Concords and Discords

By LLEWELLYN WILSON

Musical activities still are playing an important role in the social, political and economic drama which is being enacted upon the American scene.

For years, music, unobtrusively has done much to bring about better relationship among racial groups; between groups of different religious faiths, and among the polyglot European and Asiatic stocks which make up the people of the United States.

While it is true, that following the second World War, men who have the governments in hand are still bickering in an attempt to harmonize and homogenize the varying ideologies which now are almost plunging the world into another war, music seems to be one refining influence which tends to soften the hearts and to clarify their minds.

Listen to Interpretations

Current news items are fraught with reports of amazing disagreements as to what should prevail in the reconstruction and restoration of wartorn Europe, yet all over the Occidental world people listen to the music of great symphony orchestras as they interpret the work of German, French, Russian, Italian and American composers.

In the larger American cities those who have the destiny of youth in charge, educationally and religiously, are putting forth great effort to expose the children of all groups to all that is best in the music of the world, sacred and secular.

In Baltimore, one of the long established music centers in America, the children of all people have the opportunity to hear the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, a municipally supported organization which, under the direction of Reginald Stewart has become one of the major American symphony orchestras.

Children's Concerts Held

Orchestral concerts are given in the auditorium of the several large high schools on Saturday mornings, at which times the youthful audiences are given explanatory talks by Francis J. Civis, a member of the Department of Education in the public schools. Opportunity is also given to pupils of parochial and public schools to attend.

Another medium for the development of choral music here is the Fellowship Choir, an interracial group, under the direction of J. Edward Moyer, organist and choirmaster at Mt. Vernon Methodist Church.

This group recently sang a program at Knox Presbyterian Church which featured music of the festive Jewish service Chanukah and our joyous Christmas. Cantor Joseph Rosenfeld, of the Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, and Charles O. Stanley, organist of Bethel A.M.E. Baptist Church, were guest soloists.

NEW YORK—The sace duo-piano team of Frank Carter and Arthur Bowie, now at the exclusive East Side Cerutti's, go onto the concert stage in February when they'll do a Bach to Bebop concert at Times Hall.

A GREAT '48

The year, 1947, wasn't such a bad one for many brave adventures, and we expect — even predict that ere the 12th calendar dim, their expansions will make history.

After a tour of the CHARM CENTRE, we add our endorsement to this snazzy shoppe. Buck Clark, former sportsman, has a coffee shop on the stroll under the Downflake Donuts. Cyrus Stevenson has the only colored owned operated hardware store in town.

Tiny Grimes's band at the ASTORIA, supported by the popular 3 Bees and a Honey has swing and jump rhythm.

Swindell Switches

Bill Swindell and hi stvio switched to JONES' regularly after being a Monday nite special here for several weeks relieving the Harold Bewans Trio.

The SAVOY blacked out for a few days pending the putting on of finishing touches

A certain medic who frequents the YORKSHIRE, has a sure fire gag. He has a pair of boxing gloves and if you name a famous fite that the Brown Bomber participated in, he claims he has the very gloves that were used. His latest is they are the same gloves used by Joe Gans vs Battling Nelson.

Baby, Plez Come Home

Vickie carries that same cheerful smile as she serves at Jones, but — I wonder. From the way that Dennis, the 'Lawd', Diles is crooning "Baby, Please Come Home," a reconciliation might be forthcoming soon.

"Flash" Mallory's combo opened at the KNOTTY PINE under the guidance of Furnell Rice, ace drummer with Clyde Patterson, piano, and the "Flash" on electric mandolin.

The Vocaleers, famous radio singers, are back at GAMBY'S as part of a nall-star revue headed by comedian—violinist Jimmie Green in the emcee role.

Gotta gal? Then steer her to the PRESTON COCKTAIL Lounge, an exclusive rendezvous for sophisticated couples. There is a stag bar for males.

The ZANZIBAR'S new manager John Oglesby, enjoying a few leisure moments at Sugar Hill . . . If Sarah will contact us we will explain how Carroll Lawson, congenial manager of the OLDE MILL, attended the 1017 opening without her. . . . Which reminds us that the 1017 is holding its own as leader of the quieter spots.

Margery Davis, ORLEANS' canary, opened despite throat trouble. Orgie, Willie Jones, baritone and emcee and Georgia Craft, whose attire and delivery has made him a top flight nite club figure, round out the bill.

ROSE FERRY, throaty canary at the GAY NINETIES, is scheduled for a bright future. She is matched by George Ferry, tenor, of the Vibraneers featured here along with Marion Birdell Zonia Bell, Tracy's Kentuckians and Clarence Martin, vocalist.

The 630 SARATOGA CLUB is on the ball . . . Marion has inserted the stroll and resumed her chore's at ED'S LOUNGE.

Georgia Lewis' green outfit, the new look kind, had necks stretching as she left the train at Union Station to invade the new Sno White Bake Shop. . . . Among those attending the dances are featured here.

Owens, secretary of the Bartenders and Waitresses Social Club and bartender at the FROLIC, has a following that makes manager Ruby Dixon very proud. Ruth earned his managership after years as a top mixer of choice drinks.

'Killer Diller' Film Completed

NEW YORK (ANP) — The new moving picture, "Killer Diller," just completed at the RKO Studios here by the All-American Pictures Corporation, has a scintillating roster of stars.

Among those featured in the film are:

The King cole Trio, Dusty Fletcher of "Open the Door, Richard" fame; Andy Kirk and his band, Butterfly McQueen, who attracted attention in "Duel in the Sun"; Jackie Mabley, Patterson and Jackson, The Four Congaroos, Clark Brothers, Georgia Whilhite, Freddie Robinson, Nellie Hill and Beverly White.

Jacquet Victim of "Blizzard of '47"

NEW YORK—One of the many victims of the big Blizzard of 1947" was band leader Illinois Jacquet, who missed his opening day performances at the 125th Street Apollo Theater when air airliner he was flying from Detroit was unable to land here.

Jacquet had flown to Detroit on Christmas Eve, following his closing at the Three Deuces on 52nd Street Apollo Theater when air airliner he was flying from Detroit was unable to land here.

Jacquet's band went through its opening day paces at the Apollo with trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie fronting the outfit until the organic saxophonist returned to take over the next morning.

RED CROSS DRIVE SET

FOR FEB. 19-MARCH 31

Benjamin H. Griswold 3rd will head the 1948 Red Cross fund drive, to be conducted here from Feb. 19 to Mar. 23, chapter officials have announced.

T. H. Kerr to Play in Gallery Recital

WASHINGTON

Thomas H. Kerr Jr., pianist and assistant professor, School of Music, Howard University, will be presented in a recital at the National Gallery of Art, Sunday, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Kerr, appointed to the faculty at Howard in 1943, is the second colored artist to appear on the regular series of Sunday concerts at the Gallery of Art. The program will include several of his own compositions.

Pennsylvania Avenue

By E. B. REED

THE BREEZIEST ITEM along the Avenue this week is No. 18 street cars . . . The most attractive refusal of legitimate fares pick up colored fares. . . . Easiest jobs—those in taverns and clubs.

Sign on a snack shop: from Until After! . . . Passerby "cooing" that charming paragraph in the new Sno White Bake Shop, 1800 block. . . . Undercurrent: Son of a bitch! . . . Lazy Susan, white head of Cheltenham, Modifiers in alleyways and poolroom doors surging out to molest unescorted females.

Life goes on—we wonder how—as speeding cars dart in and out of the traffic lanes, take one way streets and corners on two wheels. The cars are sobered—can't say that about most of the drivers. . . . Sunday nights broadcast by the NAACP drawing praise.

JOHN LINDSAY still leading the debaters at the Albambra . . . People turning away from taverns on New Year's Day because of "minimums." They didn't know the tariff entitled them to a certain amount in return. . . . Crack show of the week at Gamby's. . . . Bars, the shakeron, keeping it hot at the Gamby . . . Bar.

Avenue Cafe employees taking an enforced 10 day rest thanks to the Liquor Board. . . . Royal Music Store has the most attractive setup . . . the Avenue. . . . Tiny Grimes, who opened Friday at Club Astoria, placed ninth in Down Beat's best guitarist poll. . . . Buddy Johnson's band opening the spotlight at the Royal Theatre with Illinois Jacquet. . . .

THE BURROWS CLAN — James, dours from Long Island, N.Y., being shown the spots by Leon and Lee, the latter, a veteran, respectively, getting a glad hand from Ahmet Lee, new maitre dom at the Vilma. . . . Quietest spot on Pennsylvania Avenue New Year's morn, Sam Shepherd's tavern, 1300 block.

Victims of a recent holdup—they said they were holdup—claiming some suspects already in the "cut." . . . York Hotel's Blue Room—unique in town, town-outs entertainment. . . . Some others are operating at a loss. . . . The gay crowd in one, one night during the holidays. 36.

The Sphinx Club, the Stroll's most popular tele-center during sports' telecasts. . . . Jean Moore has a "New Look" from up-to-date for the new year. . . . Tank, who engineers the "Heartbeat," "Honey-drippes" and "Lemon Drop," has a "Heartbeat" in what "Heart-chested girl" . . . Sign of the times: Barflies on the increase in night spots. One gets the "gimme" plea most anywhere.

LEAP YEAR IDEA: One femme remarked that she's going to use "me" then this year. . . . Woman on a tractor trailer, beating out a driver because she thought he "took" too much of her hand while "taking" a transfer. . . . A sick man on the city street gets as much attention from police as a drunk in the gutter. The SPCA will send a truck to pick up a wounded or sick animal.

PRIZE STORY OF THE WEEK. A guy telling about a dame so dazzling that when she passed a traffic light, the green refused to go off at all, while the red and amber almost popped the glass. . . . That the lights stayed on together 20 minutes after she had gone by, and it took three days to get them duly timed again.

WHAT'S BEHIND IT? There are three Avenue taverns that won't turn the right nids for sale. . . . Ernest White's Sugar Hill spot may change hands any day. . . . Otho Clark has assumed the Casino for relaxation. . . . "Buck" Barnes and Uncle Lewis, former co-props at the Dreamland, confarkier "Pop" Williams's old stand at 1410 into a poolroom.

Chapter, 1839 Druid Hill Ave., he's top man at the Scompion, spent the holiday in Philly visiting his sister, Mrs. Drucilla Slater. . . . "Sturdy" Gurdy Fane, Dreamland barman, back on the job after a five-week illness

"My Man" Mickey bounced by Puerto Rican. . . . Priscilla Langer, Gamby barmaid, picked the "Miss Barmaid of '47."

JEW AND LOOKED-FOR NUMBERS: The former Betty Moore, singer, added to the population on Christmas Day. . . . The John W. Smertas, 711 W. Dolphin St., expecting any day. She's the former Ruth Irene Jones. . . . The Sherrod Sisters, the Avenue's top sacred entertainers, expecting any day. . . . A five-and-a-half-pound baby girl.

ANYONE HERE?—Detective Sergeant Butler — who can find Detective Butler? . . . In the past week's search for him he's been in a Greek Spot, and lost in the vicinity of Mount and Lafayette Avenues. . . . Yarrow's Tavern, Detective Lloyd (Fat Man) Grimes's from Harford. . . . Bartenders keep an eye on him.

FROM! Leroy D. Fishmeister, ex-Gambyite, now at Fort Meade, sent everything's fine. . . . Seen at Cocoa Rock Lodge, George Blue's Grill in Pittsburgh. The two "Faces" in the Avenue crowd are Mr. Fredred Blizard and Callie Smith. . . . Dining out the sweets at the New Albert is Catherine Henderson.

THE RAZZ JOHNSONS, he barman at the Frolic, "Sunday visitors" Mrs. Cee. . . . Jamie Rhigini, Moonlight City, let out help off New Year's Day with this: "There'll be contraptions.

FOR 15 YEARS—Mrs. Susie Clarke (left), switchboard operator in the AFRO office in Baltimore, receives from Mrs. Bettye Phillips, assistant managing editor, a pin marking Mrs. Clark's 15 years of employment with the AFRO.

2051 Boy Scouts Enrolled in 3 Baltimore Districts

Striving to make this a banner year in both the quantity and quality of scouting, Baltimore's three scout districts launched the new year with a total of 2051 boys enrolled.

THAT'S ALL FOR NOW, except The Public Service Commission plans an investigation to find out what's wrong with the Baltimore Transit Company's service. If the investigators wait "positive proof," they can turn into car and bus riders and then make a public issue. BTC cities 16 reasons as believe that things are okay—okay when they are "clammy" as a frozen skunk. BTC service not only smells, its nauseating.

According to Biblical lore, Jonah's presence in the belly of the whale made the whale vomit. . . . That's what riders of BTC's cars and buses feel like doing when using these slow-motion-in-reverse

The Monumental District, with George S. Whyte as chairman, Grafton L. Moore, commissioner, and Andrew R. Johnson, assistant scout executive began the year with: 300 cub scouts in 24 Packs; 421 Boy Scouts in 39 troops and 42 Senior Scouts in five senior units . . . a total of 768 boys in 69 units.

The ncEsapeake District led by the Rev. Eugene T. Grove, chairman, with Newell W. Wilmore, commissioner, and Yancy L. Whitaker, fsl. fscout executive has: 300 cub scouts in 16 Packs, 474 Boy Scouts in 29 Troops, a total of 774 boys in 45 units.

Southshore District

The Southshore District with Frank B. Butler, chairman; William E. Harvey, commissioner, and M. Raymond Hollingsworth, field scout executive, has 165 cub scouts in 5 Packs, 344 Boy Scouts in 23 troops, a total of 509 boys in 28 units.

The Southshore district held its meetifg Jan. 8 at Bates High School, Annapolis, the Monumental district on Jan. 13 at Druid Health Center and the Chesapeake District will meet on Monday, Jan. 19.

Scout leaders throughout the city will have roundtable discussions this month.

The East Baltimore Cub and Scout Leaders Roundtable will be 8 p.m. on Jan. 12 at Frederick Douglass Homes. Northwest Baltimore Cub and Scout Leaders Roundtable will be on Jan. 15 at McCulloh Homes and the South Baltimore Roundtable will be on Jan. 27.

New Units

During December 11 new units were welcomed into cubbing and scouting. They are:

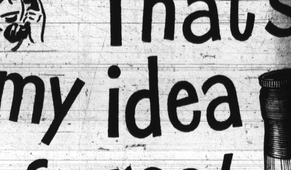
"That's my idea of great wine!"



"The lady knows what she's talking about! Great wine . . . you bet it is! Madera Bonded Wine is the most delicious wine I've tasted in months. Be sure to get that delicate mellow flavor Try a bottle. Serve small glasses of it before dinner, or with dessert. You'll soon say . . . "That's my idea of great wine!" Look for the Madera Black Label. Maryland's largest selling wines.
