IN OUR CHURCHES

The "American Mother of 1945," Mrs Harper Sibley of Rochester, N.Y., will be guest speaker at the Council Day Luncheon of the Baltimore Council of Church Women, Feb. 6 at the Hotel Emerson.

Mrs. Sibley, long recognized as a leader in church work, is president of the United Council of Church Women.

The Bishop's Dinner to discuss improvement plans for Mt. Zion Cemetery, operated by the AME Church, has been set for next Thursday at Bethel Church.

At that time, Bishop George W. Baber will make a special appeal to laymen of the church to cooperate in the project.

Rev. Waters Cited

The community betterment work undertaken by the Rev. Wilbur H. Waters, pastor of Emmanuel C. C. Church, is commended in last Sunday's issue of the church bulletin.

An editorial points out that as first vice president of the National Association of Community Churches of America and an NAACP director, he, with the assistance of the church officers, is working unceasingly to better the economic status of the neighborhood residents.

Cited are his efforts to have the service of police women continued in the local parks, and to have the grand jury investigate cases of police brutality, negligence and discrimination.

Church Progress Noted

The article also notes that within the past 10 years, Emmanuel has grown from a struggling little known church to an organization having acquired assets in excess of $60,000 and city-wide recognition.

Members of the church selected to form the nucleus of the Men's Advisory Board include Ellsworth Coates, George Bowden, Wilbur Batson, Oscar Jackson, Planter Muir, and Late Thomas.

The pastor's class for Easter accessions at Grace Presbyterian Church will begin at 2 p.m. Feb 7.

This will begin the New Life Movement among youth of the church. The Rev. John T. Colbert is pastor.

Youth Day Set

Young People's Day will be observed at Grace on Sunday, with music for the morning and evening services provided by the Grace Girls' Choir.

A two-week old-fashioned revival will begin Sunday morning at People's Union Baptist Church Wolfe near Eager St.

The sermon each evening will be delivered by the Rev Mrs. M B. Stuart Robinson. The noted Vashti Gospel Singers also will be featured. The Rev. William Williamson is pastor.

The AME Bishops' Council will meet in Dallas, Tex., on Feb. 18, 19 and 20. The Baltimore delegation will entrain at 12:32 a.m. Feb. 15 arriving in Memphis, Tuesday, where they will spend the day as guests of a committee honoring Bishop and Mrs. R. R. Wright at a testimonial.

Rev. Pearle to Speak

The Rev. C. Baker Pearle, pastor of Payne AME Church, has been invited to speak at this affair and also at the Council meeting Wednesday night on the subject, "The Trends Toward Popeism in the African Methodist Church."

1200 Attend Rites for Mrs. Williams

respects to the beloved administrator.

Services Half Hour Later

They watched in silence as morticians arranged nearly 70 floral designs across the front of the church until the altar became a mass of color.

Every seat was filled in the large auditorium when the services, conducted by the Rev. Joshua O. Williams, began 35 minutes after the scheduled time.

According to information given the AFRO, the delay was occasioned by the fact that another ceremony had preceded the Williams's rites by little more than an hour, and the Rev. Mr. Williams was the principal eulogist for both.

After the dark, metal casket was rolled down the aisle, the Rev. C. E. Hodges, retired Methodist minister, read the 90th Psalm; and the Rev. Reginald Daniels of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church read the obituary.

As he struck the theme in telling of the services Mrs. Williams had rendered, during the reading of the obituary, in one place he said, "Her life was beautiful, useful, broad and inspiring."

Praised by Henderson

Lauding Mrs. Williams, Elmer A. Henderson, assistant superintendent of schools, said:

"Mrs. Williams was unquestioned and outstanding in character, personality, academic and professional scholarship and efficiency.

"She always kept her word, was punctual, accepted her tasks with a smile and possessed the human touch.

"Over 2,000 pupils at Booker T. Washington Junior High School No. 130, where she worked as my special assistant, received from her kindness, counsel and inspiration.

P-TA Offers Tribute

Representing Douglass High School's Parent-Teacher Association was Mrs. Vernetta Holmes, who, in paying tribute to Mrs. Williams, declared:

"She was loved and respected by the boys and girls of the school. The influence of her personality, the ideals and ideas she instilled in them and us as parents, will live on."

"A natural leader, capable, but not conspicuous in performing her duties," said the Rev. Mr. Williams in his eulogy of the deceased school official, who grew up in Sharp Street Church and was president of its Wesleyan Guild at the time of her death.

Deeds Her Monument

The pastor added:

"No greater monument need be raised than the power of her personality felt by these hundreds of persons who are gathered here to-day. She lost her life in others, in her home and church life, in her daily service to others.

"Let us go away with gratitude for having known and been a part of such a life as hers."

The Rev. Howard L. Cornish, director of Morgan State Christian Center, acknowledged the receipt of hundreds of cards and some 50 telegrams of condolence from friends here and in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia.

Songs at Service Impressive

One hymn, "Come Ye Disconsolate," was sung by the Sharp Street Choir. Mrs. Lillian M. Parrott, life-long friend of the deceased, sang, "There Is No Death"; and the Douglass Choral Club, "The Lord's Prayer."

Paying last honors to their member and former president, the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority sang its hymn.

Husband, Mother Survive

Mrs. Williams is survived by her husband, Dr. Nelson Williams; mother, Mrs. Anna Bond; daughter, Miss Mina Ann Williams, a Howard University senior; uncle, the Rev. C. H. Matthews, and other relatives.

She was born in Baltimore; graduated from Douglass High School in 1917; valedictorian of the 1921 class of Morgan State College, and later, earned her master's degree at the University of Pennsylvania.

She was married to Dr. Williams in 1925. He is a dentist and teaches at Douglass High School.

Taught at Bennett College

Mrs. Williams taught one year at Bennett College in Greensboro, after which she returned to Baltimore, where she joined the public school system.

She served consecutively as English teacher at Douglass, the first English supervisor in the junior high schools, special assistant at Washington Junior High School and vice-principal at Douglass.

Her other organizational affiliations included membership in the Auroras, CC and BB, 20-21, Lee Alder Charity Clubs, the Neighborhood Club of the 1800, 1900 and 2000 blocks of Madison Ave., and several professional groups.

After rites in the church were ended, Mrs. Williams's body was buried in Arbutus Memorial Park.

RITES FOR SCHOOL EXECUTIVE—At left are bereaved members of the family of the late Mrs. Iradelle Bond Williams, vice-principal of Douglass High School who died Friday following a four-week illness. In the family group is her mother, Mrs. Anna Bond; husband, Dr. Nelson Williams, and daughter, Miss Minna A. Williams. Pallbearers on the right were Dr. Garnet C. Wilkinson, assistant superintendent of schools, and Rev. Reginald Daniels of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. The rites, held at Sharp St. Methodist Church, were attended by some 1,200 persons.

Grahams Return From Trip to N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graham, 431 W. Monument St., returned Wednesday from Wilson, N.C., where they attended funeral rites for Mrs. Stennie Ann Eatmon, mother of Mrs. Graham.

Mrs. Eatman died on Jan. 21. Rites were held at Baker's Chapel on Jan. 24, with interment following on Jan. 28 in Nash County.

Also attending the rites was Benjamin Eatman, brother of the deceased. Other survivors include another brother and seven grandchildren.

Elk Sessions End Saturday

The Elks Department of Education conference, which is in progress at Metropolitan Baptist Church, 1225 R St., N.W., will wind up Saturday afternoon.

Representatives from 21 States are attending the three-day session which was called by W. C. Hueston, grand commissioner of education for the Independent Brotherhood for the Protective Order of the Elks.

Dr. Garnet C. Wilkinson, assistant superintendent of schools, will address Saturday morning's session on the topic, "Four Imperative Needs in the Education for Colored Persons."

Rebuilding Fund Drive Launched by St. Mary's

Suffering something of a setback when Father William Phipps left the pastorate, the rebuilding fund campaign for St. Mary Episcopal Church has been revived and a contractor will soon be employed.

The 74-year-old institution was gutted by fire last February.

The displaced congregation worshipped briefly with white members of the nearby mother church, Mount Calvary.

However, noticing an apparent cool attitude of some of their hosts, the St. Mary congregation withdrew in March to conduct services in their own parish hall.

New Rector Assigned

Church officials denied that this situation had anything to do with Father Phipps's leaving, but they declined to state any other reason.

He has been replaced since December 1 by Father E. L. Lasher, a Baltimorean who has been away for four years, returning to this charge from Geneva, Ill.

Dean George C. Grant of Morgan State College, chairman of a committee which launched a $40,000 campaign to rebuild the church, said that the need for the congregation to work together in harmony on this project influenced the decision to withdraw to themselves.

New Campaign Planned

Because at the church will cost about $108,000, of which $54,000 is covered by insurance. With $8,000 cash and additional pledges, plans are about ready for the work to begin.

In the meantime, organizational plans are under way for a neighborhood drive to raise the additional funds.

Boys' Choir Sings for 2,000 in D.C.

WASHINGTON

Despite cold, snowy weather over 2,000 music lovers of both races turned out Sunday at Metropolitan Wesley AMEZ Church to hear the Baltimore Boys' Choir, directed by Meredith H. Birchett, a superb program of choral literature.

The concert was sponsored by the trustees and stewards of the church, the Rev. O. G. Goodwin, pastor.

Audience Well Pleased

Among the best liked in the reading of two melodious works, "The Messiah," by Handel, and "The Communion, Mass in G" by Parrot.

Another group of songs composed by the conductor evoked approval of the audience, which registered deep appreciation of the spirituals which closed the program.

Soloists were Joseph Johnson, William L. Hollomon, James A. Williams, Charles Digges, Robert Digges, Irvin West, Clarence Clark, Edward Grant, Vernon Wilson, Benny Kearse and Luther H. Johnson, who with James Williams also served as percussionists.

New Harper Temple Officers Installed by District Deputy

Installation services for officers of the Past Daughter Rulers Council of the F.E.W. Harper Temple of Elks, were conducted by Mrs. Florence Snowden, district deputy, Thursday, at the Pride of Baltimore Elks Home.

Conference Held on Public Health

Problems significant to public health were discussed at the annual meeting of the Maryland State Nurses Association, the Maryland League of Nursing Education and the State Organization for Public Health Nursing held here recently.

The program included lectures on mental hygiene in nursing service to children, atomic energy in medicine and the role of the nurse in the modern role.

Among those in attendance at the various sessions were:

Mrs. Edith Fields, Misses Nannie Bass, J. Lancaster, Julia H. Osborn and Marie McKnight and the senior nursing class of Provident Hospital.

Mrs. Vivian Pendleton and Miss Mamie L. Johnson of Druid Health Center; Mrs. Mabel Hawkins of Mutual Benefit Society; Miss Mozelle Dickerson of Morgan State College.

Laurence F. Hunt New Y Secretary

NEW YORK — The executive director of the Harlem YMCA, Rudolph J. Thomas, announced Friday that Laurence F. Hunt, program director, has tendered his resignation in order to accept the executive secretaryship of the Twelfth Street YMCA in Washington.

Hunt will take over his new post on Mar. 1, bringing to an end a period of 22 years of service with the Harlem Association. Born in Jersey City, N.J., he was educated in the public school system of New York, holding a B.S. degree from C.C.N.Y.

Began Career in 1926

He did graduate work at NYU School of Education. In 1926 Mr. Hunt began his Y career as a part-time assistant in the Boys' Physical Department at the Harlem Y, under the executive secretaryship of Thomas E. Taylor.

In 1929, he was elevated to full-time physical director. In 1933 the new million-dollar edifice opened, and, with more modern facilities on hand, he championed an area which was to see tremendous growth in interracial relations.

Hunt was appointed program director in 1943, in which capacity he was responsible for general program supervision, counseling and guidance and community relations. During his tenure he has been particularly active in community life.

Community Affiliations

His membership affiliations have been Interracial Fellowship of Greater New York, vice-president of the People's Civic and Welfare Association; vice-president of the 47th Precinct Co-ordinating Council; chairman of the board of managers of the Williamsbridge Community Center and Grand Jurors Association of Bronx County.

He has been serving as superintendent of the Sunday School at St. Luke Episcopal Mission of Williamsbridge. Kappa Alpha Psi is his fraternity.

For the time being, his wife, Mrs. Sybil Hunt, and their two children, will continue to live in their Bronx home.

Mrs. Hunt for the past five years has held a responsible position with Macy's Department Store. Joyce, 18, will continue attendance at Hunter College where she is a chemistry major, while Theodore, 16, will continue his studies at De Witt Clinton High School.

Puerto Rico Needs Health Education

ATLANTA, Ga.—Health is one of the major problems of Puerto Rico, Prof. G. Murray Branch, of the Morehouse School of Religion, reported on his return to the country last week. While on a visit to the island he became aware that tuberculosis and venereal diseases claim an alarmingly high death rate among the natives.

Halls Governor's Minority Policy

ATLANTIC CITY — Herod E. McLeod, candidate for city commission, lauded Governor Driscoll and GOP State Chairman Lloyd B. Marsh on Monday for committing the Republican State Committee to recognize that minority groups must have larger opportunity for participation in government.

He said that Mr. Driscoll and his party appear to be carrying out a pre-election Driscoll pledge to help make it possible for minority groups to take part in county and municipal policy-making bodies.

Reveals Own Platform

Mr. McLeod said that his platform calls for making Atlantic City Hospital a city owned hospital to be known as Carver-Edison Memorial, with an addition of 200 beds made possible by city, State and Federal funds.

He also proposed revamping of Atlantic City municipal departments, elimination of dual job holding, prohibition of political contributions by city employees and barring city funds to all private organizations except social agencies.
