Take it easy if you are driving home for Christmas

Maryland's college students are asked to take it easy when driving home for their Christmas vacation. The request comes from James B. Monroe Commissioner of Motor Vehicles of Maryland.

More than 40,000 resident students are now enrolled in Maryland's 32 colleges and universities and vacation for many of them will begin this year on December 19.

Mr. Monroe urges students living any distance from their campuses to put off starting their trip home until the morning of December 20, after a good night's sleep rather than trying to leave immediately after classes on Friday.

STUDENTS CAN help by behaving sensibly, by not driving too long or too far at one time, by stopping for a coffee-break or other rest every 100 miles or so on long trips, and by seeing to it that their cars are in good shape and fit for travel.

While they are home, they should continue to drive carefully and with proper respect for their own and others' safety.

To students who do not drive while at college full-time will be taking over the family car during the holidays, the Commissioner had a special warning: such drivers are more out of practice than many of them realize and should drive with extra care.

Homicide charge filed in beating

Stephen B. Bessick of the 100-block N. Pearl St., was ordered held without bail pending a further hearing in Homicide Court Tuesday afternoon at Central.

The 22 - year - old filling station attendant is accused of beating to death Frank Strothers, 34, of the 700 block Pin Alley.

The body of Mr. Strothers was found in a pool of blood at Pine near Fayette Sts., early Monday.

Southwestern District police said the deceased man had been beaten about the head with a jaw muyer handle.

The fatal beating allegedly occurred during a dispute between a group of men in a Pine St. restaurant.

Off The Beaten Path

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

AROUND THE MULBERRY BUSH

So far, there have been no hatchet burying ceremonies between the two factions who backed at each other during November elections.

Everybody is out to grind his own ax — and they're jockeying for position angling for this and that, with little thought for the people as a whole, so the story goes.

• • •

HOWEVER, 12 Democratic attorneys "sounded an call-quiet" Tuesday as they gave a dinner. The harmony meal was in a private dining room at Wilson's and expertly carried out by Archie Williams.

Over steaks, oysters on the half shell, mixed beverages and such, they chatted about things to come, heard pledges and resolutions.

Harmonizing in addition to the honoree and Mr. Williams were: Art Murphy, Bill Murphy, Ted Hayes, Cal Douglass, Joe Henry, Lena Lee, Dave Mason, Jimmie McAllister, Solomon Baylor, Dallas Nicholas, and Jim Bonds.

• • •

MOST POPULAR person we know of in town today is vivacious Vittorine Adams, who is being sought by both Pollack and Goodman as the 5th District candidate to run for City Council.

• • •

LOOKING FORWARD to "the cutting of the pie" certain aspirants to appointments tendered an elected state official another nice dinner party a day or so ago.

• • •

HEADS WILL roll as the part-time Liquor Board posts are filled in with fresh appointees soon.

Out of a group of six presently holding down the jobs, only one is certain to remain.

The six are: William Turks, 16th Ward, Republican executive; James Dorsey, 14th Ward Republican executive; George Douglass, 20th Ward Republican; Donald Bouve, 10th Ward old line East Baltimore Republican; Samuel Byrnes, 21st Ward South Baltimore Republican; Raymond Hayshert, 16th Ward 11th Precinct Democrat.

Holding the rabbit's foot is Mr. Hayshert who will also hold the job.

Governor Theodore McKeldin's Democratic friends say their prayers at night for D'Alesandro to win in the Primaries. (They say Teddy can beat Tommy with one hand tied, come elections for mayor.)

• • •

FLASH. According to Bill Gresham, administrative assistant to Gov. McKeldin, the chief executive will issue a statement within a few days.

The statement will tell whether or not the McKeldin hat will be in the ring for mayor.

Right now, moving vans are unloading the governor's household furnishings at the new Baltimore address, 103 Gondola Rd. in the Homewood section of Baltimore.

However, before January 14 the date the new governor moves into the Annapolis governor's mansion, the McKeldins will have their last Christmas dinner there.

Mr. Gresham states that son Theodore McKeldin, Jr., 22, a Washington and Lee University senior will be home for Christmas as will daughter, Miss Clara McKeldin, a University of Maryland sophomore.

Dinner will be Maryland tom turkey and all the trimmings and we wish the family a very merry holiday together.

• • •

WE UNDERSTAND that approximately 1,000 staunch Democrats are journeying to Annapolis in a group for the January 7 swearing in services in the Senate and House of Delegates.

• • •

FLASH. All Democrats are banding together to support D'Alesandro for mayor, we hear.

The meeting is scheduled for the Emerson Hotel sometime in the next few minutes, hours or days, when all organizations are said to be all set to make the announcement.

• • •

NOW THAT assistant attorney general Shirley B. Jones has been appointed, there will hardly be another woman selected in that office.

In case any of the ladies have their eyes on that spot, the selection (if any change is made) will be male in gender.

Incidentally, the assistant attorney general gets a raise January 1, 1959 and another one May.

• • •

THE SILENT one who has asked for nothing is Lloyal Randolph. They're looking around trying to find something (the Big Five are) since he comes unto them so highly recommended.

FOR COCKTAILS, banquet jobs, at the Bar Association Hotel meeting a week ago Tuesday were Bob Walls, Linwood Kiger Jr., John Hargrove, Dallas Nicholas, E. Everett Lane and Milton Allen.

Nobody asked me, but where were the other 34 members of the Monumental Bar Association at election Collier night? Only 20 were present when William H. Murphy was elected president.

Warren Shaw and Solomon Baylor have papers filed with the tax commissioner for their Bronze Perpetual Building Loan Association.

Tucker Dearing is buffing off his hat to throw it into the City Council ring, will be a candidate from the 2nd Councilmanic District if and when he tosses it in.

• • •

WALTER GAYLES, Dunbar High custodian, is out on sick leave and will be confined about three months.

• • •

BETTYE PHILLIPS lost the use of a car headlight Wednesday afternoon in a collision with a bus.

Incidentally, busses are like bananas — they're yellow and come in bunches.

Gettys Gilmore a widower has been married to wife No. 2 over two months. She is attractive.

• • •

AT THE graduate Delta's get - together with their Morgan undergrads Tuesday all eyes were on Lelia Terry, the high fashion empire style dress was the reason for the oohs and aahs.

Evelyn Hayshert directed the nifty, bingo game which used sorors first names instead of numbers, to introduce those present and start things rolling.

Later a peophyte chorus line of eight pretty lassies did themselves proud.

• • •

KEEP IT quiet, but today (Friday) is Pearlie Henning's birthday. Call her and wish her happy returns.

The telephone marathon has been going on all day with friends calling their greetings as a surprise.

Hubby P. D. G. Pennington gifted her with hugs, kisses, a pretty card for "Every" ten years and a bright new penny for each year.

• • •

MONDAY Lena K. Lee was the one who bestowed baskets of flowers on the first five families to move into Lexington Terrace Apartments. She's the Urban Renewal and Housing Authority Commissioner.

• • •

WITH CHRISTMAS tree sky-high in price, an Annapolis gentleman who resides in the suburbs announced that anyone may chop down a pine tree and drag it Home, if he so desires.

• • •

BERNICE HOLLOMAN, the beauty operator who is due to marry that dreamboat from Paris reports she was glued to her phone after the AFRO came out on Friday.

Calls continued throughout the night, Saturday day and night and Sunday. A caller from Washington said: "Don't you need a maid? How can I open a beauty shop in Paris? Are there any more over there like Monsieur Pachonet?"

So far more than 50 persons have phoned hardly allowing Bernice time to pack for the sentimental journey which begins Christmas Eve aboard a jet airliner.

BUSY WITH the nicest mission are the members of the Provident Hospital Ladies Guild.

They're trimming Provident from stem to stern with merry Christmas decorations, under the direction of Miss Velma Ferguson, a volunteer, who is art director at Bowie State Teachers College.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

Most amazing of all, this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue in all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form, called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed, convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

A Gentleman of No Mean Talents

Newspaperman Convinced Of Doc. Anderson's Prowess

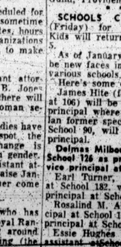
By WALTER C. ROBINSON, Editor, The Chattanooga Observer

A writer once wrote of Doc Anderson—"The scientists ought to put him in a test tube to find out what makes him tick." I had heard so much about this man that I decided to do a little checking on my own.

I discovered that Doc Anderson's greatest asset was the overwhelming faith that people have in his ability to help them — a faith born of what he has done for so many others. It has been written "Faith can move mountains." It was abiding faith that led Abraham to unhesitatingly obey God's command when he was about to put his son Issac on the sacrifice altar.

With this thought in mind it is very interesting to note the deep-rooted faith that must have been possessed by Cleve Corbin of 115 E. 22nd St., Chattanooga, Tenn., whose sworn statement states he had been blind for three years and had been to many doctors, but they didn't do anything for him. He says — "After visiting Doc Anderson my eyesight began to come back, and I thanked God that he helped me through this wonderful man. I then had him do some special work for me, and since I have been to him my nature has been restored and now I am very happy in my love life, and my financial troubles are over."

My attention was brought to the sworn statements of several others, who during World War II testified to the psychic capacity and gifted power of Doc Anderson, but the limit of space does not permit me to elaborate on them. However I checked on these and being convinced as to the truth of these sworn statements, I felt I had to see this Doc Anderson in person, so I phoned CAnal 3-6719 at his home at 302 W. Gordon Ave. Rossville, Ga., for an appointment.



DOC. R. C. ANDERSON

I also took the opportunity of checking with several clients who had visited Doc Anderson, and to whom he had given numbers, and the way they felt is unbelievable. My visit to Doc Anderson revealed the remarkable case of a prominent local citizen, who had been robbed of $1,500.

Doc Anderson was eventually consulted when everybody else had failed, and he told this man the exact mattress in a certain house in which he would find the money hidden. Everybody was dumbfounded when the money was found, just as Doc Anderson stated. This incident caused quite a stir at the time and it was reported on and published in my newspaper.

Doc Anderson proudly showed me one of the many letters he had received that day, which I herewith quote and which speaks for itself:

Pittsburgh, Pa.
October, 1958

Dear Doc Anderson: Just a short letter to let you know the amazing results that I got from your special work that you did for me. Here are the facts. My sweetheart came back to me acting better and kinder than ever before. He said he would never leave me again for another woman. I did not ask him to come back, he came of his own free will and he had all his clothes with him.

He asked me if he could come back home. I told him "yes" and he was so glad his face lit up with smiles. The woman he left for me called me on the phone and asked my pardon saying she was sorry, she took him from me without any reason. She also called me of her own free will.

I told her I was not mad at her and that everything has been forgiven. So Doc Anderson, I do appreciate you so much. I shall always remember you as a true fortune-teller. I am sending two of my friends over to see you the last of this month. I have nothing but high praises for you and thank you so much.

I remain,

J. M. S.

Doc Anderson also gave me a reading and now I understand why people from all walks of life come to him from all over the United States and overseas for help, counsel and guidance in their appeals for solutions to their difficult personal problems. I wish I had more time to spend with him, but I will say this—he is the kind of man one meets just once in a lifetime.

'I'll always be in love with you,' Alpha wives told

"Sweetheart of A-Phi-A
"From you I'll never stray,
"I'll always be in love with you. . . ."

Those were the words used by local Alphas Friday night to serenade their wives and sweethearts at their annual closed dinner dance.

The voices were not the most harmonious, but the tender feeling behind it was clear to most of the wives, some of whom were seen hastily brushing away tears in the dinky 111 Tishmingo Room of Wilson's Restaurant.

The girls put on a colorful show themselves, adorned as they were in breath - taking balloons, trapeze and chemise gowns.

• • •

AFTER DINING by candlelight amid the reflected soft glow of the Alpha shingle, Delta Lambda President Frank Ellis introduced Mrs. Shirley Pinkett, the Alpha wife with the beautiful voice, who led the brothers and their guests in a merry old - fashioned songfest of Alpha campus pep songs.

Brother Frank Veney took over, when the conga and cha cha lines formed. Edward Wharton and his orchestra provided the rhythms with the emphasis on the Latin American beat.

The fancy footwork, Brother Veney said, was a mere warm up for the General Convention which opens Friday, Dec. 26 at the new Sheraton Hotel in Philadelphia.

All in all, it was a memorable evening which left the brothers deeply indebted to Social Chairman Joseph Bracey for a job well done.

• • •

ENJOYING THE festivities were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Bruce Edemy, William E. Griggs, W. A. C. Hughes Jr., Linton A. George, James E. Nix, William E. Dinnis, Glendi E. Johns, Frederick H. Dedmond;

Also Walter Dixon, James Persons, James Murphy, William Lockwood, Frank Veney, Joseph Bracey, Robert G. Pinkett, Orville Swafford, Pierre Davis, C. C. Jackson, Clark Davis;

Also Leroy Carroll, Arthur Spencer, Simon Carter, Benjamin Kimbers, Wilbert Walker, Edgar W. Ward, William V. Lockwood and Cliff W. Mackay.

Also Misses Edith Gordon, Hazel Jones and Barbara Truitt.

CHERRY HILL NOTES

Girl Scout troop gives pins to 7

BY MARJORIE J. WARD

The Mothers and Homemakers Club of Cherry Hill held its postponed November meeting Sunday, Dec. 7. At this time Mrs. Ruth Webster of 1356 Oak Street, NW. Washington, D.C., was hostess. Ruth was an active former Cherry Hillite, a member of the Methodist Church (era Rev. White) an active politician, and a conscientious civic worker.

While a resident of Cherry Hill she was chairman of the Cherry Hill Health Council, member of the Mothers and Homemakers Club, chairman of the Parent Teachers Association School 160, and a member of the Women's Auxiliary of the recreation department.

The members enjoyed a very pleasant time, lots of fun, fellowship good food, and a relaxing drive home (after getting slightly lost in Dee Cee).

The members present wished, hoped, prayed, and alleged were, Isolene Crowner, president; Mosella Gundy, Edna Holland, secretary; Jennie Butler, Lucinda Burns, Edna Simmons and Ellen Baker.

• • •

THE MOTHERS and Homemakers Club held its regular business meeting at the home of its newest member, Elma Oglesby, 604 Roundview Road. Isolene Crowner, president, urged the members to attend the annual Christmas Bazaar sponsored by the Maryland League of Women's Clubs which was held on last Saturday from 12-3 p.m. The bazaar featured beautiful handcraft of all kinds and delicious goodies made by inmates of Maryland Institutions. Isolene Crowner is a member of the board of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs.

The club completed plans for their second annual movie party which was held on last Saturday night. The party was held at the Hill Theatre. Proceeds from this fund-raising effort went toward making the holiday season pleasant for some needy families.

After the business meeting the members enjoyed a potluck repast. Each member contributed part of the menu rand what an array of tasty dishes it added up to. The repast consisted of delectable meat dishes tasty, tangy salads, mouth watering desserts, and hot and cold beverages. This was truly a fine affair and bears repeating.

THE PRESBYTERIAN Women's Organization will observe its second annual Advent Breakfast, Sunday, Dec. 21 at 6 a.m. All young people from 12-18 years of age are invited to attend the refreshing approach to the birthday of our Savior. The breakfast is free to all who care to come and partake. The sponsoring committee is: Jennie Butler, Orphea Mitchell and, Marjorie Ward.

The annual Christmas Communion Services will be held on Christmas morning, 6 a.m., at the Community Presbyterian Church. At that time several of the young people of the church will be confirmed. The public is cordially invited to attend. An added attraction will be a Christmas reading and response lead by Mrs. Tyra Turpin, professor of English at Morgan State College.

The annual Christmas Pageant will be held at the Community Presbyterian Church on Sunday, Dec. 21, 6 p.m. It is a Christmas Story in tableau. The combined Sabaturary and Westminister Choirs will furnish the music.

The public is cordially invited to attend. The Rev. Mr. Ward is the pastor of the church.

TROOP NO. 373 of School 159 held an investiture service recently. Linda Stockton extended a hearty welcome after which the opening exercises were held. Prayers were given by the Rev. Edgar W. Ward and Cynthia Wade. Linda Stockton, Sheila Brownley, and Brenda Scott participated in the flag ceremony.

Myra Smith presented the new members after which the following received pins. They were: Janet Hughes, Linda Morris, Gail Irvin, Sandra Campbell, Cynthia Wade, Cornelia Greene and Deborah Curry. Cynthia Wade presented a reading after which remarks were given by Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Valentine. The Rev. Mr. Ward gave the benediction.

The Scout leaders are Miss Frederick, Mrs. Madison and Mrs. Johnson.
