College Women's Coffee Hour Marks National Founders' Day

Assorted sandwiches, coffee and punch were dispensed from the beautifully decorated table presided over by the Baltimore Club of the National Association of College Women at the twenty-sixth annual observance of their Founders' Day, Saturday.

The "Coffee Hour" formed a lovely program, on which Dr. Gladys Bradley Jones of the Morgan State College faculty had discussed the political need and possibilities of women's votes in Maryland; John Childs, pianist, had thrilled the group; and Mrs. Gwyndola Howe, soprano, accompanied by Miss Elaine Brown, had added to the enjoyableness of the occasion.

Mrs. Lawrence Presides

Dr. Jones was presented by Mrs. Flossie Dedmond, while Mrs. Thelma Lawrence, president, presided. Mrs. Lawrence was smartly gowned in a print with a fetching flower hat. She had been introduced by Mrs. Letitia Ashe, chairman for the affair, who wore a gown with candy-striped taffeta skirt and white top, her gloves and accessories matching the latter.

Mrs. Alice Taylor brought greetings from the national office. Other members of the planning committee included Mesdames Mary B. Thomas, Flossie Dedmond; Miss Taylor and Miss Mattie White.

Attending were:

Misses Edna Brown, Mattie White, Inez Jones, Maurell Foster, Cleota Minor, Evelyn Fax, Betty Williams;

Mesdames Katie Brown, Mary Thomas, Fannie Evelyn, Mae Thompson, Carrie Hill, Gladys Derry, Ethel Payne, Genevieve Harris, H. F. Hughes, Alice Wilson,

Mesdames Marion Webb, Mary Griffin, Marian Crixton, Ruth Brown, Mattie White, Vivian Cooke, Corinne Johnson, Inez Jones,

Mesdames Gladys Taylor, Goldie Green, Josephine Smith, Annie Harcum, Woodley Lawrence, Flossie Dedmond, Ruby Grooms, Ethel Day, Viila Jackson, Mesdames Viola Wright, Maude Williams, Ida Berry, Marian Johnson, Virgie Waters, Elizabeth Cotton, Emma Payne, Ruth Rosedom.

Mesdames Aaron Travers, Elizabeth Henderson, Eunice Brooks, Jeanette Moore, Noel Wansel, Olda Parker, Dora Hutchinson;

Messrs. and Mesdames Woodley Lawrence, Stanley Reid, Douglass Johnson.

GAY RECEPTION PARTY—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Brown Jr., center, are shown with other guests at the wedding reception at the Baltimore Cricket Club, 704 N. Gilmor St. The bride is the former Miss Mary Washington. The couple will live in Washington. Shown with them are Mrs. Pearl Smith, matron of honor, and Clinton Washington, brother of the bride.

Clubs

BIRTHDAY UNIT—the club, a unit of the Elks, met with Dr. M. Hurley of 1602 N. Stricker St. recently. A session on Sunday will be held at the home of Dr. Stella Hall, 602 Bennet Place. Dr. Tressa Wardfield is president.

STATESMEN — met with Leno Grant of 3011 Southland Avenue. Cherry Hill, and made plans for a cocktail party.

Tennyson Cartiers is president of the club; and other officers are:

Leno Grant, vice president; Pedro Dix, secretary; Edgar Mathews, treasurer; Sam Tillie, business manager; and Joseph McKenny, chaplain. Charles Carter is editor.

LES BONNES FILLES met last week with Mrs. Maggie McNeil. Prizes at cards went to Mrs. Martha Mason, first; Mrs. Nettie Baskerville, second; and Mrs. Della Gross, third. Mrs. Ruby Gross, president, who had been ill for three weeks, was able to attend the meeting.

Morristown Couple In Baltimore for Wedding

with Lula Jones Garrett

Clara E. Watson and Carter Pinkman, both of Morristown, Pa., were married by the Rev. Fredrick Douglass, here Saturday.

The bride wore a smart ensemble of winter white wool with matching hat and cinnamon accessories and a corsage of orchids. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Sydnor of Montclair, N.J., the latter wearing pink wool.

Following the ceremony the cousin of the bride, Edith Daley, entertained for the wedding party and a few guests, including Gladys Britt.

Mrs. Pinkman is a graduate of the Provident School of Nursing of this city and is now on the staff of Lyons Veterans Hospital in Lyons, Pa.

SICK BRIGADE

Jessie Fitzgerald came down from New York last week to visit for a spell with her mother, Mrs. William Fitzgerald, who was slightly ill. Vivian Alleyne has been tucked in since Saturday. So has Elizabeth Marshall who let a case of la grippe floor her.

BALTIMOREAN'S BRIDE—Mrs. Benjamin P. Claiborne, whose marriage to the Baltimore photographer on January 26 has been announced by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conrad of Annapolis, Md. She is the former Dorothy Charlot of New Orleans, La.

Nellie Bragg Sorrell has been confined to her home for the past three weeks. And for our (AFRO) Ivy Boone, stricken Sunday, is showing a surprising comeback at Johns Hopkins Hospital, where she will be for several weeks yet, however. And Dora Trotter who has been in Provident Hospital for some days has only memories of her operations, now. Mrs. Bartow Morman, however, is still hospitalized. Mrs. Sallie Logan, who slipped and broke an ankle bone, is out of the hospital but will be limping for weeks to come. Also out of bed are Mesdames Annie Mosely, Catherine Murphy, Edith Scott and Mildred Holland, all of whom were confined last week. Allegra Taylor is recuperating.

CLUB DOINGS

Don't pity us poor natives, because when all else palls hereabouts we still have some three hundred clubs to jounce about in.

On Saturday the Fotlinas were guests of Mrs. Violet Nixon, who garnered a gang of guests including Mesdames Anna McMechen, Cornelia Waters, Mascelia Smith, Cora Holly and Mollie Taliaferro; to vie with members Sarah Diggs, Noel Wansel, Hattie Tyler, Ellen Brooks, Ruth Tucker and Claudia De Mann at pinochle. Luncheon preceded, and when the cards were cleared away Mesdames McMechen, Waters, Diggs and Wansel were richer by prizes.

The Supper Club was hosted by Mrs. George Murphy on Tuesday, with Mesdames Mary Hawkins, Nettie Brown, Bertha Hatchett, Florence Carter, Vashti Murphy and Beatrice Hawkins; and Miss Frances Murphy in for the session.

Mrs. Pauline McGuinn held forth for the BOYS on Saturday afternoon, with club prizes going to Marion Webb and Flossie Wright, and Mesdames Pauline Wharton and Edna Brown, in the bridge section, while Mesdames Lavinia Watson and Perk Hughes took the pinochle gifts.

Other guests included Ruth Johnson, Daisy Jones, Ruth Lighston, Ivy Boone, Mae Matthews and Beth Johnson.

Then there was the meeting of the Philomathians, with Dr. Marguerite Just Wormley of Howard University faculty to speak at the session hosted by Mrs. Ruth Burgess. Mesdames Anne Smith, Edna Jeohnson, Gladys Derry, Melissa Purdue, Gaynell Spaulding, Patty Page, Lois Hall and Marian Webb joined the members.

The Northwest Clinic of the Planned Parenthood Association holding forth at a dinner session for sixty guests.

The Auxiliary to the Monumental City Medical Society gathering at the home of Mrs. Waylandi Jones, to be hosted by her, Mesdames Carson Johnson, Albert LaForest, C. Dudley Lee, Ernest Jones, Louis Johnson and C. M. Lawrence.

Mrs. Vivian Clark, of the National Urban League office was speaker, and following garnered $25 for league work. Mrs. Verna Welcome presided and Mrs. John Gunn was added to the membership.

And it was a pretty Valentine party which drew the Hobbyists to the hearthside of Martha Thompson, Saturday. Eugenia Young and Sally Fletcher were guests. And members included Dorothy Gibson, Charlotte McNeal, Thelma Shipley, Anna Punkett, Mary Richardson and Loretta Nottingham.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMechen entertained the 31-year-old Nacirema Club on Tuesday. (The group was the Swastikas until we phlfted with the Germans).

About were Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Johnston, James Hall; Mesdames Myrtle Fax, Frances Hemsley, Jennie White, Mabel Braxton, Elmer Henderson; Dr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Hughes, Dr. and Mrs. John Coasey and Dr. and Mrs. Miles Connor and Jesse Nicholas.

The group still plays whist.

THAT FAMOUS PASTIME

Or when we get tired of shuffling cards we can twiddle our thumbs and twaddle our tongues—oh, gossip perfectly legitimate and some not so legitimate.

As, for instance the swerping up to Westminster on January 20 of Morgan College's football star, Johon Burdnell and Lucille A. Fisher for a marriage permit.

Or the swerping back to town of one of the better knowns, unexpectedly, to gather evidence which might keep her from using the evidence already gathered on him. Whew!;

Or the selecting of Dr. D. O. W. Holmes, Dr. Ralph Young and the Rev. Hiram Smith to share the honors when the Baltimore Club put Howard holds its Charter Day dinner.

Or the speculating as to whether Edna Over Gray, Josie Smith or Bertha Anderson will win the vice
