

place did, and at the same time it will be a new house. It won't need repairs for several years to come.

Q You talk about building a small house. What are your plans?

A A 4-room house.

Q Who is going to do the building for you?

A I don't know that yet. I haven't seen into that yet, because I have had too much. I have just had too much to see after right at the present time.

Q What does your brother do?

A My brother is a carpenter, a good carpenter, but I don't believe I will be able to get him to do the work because he is working at Washington at the present time, and I have a man in mind I think I may be able to get: Mr. Masser, who lives up at Shookstown. He is the one I have in mind, if I am able to get him. He is very reasonable, I know that.

Q You rent the property now, is that right?

A Yes.

Q You know, of course, Mrs. Bishop, that the 2/3 of the net proceeds of this goes to your daughter through the Orphans' Court?

A I understand that.

Q Upon the death of your husband was there any administration taken out in the Orphans' Court?

A Not that I know of.

Q Did he leave a will?

A No.

P. LUTHER RICE, a witness produced on the part of the Complainant, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Storm:

Q Your name is P. Luther Rice? A. Yes.

Q You are a real estate agent and have been so for how long?
