GA. 'JUSTICE' GREEDY:

Freed by FBI, Dixon Fights Extradition

PHILADELPHIA

Before he left the Federal Court Building where he was freed of "fugitive" charges in a garage owner, was re-arrested to face extradition proceedings in Harrisburg this Thursday.

Dixon, wanted by Georgia authorities on a 12-year-old murder charge, was released under bail after a warrant was served on him Friday by Det. Clarence Jones of the Homicide Squad.

A few minutes earlier, Commissioner James H. Mallory had dismissed charges that Dixon fled from one State to another to escape punishment for a felony.

Exhaustive efforts are being made by Magistrate Hobson R. Reynolds to have the case transferred to Pennsylvania where Dixon will be assured a fair trial.

3 Lawyers Back Fight

R. Reynolds, E. Washington Rhodes, Philadelphia attorney, and Wilbur Douglass of Pittsburgh Masonic Grand attorney, will represent the defendant in Harrisburg on Thursday.

Dixon, owner of a garage at 1619 Bainbridge St., was arrested two weeks ago by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, but was released under bail.

The killing occurred near Montezuma, Ga., as Dixon, then 22, attempted to take a gun from a friend to prevent another murder.

He was not arrested in Georgia, but came to Philadelphia, organized his business, bought a home at 1104 N. 42nd St., was married and has an 11-month-old daughter.

Training Bill Changes, Poll Congressmen Officials Coming Here Feb. 5 to Discuss

WASHINGTON

Efforts to win support from progressive forces for anti-segregation amendments to the Universal Military Training Bill will be made by the Committee Against Jim Crow in Military Service and Training at an all-day conference here Feb. 5.

The conference will be held at Lincoln Temple Congregational Church, 11th and R Sts., N.W., beginning 11 a.m. and concluding with a mass meeting at 8:15 p.m.

To Poll Congressmen

Lobbying among Congressmen will be carried out in the afternoon.

The committee, in a memorandum to leaders and organizations in the Washington area, asked that, as far as possible, other organizations and churches leave that day and evening free so their members can participate in this program."

Those interested are urged to communicate their views to Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., Speaker of the House; Rep. Charles A. Halleck, House Majority Leader; and Rep. Leo E. Allen, chairman, House Rules Committee.

Local Lawyers Aid Group

The local host chapter of the organization is headed by Albert Black, and Grant Reynolds of NYC is national chairman; A. Philip Randolph, treasurer, and Charles J. Patterson, executive secretary.

Three well known Washington lawyers are on the national legal committee. They are Charles Houston, Belford W. Lawson Jr., and James W. Nabrit.

3 Felled by Gas Return to Home

NEWARK

A mother and two children who narrowly escaped death by gas suffocation were discharged Sunday from City Hospital following two days' treatment for gas poisoning.

Mrs. Ruth William, 30, and her children, James Jr., 10, and Janet, 7, were discovered unconscious in their first floor apartment at 222 Orange St. at 11:30 Friday night by Mrs. Lucy A. Butler, a neighbor, who smelled gas from her apartment across the hall.

All three were revived by the police emergency squad and taken to the hospital. Police stated that the gas was released after an open flame apparently consumed most
