Bishop's Sermon Provokes New AFRO Church Series

AME Prelate Preaches Installation Day Message

Lucid Interpretation of Scripture Leads Editor to Begin Weekly Bible Discussion

Bishop George W. Baber's "heart to heart interpretation Sunday of the famous "Sermon on the Mount" has provoked a new AFRO series of religious articles!

According to the Bishop, who presides over the Second Episcopal District of the AME Church and was speaker at Payne Memorial Sunday, the Beatitudes of St. Matthew, fifth chapter, are the humanistic interpretation of the 10 Commandments.

Ministers to Participate

Such a deduction impressed the AFRO religious editor to the extent that for a new series, ministers of all denominations will be asked to interpret certain texts of the Bible, whether controversial or accepted.

Perhaps such a series will make Bible study more attractive to persons who formerly found such study difficult.

Take the creation of man, the birth of Christ, or the exodus across the River Jordan as examples. Laymen argue pro and con about such records in the Bible. Perhaps a discussion of the subjects by several ministers will enlighten many persons.

New Testament Human

Before presiding over annual installation services at Payne, Bishop Baber spoke from the fifth chapter of Matthew, and he found no tenderness and room for human errors in the Old Testament, but that he discovered it plainly in the teachings of Christ.

Comparing the Beatitudes with the firm "shalt not's" of the 10 Commandments, the prelate discussed four of the "Blessed's," and this is the way he interpreted each:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit for (their) is the kingdom of Heaven," is God's promise to the discouraged that they are standing on the threshold of fulfillment.

Prop to the Sorrowing

"Blessed are they that mourn (: they shall be comforted," is the promise that hope in the Almighty means sorrow's termination;

"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth," was speaken for those "meekness" persons who are willing to listen to learn and to take advantage of the opportunity to learn, and;

"Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled," means satisfaction comes to those who seek God with earnestness.

New Meaning Found

That was all, yet it was enough to bring new meaning from the text to the congregation which filled the church that morning.

During the services, the Rev. C. Baker Pearle, pastor, as presented a money donation of from the Gospel Choir to help defray his expenses as a leading candidate for the bishopric.

The choir also presented a donation to the board of trustees from the Vocal and Oratorical Contest which it (the choir) sponsored recently.

First prizes of $25 each in the vocal and oratorical divisions; second prizes of $15 each; and third prizes of $5 each were awarded in the contest.

Recipients were:

Miss Christine James of Douglass High School, first prizes oration; and Robert Laws, Howard University, first prize, vocal;

Miss Helen Redfie, of the Baltimore Elite Choir, second prize, vocal; and Miss Ovelia Dorsey, Douglass High, second prize, oration.

Leonard Ford, Morgan College, third prize, vocal; and Miss Georgeva Howard, Douglass High, third prize, oration.

$700 Raised at Services

The gift was presented to the choir by Mrs. Jean Swain of Morgan College, chairman of the Gospel Choir.

During Sunday morning services 11-year-old Peggy Randall of the junior choir, rendered a solo from the pulpit. Over $700 was raised during the Installation Day services.

That evening, a program was presented by the church's five singing groups, which also include the Young People's Choir, Senior Choir and Male Chorus.

IN OUR CHURCHES

St. James PE church has a new assistant pastor, in the Rev. Charles W. Fox, a native of Charles Town, W.Va. He is an alumnus of St. Augustine's College and the Bishop Payne Divinity School.

Father Fox has pastored in Clarksburg, W. Va., and in Kansas City, Kan. where he was priest-in-charge of the Church of the Ascension.

The Rev. G. D. Robinson, president of the AME Ministers' Conference, came in for some good nostured kidding Monday when he inadvertently pledged the group's full co-operation to "Bishop Davis" instead of Bishop George W. Baber who graciously took the mistake in his stride.

To Improve Cemetery

The group is all set to undertake needed improvements at Mount Cemetery, getting the project under way with a dinner at which Bishop Baber will address himself primarily to church laymen to work up community interest.

Some $5000 worth of renovating and refurnishing have been made at the AME Home for the Aged, and the building will soon be rededicated.

Ethel M. Henderson, assistant superintendent of the home, will be guest speaker Jan. 25 on the People's Day program in Madison Ave. Presbyterian church.

Immediately after the morning worship service, the annual meeting of the congregation will be held. At this time, discussions relative to an architect for the entire year will take place.

Vesper services sponsored by the Westminster Fellowship will be conducted at 5 p.m. Sunday The Rev. Roland L. Minnis is pastor of the church.

Union Revival Closes

John Wesley Methodist and Ebenezer AME Churches in South Baltimore are engaged in a union revival meeting featuring the Rev. H. R. Tomlin, gospel preacher and evangelist. The service ends tonight.

The services were conducted at John Wesley church last week, and this week, at Ebenezer. A union chorus provided music each night.

Mrs. Gladys Gantt is secretary of the union services and Mrs. Alverta Shannon, treasurer. The Rev. J.-Frye is pastor of John Wesley and the Rev. W. F. Foster of Ebenezer.

Young People's Day will be observed Jan. 25 at Payne Memorial AME Church, with the Rev. Medford C. Camper of Trinity AME Sunday School, a student at Lincoln University, delivering the morning sermon.

An elaborate program is being planned by Miss Doris Garrett, James E. Hodges Jr., chairman, and Miss Juanita Williamson, vice-chairman of the service. The Rev. C. Baker Pearle is pastor.

The annual revival at Shiloh Baptist Church closes tonight (Friday).

Featured speaker during the services was the Rev. W. A. Johnson, pastor of Greater St. John Baptist Church in Chicago. The Rev. J. T. Boddie is host pastor.

Special Exhibition at Museum of Art

A special exhibition arranged by the Midtown Galleries of New York of the paintings by Miss Doris Rosenthal is being shown in the Members' Room of the Baltimore Museum of Art during the month of January.

Miss Rosenthal is also a textile designer of some note. Her portfolios pertaining to man, birds and flowers, used as elements in design, have been helpful in the museum's education activities, according to Miss Belle Boas, director of that department.
