Churches Draw Record-Breaking Crowds on First Sunday

Note of Hope, Confidence Pervades Most Messages

Congregations Reminded of Opportunities to Progress, Told to Face Problems Bravely

By RUFUS WELLS

A note of hope and confidence as the future was sounded during religious services in churches throughout Baltimore Sunday as record-breaking crowds gathered observing the first Sabbath of the New Year.

In fiery messages to their congregations, ministers of all denominations predicted a brighter year, replete with "new gains and opportunities as well as new problems."

Practically every church in the city had its share of converts and old members returning to the folds Sunday morning as thousands of persons braved chilly winds to begin the new year with God.

Stronger Churches Pledged

The ministers selected their texts from all parts of the Bible,—Genesis through Revelations but they all pledged themselves and their congregations to the task of making the church stronger.

Coming directly to the point, the Rev. Matthew Wilkerson, pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Bond and Edger Sts., called his sermon "Facing New Year's Problems."

Basing his subject on the 21st chapter and 31 verse of Proverbs, he urged the congregation to plan safety first and make preparation for unseen things "the new year will bring."

"Safety in The Lord"

Paraphrasing the text which read: "We make preparation for battle with horses, but safety is in the Lord," the Rev. Mr. Wilkerson warned that even in this day atomic weapons "safety is still in the Lord."

"We must press our way through the misunderstanding, through good report and evil report and live closer to God," he exhorted.

After the sermon three persons from the congregation accepted Christ, two of them joining the church. Some 500 persons heard the message and a total of $375 was collected during the day.

Asks for Progressive Year

At Concord Baptist Church, Franklin and Poppleton Sts., the Rev. M Raynor, pastor, selected as his subject the 13th Chapter, 21st verse of Exodus. "To go by day and night."

The Rev. Mr. Raynor pointed out that a large number of Christians "parked" their talents last year and failed to use them for the uplift of God.

"This year let there be no parking, let us be up and doing," he said.

Comparing the life of a Christian with traffic problems that face the motorist today, Rev. Mr. Raynor declared:

"Just as cars in traffic must keep moving or be run into, we must keep constantly working at the Lord's business to keep up with today's needs."

An estimated 600 persons jammed the basement Sunday school room where services were held while the main auditorium is undergoing repairs. Eight persons from the congregation joined the church.

Pastor Composes Epistle

Speaking at the Star of Bethlehem AME Church at Ridgely St. and Harmon Ave., the pastor, Rev. G. Oliver Wing, delivered a letter to his listeners similar to the one Paul sent to Timothy.

The Rev. Mr. Wing urged his listeners to "preach the Gospel; to concentrate, during 1948 on becoming near to perfection and to be better than they were the preceding year."

The Rev. W. H. Foster, pastor of Ebenezer AME Church, 16 W. Montgomery St., used the 21st chapter and 1st verse of Revelations as his text: "I saw a new heaven and a new earth."

"The New Year will bring new opportunities, obligations and new problems and God will bring a new earth."

"The New Year will bring new opportunities, obligations and new problems and God will give us the strength to meet them," he said confidently.

Three persons came forward when doors of the church were formally opened, two of whom join Ebenezer.

Facts Sermon Topic

Contrasting the power of the church in earlier days with its power today, the Rev. Hiram E. Smith, pastor of Mt. Lesbanon Baptist Church in earlier days with its power today, the Rev. Hiram E. Smith, pastor of Mt. Lesbanon Baptist Church, delivered an inspiring message from the Acts of the Apostles, first chapter, eighth verse.

Despite the brisk weather, a capacity crowd sat in the lecture room to hear the sermon. The main auditorium was abandoned early in the services because of insufficient heat.

The Rev. M. Smith attributed the weakness of the present day church to the "wickedness of the people." He implored churchgoers to pledge their efforts this year toward making the church stronger and living closer to God.

Two persons joined the church after the sermon.

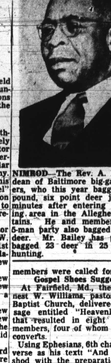
Self Inspection Urged

In Turners Station, the Rev. J. H. Carter, pastor of St. Matthew's Methodist Church, carried out the new year theme by urging his members to "examine yourselves and see what is lacking."

The Rev. Mr. Carter explained that there are many who began the old year with us who are missing now and many now present who would not be here to welcome another year.

One Christian who had strayed returned to the fold when new members were called for.

One Christian who had strayed returned to the fold when new members were called.



NIMROD—The Rev. A. L. Bailey, dean of Baltimore big-game hunters, who this year bagged a 180-pound, six point deer just seven minutes after entering the hunting area in the Allegheny Mountains. He and members of the 5-man party also bagged a second deer. Mr. Bailey has personally bagged 23 deer in 25 years of hunting.

In Our Churches

Joining a great number of indignant citizens of both races, the Baptist Ministers' Conference this week criticized Stewart's Co. store for refusing to allow a colored child to talk with its Santa Claus.

During its meeting Monday, the organization endorsed a letter to the company declaring "It is unbelievable that you would tolerate such action in your store when opposition to peace and brotherhood are evident throughout the world."

The letter continues, "It is admitted that intelligence, good will and respect for the dignity of human personality are the world's most serious problems. Your act in this instance is so unbearable that we are forced to express our resentment."

Rev. Ward D. Yearby is president of the conference; the Rev. Paul Pollard, secretary, and the Rev. Hiram J. Smith, chairman of the civic committee.

Youth Fellowship Active

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of Whatcoat Church will present the interracial Youth for Christ organization in a literary program at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Johnson is president of the organization; Charles L. Johnson, director; and the Rev. S. W. Fields, pastor of the church at Pine and Franklin Sts.

Two important posts have recently been given to Archbishop Desginate Francis P. Keough of Baltimore.

He has been named Episcopal chairman of the education department, National Catholic Welfare Conference in addition to the position given him in November of assistant chairman of the administrative board of the American Bishops organization.

Interested in Education

The N.C.W.C. department is a clearing house of data on Catholic education and represents the interests of Catholic schools in national matters.

It has five sections, the titles of which indicate the scope of its work: informational service, statistics, teachers' registration, library and educational liaison. Monsignor Frederick C. Steinwedel is the director.

This is the night of the great vocal and oratorical contest at Payne AME Church under sponsorship of the Gospel Choir.

Judges in the oratorical contest will be Miss Nellie Buchanan, Mrs. Jean Turpin and Thomas Knox, and in the vocal division, Mrs. Frances B. Hill, Mrs. Lillian Parrott and James Moseley.

Installation day will be celebrated at Payne on Sunday, with Bishop George W. Baber delivering the morning sermon. The evening service will be in charge of five choirs of the church. The Rev. C. Baker Pearle is pastor.

Rev. Yearby Ill

The Rev. W. T. Young, pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church in Newburgh, N.Y., was guest speaker, Sunday, at New Shiloh Baptist Church, pastored by the Rev. J. T. Boddie.

Observing its annual revival, which began December 31, and extends through January 9, the church is having nightly services, with each sponsored by a different organization of the church.

Lakeland Baptist Church is still without a pastor to succeed the Rev. M. C. Allen who now heads Virginia Seminary.

Museum to Present 4 Regional Exhibits

One of four regional exhibitions to be presented this year at the Baltimore Museum of Art, entitled Tri-Painters of the Pacific Northwest, will open in the main galleries on Jan. 9 continuing to Feb. 4.

In an effort to show what artists are doing in other sections of the United States, the Museum this year will bring exhibitions from the Upper Middle West and from the San Francisco Bay Region.

The Maryland Artist Show in March will allow public and artists alike to make comparisons of local work with the approaches and techniques of painting in different areas.

BACKACHE?
Do you know the proved way to relieve the stabbing, nagging pains of muscular backache?
Doctors have made tests with hundreds of people. Found that nearly 9 out of 10 gained relief with Johnson's Back Plasters—the one product made specifically for relieving ordinary backache.
How it helps you: This adhesive plaster contains a mild medication that eases up circulation. It brings the healing and warming blood to the sore spot. Tense muscles relax. Pain eases. The warming pad guards against chilling, supports twitching muscles, calms down pain.
Made by Johnson & Johnson—known for fine surgical dressings for 60 years. Johnson's Back Plasters—at all drug stores.

DOCTOR WARNS ALL WOMEN!
A well known New York Doctor, specializing in treating women, says douching (the washing of the vagina with a jet of water or medicated solution) cleans girls and women of all impurities, stops vaginal odor, "relaxes" or cause one recovering from childbirth to feel more comfortable, and is a very effective method of birth control. Douching also helps prevent infections from germs during sex relations. Douching is recommended by many doctors for these reasons. Douche with Zonite. Zonite is non-poisonous, non-irritating, non-caustic and safe to use as any douche you can buy. Use it for all douche purposes. Zonite is so powerful it kills germs in the douche fluid on contact, yet so safe you can use it as a douche every day if you wish. Zonite deodorizes the douche fluid. Zonite is not a douche powder. Don't be misled by cheap douche powders. Buy Zonite. If not completely satisfied return unused portion of Zonite and we will refund your money in full. Send for FREE BOOK. For personal advice write Zonite Products Corp., Dept. 1, 370 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y.
