value of concerted and unified effort by the various groups in seeking toobtain improved facilities.

Two representatives of the Northeast Intergroup Council, Henry J. Muller and Howard H. Murphy, called attention to a program for improved facilities already undertaken by the Council and offered its cooperation to the member groups.

Those present took part in the Wilson Park Improvement Association's pre-holiday party which followed the meeting.

Participating organizations included the AFRO Clean Block, Mrs. Thomas Peay, sponsor; Holiday Club, Jolly Hostesses Social and Savings Club; Cub Scout Den Mothers, Kenilworth Park Neighborhood Group; Kimberleigh Road Neighborhood Association.

Also: School 155 PTA, Northeast Intergroup Council, Radnor Community Association, Wilson Park Moms, Wilson Park Savings Club, Wilson Park Sports Association, Wrenwood Avenue 4700 Block Club and the Wilson Park Improvement Association.

MEMBERS OF the planning committee included Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. Fannie Alston, Mrs. Barbara Bagwell, Mrs. Juanita Lesor, Mrs. Margaret Peay, Dr. Roger K. Williams, Donald Young, Mrs. Aaron Stewart, Mrs. Beryl Williams, chairman; and Dallin Wicks, president of the Wilson Park Improvement Association.

Sybert appoints woman assistant

Mrs. Shirley Brannock Jones, assistant city solicitor for the past six years, has become the first woman ever to serve as an assistant attorney general of Maryland.

Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert announced the appointment this week. Mrs. Jones replaces E. Clinton Bamberger Jr., who resigned to resume private practice of law.

Spinster names chauffeur, maid

James White, 400 block Manse Court, and Mrs. Maria Keys, 2000 block Brunt St., have been named beneficiaries in the will of Miss Emma Stein who resided in the Marlborough Apartments, Eutaw Place and Wilson St., and died in September.

Mr. White was employed for many years as Miss Stein's chauffeur while Mrs. Keys was her housekeeper.

Mr. White is to receive $30 each week for the rest of his life from a sum of $60,000 invested for that purpose by the Baltimore Fidelity Bank and Trust Company. Mrs. Keys is to receive $25 each week for the rest of her life from a sum of $60,000 also invested for that purpose with the Fidelity Bank.

Also included in the will is Provident Hospital with a grant of $1,000.

The estate is valued at $531,003.69.

3 families okayed at 622 N. Mount

The Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals of Tuesday approved a request to house three families at 622 N. Mount St.

Postponed until Dec. 30 was a hearing on a request to rouse three families at 1107 N. Fulton Ave.

Among the cases scheduled for the coming Tuesday are requests to house three families at 1937 Madison Ave., and at 2107 E. Madison St.

Six say they lost $614 they gave for cup of cheer

"I can get it for you wholesale ..."

Police charge Walter Johnson, 1800 block N. Smallwood Ct., made this promise to six persons who trusted him with $614 to build up their supply of refreshments— the liquid kind — and then he failed to produce.

In Northwestern Police Court on Monday, Mr. Johnson pleaded guilty to six larceny charges and admitted he had failed to deliver liquor ordered by the complainants.

He was released on $7,000 bail for action of the grand jury by Magistrate Linwood Koger.

In Memoriam 1

AYDLOTTE — In loving memory of our dear mother, MRS. EVA BLOUNT AYDLOTTE, who passed away December 13, 1957:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
Her place is empty, a void is left
It was to part with one so dear
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died
We think you could not say "Good Bye"
Before you closed your eyes
For all of us you did your best
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
LOVING CHILDREN.

BRANCH — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, GRANDFATHER, LONNIE BRANCH, who passed suddenly, December 16, 1956:
From this world of pain and sorrow
To the land of peace and rest
God has taken you, dear loved one,
Where you have found eternal rest.
DEVOTED CHILDREN, GRANDCHILDREN AND GREAT GRANDCHILDREN

BROWN — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, HYMAN, who passed away on December 12, 1957:
Treasuring memories of life rolls on
But still the vacant chair
Reminds us of the loved one
Who
Of the one who once sat there
Loving Wife,
BERNICE,
And Daughters,
MARGARET AND KATHERINE.

CARR — In loving memory of our son, CALVIN, who passed away 3 years ago today December 13, 1948:
God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed his weary eyes
And whispered, "Come home, dear child."
LOVING MOTHER,
ANNIE L. CARR.

GROOMS — In loving memory of our dear mother, LIDA, who departed this life December 13, 1952:
Dear, we say little feels all sorrow
And helps us to forget
Time so far has only shown,
dear mother
How much we miss you yet.
Devoted Daughters,
EDNA G. JOHNSON
SERENA A. SMITH.

HAYDON — In loving memory of my dear husband, SAMUEL L. HAYDON, who departed this life December 13, 1952:
There's such a vacant place
Of I know I hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face
Days of sadness still come o'er me
Tears of sorrow often flow
Memory keeps him ever near me,
Though he left me five years ago.
Devoted Wife,
CORA A. HAYDON.

MERCER — In loving memory of our beloved sister, LILLIE MERCER, who passed December 14, 1957:
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by we miss you more;
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can take your place.
NELSON, MERCER, Sr.
