Mass X-ray Survey to Be Conducted in E. Baltimore

To Operate During Jan. at Housing Projects, Ministers Urged to Help Publicize Plan

Plans were completed, this week, for the two-week mass chest x-ray survey to be conducted in East Baltimore by the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, beginning Jan. 19.

At a meeting Monday with ministers representing all religious faiths in the area, James Gilliam, assistant health director of the Tuberculosis Association, urged then to announce the project to their congregations on the Sunday preding the survey.

Will Operate Daily

During the week of Jan. 19-23, the x-ray will be available at the Douglass Homes Community Center daily from 4 p.m. until 8.

The survey will be operated during the same hours from Jan. 26-29 at the Somerset Homes Community House.

Future surveys will be conducted in other sections of the city including Holabird, Cherry Hill and various housing projects.

Catholic Youths Help

Meanwhile, in connection with the East Baltimore survey, the Catholic Youth Organization of St. Francis Xavier Church, pledged its co-operation at a meeting during which Dr. Clifton Jones of the Morgan College sociology department, cited the importance, taking advantage of tuberculosis checking facilities.

Ministers also were asked previously to allow their youth groups to conduct a publicity campaign by setting up posters and announcements of the survey.

Tenative theme of the ministers, who indicated that they would form a permanent organization to keep the importance of good health before the community is, "Christianity In Action Through Healthful Living."

100 Tenants Flee Fire in Harlem

31, Homeless, Smoke Fells Two Firemen

NEW YORK (NNPA)—One hundred tenants of three Harlem tenements were evacuated by firemen New Year's morning when fire swept one of the buildings.

The five-story brick tenement at 307 West 133rd St. was badly damaged by a blaze which policemen said started at 8:30 a.m. when a kerosene stove exploded.

Twenty tenants of the building's upper floors had to be carried down ladders by firemen when thick smoke and flames prevented exit by the stairs and fire escape.

Tenants of the neighboring tenements at 303 and 305 West 133rd St. were evacuated because of dense smoke.

The thirty-one persons made homeless were sent to the West 135th Street police station where Welfare Department workers made arrangements for food and shelter.

Firemen Smoke Victims

Acting Fire Chief George J. McGinn of the 16th Battalion, and Capt. Charles H. Cook of Engine Company 36, were treated for smoke poisoning at Sydenham Hospital.

Lieut. Larry Harris of Engine Company 59, and Fireman Ernest Seador were treated for smoke poisoning at an emergency first aid station set up in Bethany Baptist Church, 308 West 132nd St.

Firemen, summoned by three alarms, were forced to fight the fire from ladders because flames prevented entrance to the building.

Koger Resigns Solicitor Post

Complying with the request of the new city solicitor, Linwood G. Koger and 16 other assistants in that office will tender their resignations today (Friday).

Mr. Koger was appointed Jan. 5, 1944 by Simon Sobeloff, former city solicitor, to the request of former Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin.

As the new city solicitor, Thomas N. Biddison set a precedent when he requested all 17 of his aides who had not already resigned to do so immediately.

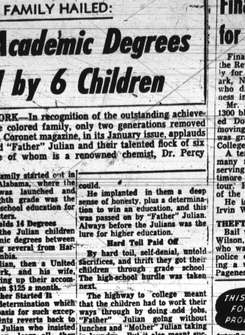
To Resign at Courtesy

Protected by City Service Commission regulations, the assistant staff cannot be forced to give up their jobs, but having attained a certain prestige as professional men in the solicitor's office they will comply with Mr. Biddison's request as a courtesy, thus allowing him to set up his own staff.

Mr. Biddison has said that all of the resignations will not necessarily be accepted, but that he expects to replace a number of the assistants with "qualified aides."

It is understood that the new staff, when selected, will include another colored person. The resignations will take effect in about a week.

for the first year in the city's history, there were no resident deaths from typhoid fever.



THEIR GOOD WORKS HERALDED—Mr. and Mrs. James S. Julian, 311 Schroeder St., Baltimore, about whom the magazine, Coronet, publishes a story heralding their parental achievement in guiding the destinies of six children who presently hold 14 academic degrees.

Drive for Dimes to Open at Emancipation Program

During the 85th anniversary celebration of the Emancipation Proclamation at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Bethel AME Church, Willard W. Allen will announced the opening of the annual March of Dimes drive.

Sponsored by the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation, the campaign raises funds for aiding all victims of the disease with medical and surgical treatment, braces, wheelchairs and special shoes, as well as giving them occupational therapy. Mr. Allen, chairman of the colored division of the campaign, stated that ex-L. Radcliff, state chairman of the drive, will be present at the meeting.

The co-operation of the churches has been promised. Coin boxes have been distributed, and at a later date coin collection cards will be mailed to a large number of citizens for contributions.

The March of Dimes operates on an interracial basis giving help to all who make application for it.

An interracial sports carnival, of which details will be announced later, will be held Jan. 30, the campaign closing date, at the Fifth

MARCH OF DIMES

FIGHT INFANTILE PARALYSIS

JANUARY 15-30

Men Accuse Each Other, Both Held

When two men accused each other of the theft of $20 worth of foodstuffs from a Lafayette Market luncheonette, Wednesday, they were held in $500 bail to await grand jury action.

Officer Marcus Corcoran said he arrested the pair as they were cooking a pot of greens and preparing to eat some more of the food in what was supposed to be the kitchen of a hovel in the 1100 block of Carson St.

In view of the cross-accusations and denials, Magistrate Thomas L. Fitzpatrick ordered the Hopkins and Dorsey, 30, of 1108 Carson St., and Norman Smallwood, 37, of 1346 N. Fremont Ave., held.

Boy, 10, Hit by Car, Gets Leg Bruised

Roy Barnes, 10, of 704 N. Carey St., escaped possible series injury when he was struck by an auto at Carey St. and Edmondson Ave., Monday afternoon.

The boy was taken to Franklin Square Hospital where he was treated for a slightly bruised leg.

The motorist, William W. Proctor, 34, of 524 N. Gilmor St., was charged with reckless driving and failing to identify himself after the accident.

Blue Triangle Club Makes Plans for '48

Plans for the 16th anniversary dance of the Blue Triangle Industrial Club were made at a meeting on Tuesday along with those for a social recreation class and monthly co-ed parties.

Mrs. Vera Cole, recently appointed program assistant in the Health Education Department, will lead the recreation class.

Members present were Misses Mary Wade, Viola Martin, Mary E. Jackson, Juanita Fields, Mary Brown; Mesdames Jean Sabbath, Beatrice Carroll, Ruth Boone and Mary Marshall. Mrs. Thelma Stanore is president and Miss Rebecca Busch, advisor.

THE DAHLIA PLEASURE CLUB Juveniles met at the home of Miss Ann Hay, 925 N. Chapel St., Friday.

Magic of Science to Unfold Tricks at GE's Electric Show

Music is sent across the stage on a light-beam. A toy electric train obeys spoken commands to "Stop," "Go ahead," and "Back up." Sound is presented visible.

"Impossible, you say? Not at all. These and many other scientific wonders will be featured in General Electric Company's "House of Magic" tobe presented at Polytechnic High School.

Free Show for Pupils

All secondary schools received written invitations urging their pupils to attend the free shows to be held Jan. 14, 15 and 16 at 2:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Tickets are available at the Locke Insulator Corp. at Charles and Cromwell Sts.

Now in its 14th season, the "House of Magic" has been enjoyed by more than 12,000,000 persons including 2,500,000 at the New York World's Fair, and more than 1,200,000 service men and

JULIAN FAMILY HAILED:

14 Academic Degrees Held by 6 Children

NEW YORK.—In recognition of the outstanding achievements of one colored family, only two generations removed from slavery, Coronet magazine, in its January issue, applauds "Mother" and "Father" Julian and their talented flock of six children, one of whom is a renowned chemist, Dr. Percy Julian.

The Julian family started out in Montgomery, Alabama, where the Confederacy was launched and where the eighth grade was the limit of public-school education for colored youngsters.

Family Holds 14 Degrees

Yet today, the Julian children have 14 academic degrees between them, including several from Harvard and Columbia.

"Father" Julian, then a United States mail clerk, and his wife, children through grade school. The high-school hurdle was taken next.

The highway to college meant that the children had to work their ways through by doing odd jobs. "Father" Julian going without lunches and "Mother" Julian taking in laundry. But it almost succeeded.

All Honor Graduates

Looking northward for a college where colored children might get an education on equal terms with others, they chose DePauw University at Greencastle, Indiana, because it welcomed all races and creeds.

All six children were graduated with honors, but the Bachelor of Arts degree was only a beginner to to them.

Father Owns Big Library

Today, "Father" Julian, now 79, has a library that overflows three rooms. He concludes the Coronet article, "you realize that their generosity is a combination of idealism, courage and realism. They see opportunities, not obstacles."

The other children are Dr Emerson Julian, Dr. James Julian and Mrs. Elizabeth White of Baltimore; Mrs. Mattie Brown of Westwood, N.Y. and Mrs. Irma Cooper of Brooklyn, N.Y.

Final Rites Held for Milton Jones

Final rites were conducted by the Rev. I. E. Stokes here recently for Milton W. Jones of Newark, N.J., a former Baltimorean who died here after a short illness in Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Mr. Jones, who resided in the 1300 block of Argyle Ave., attended Douglass High School, later moving to Newark, N.J., where he was graduated from Essex Junior College.

A tenor singer, he appeared in many musicals there as well as serving as chaperone for the Baltimore Boys' Choir on its Eastern tour. He was assistant manager of the Gloria Flower Shop.

He is survived by his brother, Irvin W. Jones.

THEFT SUSPECT HELD

Bail was set at $500 for Robert Wilson, 23, of 1435 N. Bond St., who was charged in Northeastern police court, Tuesday, with stealing a watch from Mrs. Camellia Pagenes of 1802 E. Biddle St.
