LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND.

ANNAPOLIS, March 21, 1865.

EVENING SESSION.

SENATE.—The following bills were passed: House bill to authorize the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to build a railroad from a point on its road between Knoxville and Monocacy Junction, through Frederick and Montgomery counties, to the boundary of the District of Columbia, the road to be commenced within one year and completed within five years.—Senate bill to incorporate the Metropolitan Railroad Company. [This bill was amended so as to require the road to commence within one mile of Monocacy Junction, and extend to Washington city. It also provides that if the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company shall build the road within the time prescribed by the bill previously passed, then this act to be null and void.]

The bill to indemnify Governor Bradford for the loss of his dwelling house, burnt by Confederate troops, was rejected—yeas 14, nays 11. Mr. Carroll gave notice that he should move a reconsideration of the bill.

The bill for the relief of the heirs of Col. Edward Cockey was rejected.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.—The House resumed the consideration of the bill to provide for the registration of the voters of this State. The 19th section, requiring the officers of registration to propound certain interrogatories to the voter in relation to his disqualification under the constitution, whether such voter has ever given aid and comfort to the rebellion, &c., was stricken out. The bill was then ordered to a third reading.

NIGHT SESSION.

The House took up, on its second reading, the House bill to provide for the general valuation and assessment of property in this State. The bill was ordered to a third reading. [The bill provides that property shall be assessed at its value in specie—one assessor to be appointed by the Governor from each assessment district, and receive a compensation of $6 per day while actively engaged, &c.]

The veto on the House bill relating to the inspection of salted fish in Baltimore city, was reconsidered and passed.

Bills Passed.—House bill to amend the law relating to the fees for weighing hay and straw. House bill to authorize Jas. A. Bond, administrator, &c., to collect certain fees—House bill relating to the inspection of firewood in Baltimore county. House bill prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors in the town of Federalsburg, in Caroline county.—House bill fixing the compensation of judges of the Orphans' Court at $6 per day, in Baltimore city, and $4 per day in the counties. House bill legalizing certain acts of the Commissioners of Frederick county. House bill to incorporate the Deep Creek Coal, Coal Oil, Lumber and Fire Brick Manufacturing Company of Allegany county. To exempt from taxation the property of the General Workingmen's Relief and Sick Relief Union Society of Baltimore. Adjourned.

ANNAPOLIS, March 22.

SENATE.—The House amendments to the bill incorporating the Annapolis Water Company were concurred in.

Bills Passed.—Senate bill to indemnify Gov. Bradford for the loss of his dwelling house, destroyed by rebel soldiers—ayes 13, nays 6. House bill relating to the sheriff of Anne Arundel county. House bill in favor of Pritchard and others. Senate bill to authorize the Mount Clare George's Creek Coal Company to increase their capital stock. Senate bill establishing an industrial school for girls. Senate bill relating to fish and fisheries, (prohibiting the taking of sand and gravel from certain shores.)

Bills Rejected.—House bill to incorporate the Chesapeake and Potomac Canal Company. House bill to make valid acts of justices of the peace out of the State. House bill amending the general law relating to jurors, fixing their pay at $2 50 per day, &c.

Mr. Trail from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported that the bill to pay the Mayor as a member of the Board of Police in Baltimore city, a yearly salary, ought not to pass, and the bill was rejected.

Licensing the Oyster Trade.—The House bill to regulate the catching of oysters by dredges or otherwise, by issuing licenses for the same was taken up and was under consideration, when the Senate took a recess until 5 P. M.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.—Bills Reported and Read a Second Time.—Senate bill to make valid certain bequests of John L. Zeigler, &c.; which was passed. Senate bill to provide a uniform system of education in this State.—House bill to incorporate the Baltimore, Annapolis and Washington Air Line Railroad Company. [Mr. Syster, Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, reported against the bill.]

The bill to provide for the inspection and gauging of lager beer and malt liquors in Baltimore city, so as to require the quantity of contents of casks or barrels of all sizes to be marked on the outside, was read and passed over informally.

The bill to incorporate the Baltimore, Annapolis and Washington Air Line Railroad Company was unfavorably reported upon.

Contested Election.—Mr. Lee, of Baltimore city, Chairman of the Select Committee on the subject, made a minority report, declaring that the testimony offered in the case of James L. Ridgely, contesting the seat of Richard Grason as Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore county, is not sufficient to sustain the charges embraced in the memorial of said Ridgely, or to warrant this House in granting the prayer of the memorialist, and they therefore respectfully recommend that said memorial be dismissed, &c. The report is signed by Messrs. Lee, Hodson and Chew. The House refused to accept the report. The subject is made the order for this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Militia Bill.—The House bill to provide for the organization and discipline of the militia of the State was rejected—yeas 21, nays 44.

Tobacco Warehouses.—Mr. Brown, from the committee on the subject, reported that they had examined the tobacco warehouses in Baltimore city, and found everything satisfactory. The committee recommend certain repairs to the several warehouses, and an increase of pay to the laborers of 50 cents per day. The committee submit a financial statement of the inspections, etc., which was ordered to be printed.

Adjournment of the Session.—Mr. Valliant offered a message to the Senate proposing to extend the time of adjournment of the General Assembly from Friday, at 8 P. M., to Saturday, at 8 P. M., which was laid on the table—ayes 29, nays 16.

A joint resolution that the State Librarian furnish the justices of the peace of the State with copies of the Supplement to the Code was passed—ayes 34, nays 33.

Mr. Smith, of Allegany, made a minority report from the committee of investigation [illegible] frauds, which was read. [illegible] the majority and minority reports were ordered printed.

Codification of the Laws.—The joint resolution [illegible] the codification of the laws from January, 1860 to the end of the present session, and the appointment of a codifier by the Governor, who shall contract for the work, was rejected—yeas 29 nays 35.

Bills Passed.—House bill to provide for the registration of the voters of this State. House bill to provide for the general valuation and re-assessment of property in this State. Appropriating $5,000 to procure a full length portrait of the late Senator Hicks for the Executive Chamber, &c. House bill to authorize the State's Attorney to institute proceedings to forfeit the charter of the West River and Tracey's Point Plank Road Company.

The General School Bill.—The bill to establish a uniform system of public instruction in this State was taken up as the order of the day, and was under consideration when the House took a recess until 4 P. M.

A man in Madison county, Ill., after considerable experiment, has produced ten pounds of silk fully equal to what is imported from France and Italy, from one hundred and twenty thousand cocoons. He has estimated the cost and profits, and is now prepared to enter into the silk business extensively. His last produce has been on exhibition in St. Louis.

The late Judge Davis of Massachusetts, who was a small undersized man, being one in the company of six large men one of them said, "Judge Davis, how do you feel in the presence of six gentlemen of such amplitude of dimensions as ourselves?" "Feel," said the little lean man, raising himself to his greatest height. "I feel like a four-pence half penny among six cents."

General Sherman writes from Fayetteville to a friend here, that he has received his supplies from up Cape Fear river, and was, at the time of writing, ready to move again, and that he had followed, with slight exception, the path laid out before he left Savannah.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

FIRST BRANCH, March 22, 1865.—Present, James Young, President, and a quorum of members.

Mr. Kraft submitted a resolution to repair the roof of the Centre market, between Pratt and Lombard streets. Laid over.

SEEDS.—Clover is steady at $17.25@17.50; Timothy nominal at $6.50 and Flaxseed at $3.30.

SUGARS.—Buyers look for lower prices and are not in the market. Prices nominal as follows: Refining Cuba and English Island at 13@14 cents; grocery do at 14½@15½ cents, and Porto Rico do. at 16@19 cts.

WHISKY.—Sales reported at $2.27. Market inactive.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, March 21, 1865.

ASHES.—The market is lower, unsettled, and prices at the close are entirely nominal; we omit quotations.

COTTON.—The market continues very dull, with only a few small retail sales, prices are lower and very unsettled, ranging nominally between 50@55c for Middlings.

COFFEE.—No sales are reported, prices being without change, the stock of Rio as made up by Messrs. Wm. Scott & Sons is 50,8[illegible] bags, including 10,600 in Baltimore, 1,000 in Philadelphia, and 39,[illegible] in New York.

FLOUR AND MEAL.—The market for Western and State Flour is dull, and as the supply offering is large, prices are 15@25c ₱ bbl lower; the decline is the most noticeable on good and choice brands; the sales are 14,000 bbls at $9 60 for Superfine State; $9 75@10 10 for extra state, $10 15@10 30 for Fancy State, $10 [illegible] 30 for the low grades of Western Extra; $10 30@10 60 for shipping Ohio. $10 50@11 for Trade and Family brands, and $10 50@13 75 for St Louis Extras. Canadian Flour is 20@25c lower and the market is dull at the close; the sales of 220 bbls at $10 70@10 25 for the low grades of Extra, and $10 25@11 75 for Trade and Family Extras. Southern Flour is also dull and lower, the supply is ample; sales of 250 bbls at $10 20@11 for mixed to good Superfine Country Baltimore, &c., and $11 10@13 75 for Trade and Family brands. Rye Flour is dull and lower; sales of 200 bbls at $6 75@7 50. Corn Meal is quiet and heavy, sales of 100 bbls at $7 for Jersey.

GRAIN.—The Wheat market is very dull and prices are fully 8 to 10 cents lower, and still quite unsettled; the depression in gold and the tight money market are the chief causes of the concession; the demand is limited; the sales are 14,000 bush at $1 80 for good Milwaukee, delivered. Last evening two cargoes of Amber do. sold at $1 92½.—Barley is inactive and prices are nominal.—Barley Malt is quiet and unsettled. LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty Eighth Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 54.]

AN ACT to establish the office of solicitor and naval judge advocate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for service during the rebellion and one year thereafter, an officer in the Navy Department, to be called the "Solicitor and Naval Judge Advocate General," at an annual salary of three thousand five hundred dollars, and that until the close of the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, the salary herein provided for shall be paid from any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the fees for record in naval courts-martial shall not in any case exceed the sum of two hundred dollars.

Approved, March 2, 1865.

[PUBLIC—No. 56.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to provide internal revenue to support the government, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the act entitled "An act to provide internal revenue to support the government, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, be and the same is hereby, amended as hereinafter set forth, namely:

That section four be amended by striking out the word "five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "ten."

That section eight be amended by striking out, after the words "within each of which the," the words "Secretary of the Treasury, whenever there shall be a vacancy, or the public interest shall require, shall appoint, with the approval of the said commissioner, one assistant assessor, who shall be a resident of the district of said assessor," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "assessor, whenever there shall be a vacancy, shall appoint, with the approval of said commissioner, one or more assistant assessor[s], who shall be a resident of such assessment district."

That section twenty-five be amended by inserting after the words "four hundred thousand dollars," the words "and not exceeding one million of dollars, and one eighth of one per centum on all sums above one million of dollars;" by inserting after the words "reasonable charges for," the word "advertising;" and by striking out all of the first proviso; and by striking out the word "further" in the second proviso.

That section twenty-six be amended by striking out the word "apportionment," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appointment."

That section twenty eight be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the words, "That each of said collectors shall, within twenty days after receiving his annual collection list from the assessors, give notice, by advertisement published in each county in his collection district, in one newspaper printed in such county, if any such there be, and by notifications to be posted up in at least four public places in each county in his collection district, that the said duties have become due and payable, and state the time and place within said county at which he or his deputy will attend to receive the same, which time shall not be less than ten days after said notification. And if any person shall neglect to pay, as aforesaid, for more than ten days, it shall be the duty of the collector or his deputy to issue to such person a notice, to be left at his dwelling or usual place of business, or be sent by mail, demanding the payment of said duties or taxes, stating the amount thereof, with a fee of twenty cents for the issuing and service of such notice, and with four cents for each mile actually and necessarily travelled in serving the same. And if such person shall not pay the duties or taxes, and the fee of twenty cents and mileage as aforesaid, within ten days after the service or the sending by mail of such notice, it shall be the duty of the collector or his deputy to collect the said duties or taxes, and fee of twenty cents and mileage, with a penalty of ten per centum additional upon the amount of duties. And with respect to all such duties or taxes as are not included in the annual lists aforesaid, and all taxes and duties the collection of which is not otherwise provided for in this act, it shall be the duty of each collector, in person or by deputy, to demand payment thereof, in the manner last mentioned, within ten days from and after receiving the list thereof from the assessor, or within twenty days from and after the expiration of the time within which such duty or tax should have been paid; and if the annual or other duties shall not be paid within ten days from and after such demand therefor, it shall be lawful for such collector, or his deputies, to proceed to collect the said duties or taxes, with ten per centum additional thereto, as aforesaid, by distraint and sale of the goods, chattels, or effects of the persons delinquent as aforesaid. And in case of distraint, it shall be the duty of the officer charged with the collection to make, or cause to be made, an account of the goods or chattels distrained, a copy of which, signed by the officer making such distraint, shall be left with the owner or possessor of such goods, chattels, or effects, or at his or her dwelling, or usual place of business, with some person of suitable age and discretion, if any such can be found, with a note of the sum demanded, and the time and place of sale; and the said officer shall forthwith cause a notification to be published in some newspaper within the county wherein said distraint is made, if there is a newspaper published in said county, or to be publicly posted up at the post office, if there be one within five miles, nearest to the residence of the person whose property shall be distrained, and in not less than two other public places, which notice shall specify the articles distrained, and the time and place for the sale thereof, which time shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such notification, [and] the place proposed for sale not more than five miles distant from the place of making such distraint.—And in any case in which any person, bank, association, company, or corporation required by law to make return to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall refuse or neglect to make such return within the time specified, the amount of circulation, deposit, and capital, or either, shall be estimated by the proper assessor, or assistant assessor, and shall be certified by him to the Commissioner.—And in all cases in which the person, bank, association, company, or corporation required by law to make payment of tax to the Commissioner shall neglect or refuse to make such payment within the time required, the Commissioner shall certify the amount of tax due by such person, bank, association, or corporation, with all the penalties, additions and expenses, accruing, to the collector of the proper district, who shall collect the same by distraint and sale, as in other cases. And the same proceedings may be had to enforce the collection of taxes which have already accrued and which still remain unpaid. And if any person, bank, association, company, or corporation liable to pay any duty shall neglect or refuse to pay the same after demand, the amount shall be a lien in favor of the United States from the time it was due until paid, with the interests, penalties, and costs that may accrue in addition thereto, upon all property and rights to property; and the collector, after demand, may levy or by warrant may authorize a deputy collector to levy upon all property and rights to property belonging to such person, bank, association, company, or corporation, or on which the said lien exists, for the payment of the sum due as aforesaid, with interest and penalty for non payment, and also of such further sum as shall be sufficient for the fees, costs, and expenses of such levy. And in all cases of sale, the certificate of such sale by the collector shall have the same effect as is prescribed by the one hundred and nineteenth section of the act to which this is an amendment. And all persons and officers of companies or corporations are required, on demand of a collector or deputy collector about to distrain or having distrained on any property and rights to property, to exhibit all books containing evidence or statements relating to the subject or subjects of distraint, or the property or rights to property liable to distraint for the tax so due as aforesaid: Provided, That in any case of distraint for the payment of the duties or taxes aforesaid, the goods, chattels, or effects, so distrained, shall and may be restored to the owner or possessor, if prior to the sale payment of the amount due or tender thereof shall be made to the proper officer charged with the collection of the full amount demanded, together with such fee for levying, and such sum for the necessary and reasonable expenses of removing, advertising, and keeping [the] goods, chattels, or effects so distrained, as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; but in case of non-payment or tender as aforesaid, the said officers shall proceed to sell the said goods, chattels, or effects, at public auction, and shall and may retain from the proceeds of such sale the amount demandable for the use of the United States, with the necessary and reasonable expenses of distraint and sale, and a commission of five per centum thereon for his own use, rendering the overplus, if any there be, to the person whose goods, chattels, or effects shall have been distrained: Provided further, That there shall be exempt from distraint the tools or implements of a trade or profession, one cow, arms, and provisions, and household furniture kept for use, school books, and apparel necessary for a family.

That section thirty-eight be amended by striking therefrom the words "thirty five," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "thirty-six."

That section forty be amended by inserting after the words "appointment of a successor," the words: Provided, That in case it shall appear to the Secretary of the Treasury that the interest of the Government shall so require, he may, by his order, direct said duties to be performed by such other one of the said deputies as he may in such order designate.

That section fifty-two be amended by inserting before the words "That all assessors," the words "And be it further enacted;" by inserting after the word "deputies," the words "revenue agents;" and by striking out after the word "charged" the word "and," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "or."

That section fifty three be amended by inserting after the word "distiller," where it first occurs, the words "before distilling any spirits;" by striking out after the word "any," and preceding the words "still or stills," the word "additional," by striking out after the word "used," and preceding the words "shall be erected," the words "as aforesaid," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "for distilling;" and by inserting after the words "shall be erected," the words "or used."

That section fifty-four be amended by striking out the words "the same," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "and owning the same, and owning the building used as a distillery, and the land on which the same is located, and if the building or land is leased, the terms and conditions of the lease;" and by striking out the word "one," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "three."

That section fifty five be amended by inserting after the words "said duties shall be a lien," the words "on the spirit distilled and;" and by adding at the end of the first proviso the words "except when made and used in the manufacture of vinegar or acetic acid, in which case the duties shall be collected on the basis of the actual proof."

That section fifty-six be amended by adding at the end of the section the following words, to wit: "and in all sales of spirits hereafter made, where not otherwise specially agreed, a gallon shall be taken to be a gallon of first proof, according to the standard set forth and declared for the inspection and gauging of spirits throughout the United States."

That section fifty-seven be amended by striking out the words "twenty-five," in the last proviso, and inserting "fifty" in its place; and by adding to the said proviso the following words, "and distilled from apples or peaches, shall pay one dollar and fifty cents per gallon."

That section fifty-nine be amended by striking out the words "so inspected and," and also "forthwith," in the last clause of the first sentence, after the word "warehouse," the words "before the day prescribed by law for making return of the same;" and by striking out the words "one hundred," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "three hundred."

That section sixty-one be amended by striking out after the words "and oil," the words "refined coal oil," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "distilled or refined coal oil, distillate benzoin or benzole;" also by inserting after the word "warehouse," and before the words "and no drawback," the following words, "and the same fees shall be paid for exports as are charged to exporters for like service in the custom house;" and by inserting after the words "redistilled," and before the words "for export," the words "or canned."

That section sixty-eight be amended by inserting after the word "suits" the words "and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year;" and that the proviso to said section be amended by adding after the words "forfeiture shall have" the word "been;" and by striking out the word "the" where it occurs the second time before the word "nature."

That section seventy-four be amended by striking out the word "or" after the word "with," and inserting, in lieu thereof, the word "nor;" and by striking out the words "and hold the same until the license is produced," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "and the assessor of the district, in which the seizure has occurred, may, on ten days' notice, published in any newspaper in the district, or served personally on the peddler, or at his dwelling house, require such peddler to show cause, if any he has, why the horses, wagon, and contents, pack bundle, or basket so seized shall not be forfeited; and, in case no sufficient cause is shown, the assessor may direct a forfeiture, and issue an order to the collector or to any deputy collector of the district for the sale of the property so forfeited; and the half of the same, after payment of the expense of the proceedings, shall be paid to the officer making the seizure, and the other half covered into the treasury for the use of the United States."

That section seventy-nine be amended by inserting in the first paragraph, after the words "claim agents," the words "patent agents;" by striking out, in the same paragraph, the words "carrying on such," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "may carry on;" by striking out, in the same paragraph, the words "may transact such business": Provided, That no license shall hereafter issue until the managers of a lottery now existing shall give bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, that the person receiving such license shall not sell any ticket, or supplementary ticket of such lottery which has not been duly stamped according to law; by inserting in paragraph nine, after the words "other securities," the words "for themselves or others;" by striking from said paragraph the words "and shall make oath or affirmation, according to the form to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, that all their transactions are made for a commission," by striking out the proviso at the end of paragraph "twenty eight;" by adding to paragraph thirty two the following proviso: "Provided, further, That no man between the ages of twenty and forty five who is not enrolled for military duty, or regularly exempted from enrollment or draft for physical disability, shall be entitled to a license as a peddler."

By striking out all of paragraph "forty-nine," and inserting in lieu thereof the following, to wit:

"Forty-nine. Miners shall pay for each and every license the sum of ten dollars. Every person, firm, or company who shall employ others in the business of mining for coal, or for gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, zinc, spelter, or other minerals, not having taken out a license as a manufacturer, and no other, shall be regarded as a miner under this act: Provided, That this shall not apply to any miner whose receipts from his mine shall not exceed annually one thousand dollars."

"Fifty. A license of ten dollars shall be required of every person, firm, or company engaged in the carrying or delivery of money, valuable papers, or any articles for pay, or doing an express business, whose gross receipts therefrom exceed the sum of six hundred dollars per annum. But one license fee of ten dollars shall be required from any one person, firm, or company in respect to all the business to be done by each person, firm, or company on a continuous route, and the payment of such license fee shall cover all business done upon such route by such person, firm or company, anywhere in the United States; and such license fee shall be required only from the principal in such business, and not from any subordinate."

"Fifty one. Substitute brokers shall pay one hundred dollars for each and every license, and in addition thereto ten dollars for each substitute procured by him and actually mustered into the military service of the United States. Every person who shall offer to furnish for pay, fee, or reward, volunteers, representative recruits, or substitutes for men drafted or liable to be drafted, for the military or naval service of the United States, shall be deemed a substitute broker under this act: Provided, however, That persons appointed by any State, county, city, township, or district, or the officers thereof, to procure the enlistment of volunteers or substitutes to fill the quota of such State, county, city, township, or district, for the military service of the United States, under the call of the President of the United States, shall not be considered substitute brokers: And provided, further, That such persons shall not be entitled to receive no compensation except that which is given by such State, county, town, city, or district."

"Fifty two. Insurance brokers shall pay twenty five dollars for each license. Any person who shall negotiate or procure insurance in behalf of another person, or party for which he shall receive any pay, commission, or compensation, shall be regarded as an insurance broker under this act," and the licenses herein provided for shall take effect on the first day of May next.

That section eighty-one be amended by striking therefrom the words "seventy three," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "seventy four;" and by striking out the words "to vintners," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "nor to vintners."

That section eighty three be amended by inserting after the words "within his district, monthly," the words "within ten days from the twentieth day of each month," and by inserting after the words "such duties within" the word "said," and by striking out after the words "ten days," following the words, "after demand in writing delivered to him in person, or left at his house or place of business, or manufactory, or sent by mail."

That section eighty-four be amended by striking out the words "eighty-first," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "eighty second," and by striking out the words "eighty-fourth," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "eighty fifth."

That section eighty-six be amended by striking out the words "deposit at the time of sale," after the words "freight from the place of," in inserting in lieu thereof the word "manufacture," and in the next following paragraph by striking out the word "that," where it first occurs, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "the."

That section eighty-seven be amended by striking out after the words "accurately setting" the word "for," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "forth," and after the words "description of the manufactured article," by striking out the words "the proposed market for the same, whether foreign or domestic," and by inserting after the word "assessor," and preceding the word "assistant," the word "or."

That section ninety be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "That any person, firm, company, or corporation, now or hereafter engaged in the manufacture of tobacco, snuff, or cigars of any description whatsoever, shall be, and hereby is required to make out and deliver to the assistant assessor of the assessment district, a true statement or inventory of the quantity of each of the different kinds of tobacco, snuff flour, snuff, cigars, tinfoil, licorice, and stems held or owned by him or them on the first day of January of each year, or at the time of commencing business under this act, setting forth what portion of said goods was manufactured or produced by him or them, and what was purchased from others, whether chewing, smoking, fine-cut, shorts, pressed, plug, snuff flour, or prepared snuff, or cigars, which statement or inventory shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of such person or persons, and be in manner and form as prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; and every such person, company, or corporation shall keep in a book, in such manner and form as said Commissioner may prescribe, an accurate account of all the articles aforesaid thereafter purchased by him or them, the quantity of tobacco, snuff, snuff-flour, or cigars, of whatever description sold, consumed, or removed for consumption or sale, or removed from the place of manufacture; and he or they shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, furnish to the assistant assessor of the district a true and accurate copy of the entries in said book during the preceding month, which copy shall be verified by oath or affirmation; and in case the duties shall not be paid within five days, after demand therefor, the said collector may, on one day's notice, distrain for the same, with ten per centum additional on the amount thereof, subject to all the provisions of law relating to licenses, returns, assessments, payment of taxes, liens, fines, penalties, and forfeitures, not inconsistent herewith in the case of other manufacturers; and such duty shall be paid by the manufacturer, or the person for whom the goods are manufactured, as the assessor may deem best for the collection of the revenue: Provided, That it shall be the duty of any manufacturer or vender of tin foil or other material used in covering manufactured tobacco, on demand of any officer of internal revenue, to render to such officer a correct statement, verified by oath or affirmation, of the quantity and amount of tin foil or other materials sold or delivered to any person or persons named in such demand; and in case of refusal or neglect to render such statement, or of cause to believe such statement to be incorrect and fraudulent, the assessor of the district may cause an examination of persons, books and papers, to be made in the same manner as provided in the fourteenth section of this act: Provided, further, That manufactured tobacco, snuff or cigars, whether of domestic manufacture or imported, may be transferred, without payment of the duty, to a bonded warehouse established in conformity with law and treasury regulations, under such rules and regulations and upon the execution of such transportation bonds or other security as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, said bonds or other security to be taken by the collector of the district from which such removal is made; and may be transported from such a warehouse to a bonded warehouse used for the storage of merchandise at any port of entry, and may be withdrawn from bonded warehouse for consumption on payment of the duty, or removed for export to a foreign country without payment of duty, in conformity with the provisions of law relating to the removal of distilled spirits, all the rules, regulations, and conditions of which, so far as applicable, shall apply to tobacco, snuff, or cigars in bonded warehouse. And no drawback shall in any case be allowed upon any manufactured tobacco, snuff, or cigars, upon which any excise duty has been paid, either before or after it has been placed in bonded warehouse."

EXTRACTS FROM MRS M. G. BROWN'S
PHRENOLOGICAL CHART,
BY FOWLER & WELLS, SEPT. 1, 1863.

You have a strong constitution, large brain and vitality enough to sustain it. You are organized for health and long life, having descended from a substantial, healty, vigorous and long-lived stock; in many respects you have the organization of your father, your intellect especially. There is not more than one person in ten thousand of either sex so strongly inclined to reason logically. You are willing to stand by logical facts and to follow out the plan or purpose to its legitimate conclusion, judging of its merits or demerits accordingly.

You appreciate Philosophy, and such persons as have a philosophical cast of mind.

You relish wit, and readily perceive the ridiculous; and if you cannot carry the argument by direct logic, you use the "Reductio Absurdum," and show the unsoundness of the opposite proposition by disclosing its weakness.

You are capable of making great discoveries; you have the power of invention. You could not follow in the footsteps of others, although with your large imitation you are capable of adapting yourself to the forms and usages of society. You are not inclined to adopt other people's thoughts.

You have large ideality and constructiveness, which gives imagination and originality, you are never better satisfied than when poring over some new problem, or following out some faint hint into its legitimate and logical results. You are fond of the beautiful and the new, and are inclined to make combinations of words, ideas, and things and not easily puzzled with complications. You have a faculty for unraveling causes. Your Spirituality is large which elevates your mind into the unseen and unknown, giving faith in the future and the belief that the world is not half finished nor the discoveries all made. You are inclined to look forward and upward, not a conservative, content with the venerable past, and wishing to keep the old edifice of affairs in repair. You do not harmonize with others in religious sympathy and worship.

You promise yourself only so much happiness or success as you really work out; for the rest, you trust to Providence.

Your love of approbation is so large that you wish the good will and favorable opinion of everybody; you want all to give you a hearty and generous reception.

You cannot bear a frown, a smile is sunshine to your soul, while a frown is, to you a blight, a storm, and a sorrow.

You have strong social feelings—are capable of loving as a friend, wife, and mother; and, and if properly mated, socially, would feel at home in the domestic circle.

In character and disposition you are preeminently womanly. In your intellect and tendency to reason and plan, you are decidedly masculine—hence among intellectual men, you wish you were a man, when your life falls back into the domestic channel you are contented as a woman; but have ever felt a desire for more intellectual elbow room.

You have a good memory of facts and principles, but the strength of your intellect lies in the reasoning department; and your real power comes from Causality, Ideality, Constructiveness. Metaphysical power, Imitation, and Mirthfulness.

In giving the above extracts from my Phrenological Chart, I do so, having a two fold object in view.

First Because I do not wish to be classed with Quacks or Humbugs, who have experimented on the suffering masses till the blood of these slain by Quackery, pouring medicines down the throat and its ruined, would float all the navies in the world.

Secondly, I wish to appear to the world in my true colors, for, if rightly understood, I may be enabled, through my Metaphysical Discovery, to save thousands of valuable lives from an untimely grave, and prevent disease from being left as an inheritance to unborn generations.

There are many who do not believe in Phrenology because they are not abstruse thinkers—Phrenology is begotten, born and sustained by immutable laws.

REMARKABLE CURE OF SCROFULOUS SORE HANDS, DISCHARGE FROM THE EARS, &c.

December 23, 1864.

I, Mrs. Hannah M. Field, of No. 10 Harvard street, Boston, have suffered from scrofulous sore hands for several years, also discharge from the ears, tried the most eminent physicians, and had forty different medicines applied in one year.

My constitution began to sink under the weight of medicine and disease, and my head became so light that I feared to walk the streets lest I should fall. Believing there was no cure for me I sat down in despair. While in this state a friend, who had been cured by the Metaphysical Discovery, urged me to apply to Mrs. M. G. Brown. But all I was so prejudiced against all medicines that in going to her office, I would take no money, lest I should be induced to buy it. After conversing with Mrs. M. G. Brown, being favorably impressed, on returning home I sent for the Metaphysical Discovery, which I faithfully used, and the result is that my hands are again restored to me, and I can use them as formerly; my ears have ceased to discharge, and my entire constitution is renewed. I sleep and eat well, and am getting fleshy and heavy. My joy and gratitude are great. I cannot speak too highly of the Metaphysical Discovery; I am sending it this week to a dear friend in California, who spent $500 in a few weeks seeking relief from disease, but found none. I have now learned the folly of pouring medicine down the throat, and am resolved to take no more drugs into my system through the mouth.

CATARRH SCROFULA.

I, Mrs. William Allery, of 75 Central Avenue, Chelsea, Mass., do certify that I have been a great sufferer all my life from Catarrh and Scrofula of the worst kind. At the age of two years, the disease began to assume a violent form. All my life it has kept me in bondage. I have had hundreds of ulcerated sore throats. I would have seven in a winter. I had great pain and dizziness in my head, with many other ailments. Last winter the Scrofula broke out under my chin, and run to such an extent that I thought my life would run out, as my doctor could cure me. One told me it would take three years to stop the running. I cannot tell the pain and suffering endured in body and mind. Most providentially I was advised to go and see Mrs. M. G. Brown. I did so. In the beginning of May last I obtained her Metaphysical Discovery, and used it faithfully. The happy and glorious result was, that I am delivered from all diseases. My Catarrh is gone, my dizziness and headache are gone. I feel as free from Scrofula and its effects as any being in the world. In two weeks after I began to use the medicine the running sore under my chin had ceased, in less than a month I found myself a cured woman. It is now nearly six months since, and I have had no return of the diseases.

My throat, which always troubled me with ulceration, is entirely cured. Every exposure used to give me cold, now I do not take cold at all. I feel stronger and better than at any period of my life. I had wind on my stomach, that is all gone. I can feel the Discovery searching through my system. My circulation always was bad, now it is good. I am getting much heavier and stronger. I am sixty five years old. I want all the world to know of my great deliverance from Catarrh and Scrofula, and also from the grave, where I expected soon to go.

DR. BRADSHAW'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL,

For General Debility, Loss of Muscular Energy, Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Weakness, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all other diseases arising from excess and imprudences in life, and removing all improper discharges from the Bladder, Kidneys or other organs, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing, giving health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED.

It cures Nervous and Debilitated Sufferers, and removes all the Symptoms, among which will be found Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruption of the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, frequently Black Spots flying before the Eyes, with temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight; want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude, and nothing they more dread for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another. Effects upon both mind and body can be rectified, and the nervous system healthfully invigorated, where the qualifications of manhood have been impaired.

Price $3 per bottle; two bottles for $5; four bottles for $10; six bottles $12; ten bottles $20; twelve bottles $24.

BALTIMORE, June 29, 1863.

This is to certify that I was afflicted with a violent pain in the breast and right arm which I suppose proceeded from the impure state of my blood. I was recommended to take Hance's Sarsaparilla or Blood Pills, and after taking one box the pain was entirely removed from my breast and arm. I found them extremely gentle in their operation, and would recommend them to every person in want of a mild purgative.

PHARNUM'S COUGH CANDY!

"HE THAT HATH AN EAR TO HEAR, LET HIM HEAR."

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13, 1856.

The duties of my business have exposed me to coughs, colds and asthma and pulmonary affections. I have been deprived of the power of attending to the duties of my profession, and should have been, had it not been for the benign effects of your MEDICATED CANDY. I tried it but a few hours before I began to reap the advantages of its effects.

MY COUGH AND HOARSENESS LEFT ME—MY LUNGS ARE HEALED.

And my appetite greatly improved. I therefore have no hesitation in adding my testimony to that of the many who have experienced the benefits of your valuable Cough Candy. WILLIAM MYERS.

DR. CHALMER'S
SANATIVE TINCTURE,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD AND CURING NERVOUS DISEASES.
Price $1 per bottle.

When the blood is impure, and its circulation thereby becomes dull and sluggish, this TINCTURE, by its purifying properties, will impart a more energetic and natural action, increasing thereby the power of the secretive and distributive organs. It relieves, with wonderful rapidity, every disorder incident to the digestive apparatus; restores the appetite; renews the strength; hardens the muscles; braces the nerves; gives elasticity to the spirit; recruits the mental energies, banishes despondency; imparts to the attenuated frame a more robust appearance; allays irritation; calms the disturbed imagination, builds up the shattered constitution, and may be taken without fear by the young or old, the robust or feeble, with equal advantage. The lassitude resulting from late hours, or too close application to labor of any kind, is quickly removed by its action, and ladies engaged in sedentary occupations, and subject to its inconveniencies therefrom, will find it a safe and healthy stimulant.
