

EIGHTH: That in said Administration Account the said Mortgage note of Harry Roderick dated April, 1926, in the amount of Sixteen Thousand ($16000.00) Dollars, is set forth as a debt due and comprises a part of the assets of the estate; the said account further provides for the distribution of the Mortgage note in the manner following:

To Clara V. Roderick, widow, interest in $16000.00
Mortgage of Harry Roderick.....$5000.00

The account further provides for distribution as follows:

Residue for distribution carried forward.
To Harry Mc. Roderick, a son.....1/8 of $11000 Mortgage....		$1375.00
To Elmer E. Roderick, a son	"	1375.00
To Andrew M. Roderick, a son	"	1375.00
To Nellie M. Roderick (Spurrier) a daughter	"	1375.00
To Bessie G. Roderick (Van Sant) a daughter	"	1375.00
To Edith W. Roderick (Young) a daughter	"	1375.00
To Harry, Elmer, Andrew, Raymond L. Roderick and Grayson Mercer, Trustees for Ruth G. Roderick, a daughter	"	1375.00
To Harry, Elmer, Andrew, Raymond Roderick and Grayson Mercer, Trustees for Raymond Roderick, a son	"	1375.00

NINTH: That the said Clara V. Roderick, wife of William Mc. Roderick, deceased, died on or about the 12th day of September, 1930, intestate; that subsequent to her death, your Complainants paid and satisfied the various interests in her said share of Five Thousand ($5000.00) Dollars, in which she had a life estate, as they appeared according to the provisions of the Last Will and Testament of the said William Mc. Roderick, deceased.

TENTH: That your Complainants have paid and satisfied all of the claims and interest of the said Elmer E. Roderick, Andrew M. Roderick, Nellie M. Roderick Spurrier, Bessie G. Roderick Van Sant, Edith W. Roderick Young and Raymond L. Roderick as they appeared according to the distribution set forth in the aforesaid Administration Account.

W. JEROME OFFUTT
ATTORNEY AT LAW
FREDERICK, MD.