Brewer Held!

READING, Pa. — Joe Brewer, Philadelphia welterweight, was held to a draw by Patsy Gall, while in the slashing eight-round windup of a boxing show here Friday night.

Trojans by Shade

PETERSBURG, Va. — Virginia State College scored a photo-finish victory over Bluefield in a CIAA basketball game here Wednesday night, winning by a 57-55 margin.

Carver Hoopsters Rout Phelps Tradesmen, 62-32

Quarles, Burton, Levy Score 56 Points; Midget Varsity Defeats Jacobeans, 22-16

Those consistent Carver hoopsters stretched their winning streak to eight games by lacing a scrappy Phelps Vocational Tradesmen of Washington, 62-32, Wednesday afternoon on the Douglass court.

Donald (Stringz) Quarles, Jerome (Ronie) Burton, and Willie Levy registered 56 points for Carver.

For the second time this season, the capital city lads found themselves confronted with the oversized task of trying to upset the classy Carverites, who previously had defeated them, 39-26.

It was another one of those "decisive" triumps, which has become a trade-mark with Coach Lloyd (Bodie) White's sterling cagers. Paced by Quarles, Burton and Levy, Carver coasted to a lopsided 33-18 lead at halftime.

In the opening half, Coach Brown's Washingtonians played good ball with Alvin Winestock, Franklin and Jackson hitting the hoop with a variety of double-deckers. During the second half the Carvermen caught fire.

Vets to Play

Winestock, Jackson, Noel and Franklin turned in brilliant performances for Phelps. However, Captain Ira Carter and Robert (Hook) Harper's floor-play was one of the major factors in the victory.

Jacobeans Defeat St. James

The Carver junior varsity defeated the St. James Jacobeans, 22-16, in an exciting tussle.

Carroll Gilmore, a member of the Douglass midget varsity and captain of Fulton A.C., bagged 11 points to pace the Douglass jayvees to a 32-24 victory over Dunbar (D.C.). The name was mentioned in the box-score last Tuesday.

On Friday afternoon the Douglass Veterans Institute will tackle the Dunbar (D.C.) Midget quintet on the Douglass basketball court.

The Dunbar Peels are slated to entertain the Parker-Gray Peegee on the East Baltimore court, and Coach Bill (Sugar) Cain's lads are out to avenge a previous 51-37 shellacking suffered on the visitors' home floor.

Carver will journey to Cheltenham for a non-conference encounter.

Jimmy Bell Signed to Fight Bertola

CHICAGO—Fast-punching Jimmy Bell of Washington, D.C., was signed early this week to box Enrico Bertola, crack Italian heavyweight, in a 10-round bout at the Coliseum here Tuesday night.

It will mark the first U.S. fight for the invader, who has gained quite a reputation as a contender for Joe Louis's crown on his European record.

Bell, managed by John Carter, D.C. businessman, is a clever boxer frequently used by Louis as a sparring partner. He is speedy and is credited with whipping Joe Baksi in the latter's heyday.

Sealey, Washington Lead Bears' Score

Victory Enables Morgan to Break Even in Series with Eagle Five

A vastly improved Morgan State College five completely upset the apple-cart by racking up a 63-53 victory over the North Carolina Eagles in a game at Baltimore Garfield Tuesday.

The win over the highly touted Eagles gave Coach Hill's hopefuls a .500 average in conference competition with five victories in ten games played.

In avenging last week's 56-44 loss to North Carolina at Durham, the Bears exhibited better team play than they have shown all season.

Trailing 9-2 in the opening minutes of play, the Morgan quintet, sparked by fireball Ralph Sealey, whittled away industriously at the visitors' lead to go out in front 12-11. Eagles guard, Ed McCormick, rolled, swished the cords with a two-pointer to put the Eagles back in front, 13-12.

A foul toss by McDougal and a field goal by Morgan's center, Big Jim Turpin knotted the count at 14-14. Then, with McCarroll and Harvey spearheading the Carolinian offensive, and Sealey and George Washington pacing Morgan, a see-saw battle ensued. From 16-16, the score teetered and veered to another tie at 22-all.

But with Sealey covering the entire court like a hunter stalking his prey, Coach Hill's proteges opened the throttle to build up a half-time lead of 32-26

Thereafter the Morgan backsters managed to keep out in front all the way, at one junctore-leading by a 60-42 margin before the Eagles slowed by Turpin's dismissal on personal fouls and the appearance of numerous subs.

Morgan's Jayvees did not fare so well, losing a thriller to the Douglass Vets by a count of 51-46.

Owens, of the losers, led his teammates with eight points.

The second game of the double-header, played at the St. Peter Claver's Parish Hall on Friday, was won by the bottom of the Standing at the beginning of the league, the Bombardeers decided to move out by defeating the Big Five 38 to 21. Pointer and Earley of the winners broke even with 10 points each, while Thompson of the losers also sank 10 points.

Lyle's On the Limb

By GEORGE LYLE JR.

PHILADELPHIA — (NNPA) Football gets back into the act this week with the news that the San Francisco 49'ers have signed Bob Mike, 200-pound tackle from UCLA, and End Al Alston who played with the Clippers in the Coast League. These two are in addition to Joe Perry, who was the halfback ace of the Alameda Naval Air Station eleven.

Mike may be recalled by many of you as one of the standout stars on Bill Bell's Tuskegee Air Base eleven.

Mayhap the All-America Conference will pierce a wee bit more attention from the sepia sports lovers. It does look as though they are going overboard in the matter of signing colored players.

With the older National Football League, it appears as though Kenny Washington will continue to be the lone representative. Although many of the brothers of the craft have called attention to outstanding colored collegians, NFL owners have, to date, failed to come up with a contract.

Take the Eagles, for instance. Your writer knows that the management was apprised of the availability of Lenny Ford and Bob Mann of Michigan and Tom Casey of Hampton. Yet when the draft of football stars was held, neither Ford nor Mann was even mentioned.

In the case of Casey there could be some excuse because the scouts, perhaps, fail to cover games played in Sundown centers, but for the failure to give the brilliant Michigan ends a call there can be no excuse.

Remember last fall when I told you to watch a guy named Horace Smith at Michigan State? Well, just remember to watch him, cause after a sparkling football season he has turned to the boards, and Saturday in the Michigan State Relays, held at East Lansing, he cracked the 75-yard hurdle mark, which was set by Fred Johnson last year, as he topped the sticks in :08.4.

Another one of Johnson's marks was lowered by Lorenzo Wright of Wayne who leaped 24 feet 8¾ inches to better the previous world indoor mark by better than two inches. Favorite came within a scant half-foot of breaking the world's outdoor mark set by Louisana's Jack Torrance in a meet in Oslo, Norway, in 1934.
