Armstrong Scores 54-35 Victory Over Dunbar High

Jayvees Down Midget Varsity, 35-17; Carver Takes 39-28 Win From Phelps; Poets in Slump

Scoring 25 points James (Greeky) Watson led Coach Charles Baltimore's Armstrong High School cagers of Washington, to a decisive 54-35 triumph over the off and on Dunbar Poets, last Wednesday afternoon on the losers' court.

The Poets failed to show the prowess that they did last week when they conquered Carver.

In the first half the contest stayed close, although elusive Greeky Watson lashed the chords for 13 points to give the Generals a 24-20 margin with Jay Peterson, Eugene Lawrence, Alonzo Liggins and Green chipping in on the hooping.

Tally for the Poets

The East Baltimorean were helped by the effective tallying of Joseph (Smiley) Manning, Alvin (Red-daddy) Coleman, Nathaniel (Sheets) Ponder, and William (Legs) Langley. Although both teams employed an air-tight zone, the Washingtonians outsmarted Dunbar on the fast break.

Going into the third stanza, Coach Baltimore's cagers' leaky-rocketed because Armstrong was allowed ample time to display its fine play-making prowess that led to bewilder Dunbar court men. At the end of the third session Armstrong was winging by a 38-26 count.

Final Frame

During the final frame Watson, Liggins, Murdock and Johnson fatten the winners' kind, while Coleman and Wilbur Trusty caged the losers' lone 9 points of the period.

The tall, capey Generals were at their best against the Poets, who are in a slump. Coach Sugar Cain's brilliant point-getter, Alvin Coleman, hit for 12 points to loom as the runner-up to Big Chief Watson.

In the preliminary tussle the classy Armstrong jayvees had little or no trouble in defeating a spirited Dunbar midget varsity, 35-17.

On Wednesday night the Carver Vocational hoopsters journeyed to Washington and scored an "easy" 39-28 victory over Phelps. The Trainers stayed in the van throughout the game with Donald (Strings) Quarles, Jerome (Ronie) Burton, and Willie (Flat-top) Levy at the scoring helm.

The victory placed the Carver-ites on top in the S.A.H.S.C. cage race with a record of five wins against one setback.

Although Carver is setting a blistering pace in conference competition, the Dunbar Poets are leading in the city series with two victories and no defeats.

Girls' Track Team Invited to NYC

Ledroit Park Unit to Madison Garden

WASHINGTON

The Ledroit Park Falcons girls track team, following their initial showing at the Philadelphia Inquirer and Knights of Columbus track meets, has been invited to compete in the Madison Square Garden track and field games, Mar. 12, Coach J. O. Williams disclosed, Wednesday.

The relay team, participating for the first time against crack teams, captured fourth place behind Tuskegee Institute in the 4-lap relay, won in 1:13 by the Philadelphia Turners at the Inquirer meet.

Received 24-Foot Handicap

In the Knights of Columbus test, the team, came in fourth behind the P.A.L. "C" quartet in the 440-yard handicap relay. The Falcons received a 24-foot handicap in this event as compared to 35-, 37- and 40-foot handicaps advanced to other competing teams.

Mable Thornes and Mercedes Morris, running with a 4-yard handicap, finished third and fourth, respectively, in the 60-yard handicap dash finals won by Dorothy Middleton of P.A.L. in 7.5 seconds.

Miss Thornes, however, captured her heat and in the semi-finals in 7.5 seconds, identically the time set by the winner in the finals.

Others making the trip included June Morris, Barbara LaMont, Barbara Hood, Edna Sims and Annie Baker.
