Murder Charges Placed Against 2

In a surprise move, the State's Attorney's office presented murder charges to the grand jury, Wednesday, against two men in connection with the holdup slaying of a Cathedral St. liquor store proprietor.

The pair, William Burrell, 20, of 1600 Druid Hill Ave., and Raymond Gibson, 20, of 541 Mosher block of Cathedral St., were arrested last week in connection with a series of 18 burglaries.

Suspect Shot on Scene

Gibson was shot by a detective as they fled from the scene of a grocery which had been burglarized.

During the week, detectives questioned the pair, and on Wednesday the murder charge was lodged before the grand jury.

The dead man, Joseph Kroster, was fatally shot on Oct. 11 during a holdup at his store in the 1100 block of Cathedral St.

Corsage From Unknown Rewards Girl Promoter

The corsage came from a total stranger who was impressed by one of her speeches.

Similar enthusiasm about the public relations work Miss Bernice W. Adams is doing in connection with her job of promoting sales of Old Gold cigarettes, has been expressed by many of the organizations she addressed during a two-week stay in Baltimore.

Miss Adams, regional representative for the cigarette company, is one of four young women so employed. Her area of work includes Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Washington and South Jersey.

Selling Preparedness Idea

She is selling not only the cigarette, but the idea of preparedness to meet the new job opportunities being opened in such fields to ambitious young men and women.

So effectively does she put the idea across that a strange young man approached her in a restaurant, told her that he had heard one of her speeches and left with her a card to pick up a gift expressing his appreciation. The card led her to a floral shop and the corsage.

Miss Adams was heard by all of the local insurance companies, Provident Hospital, the Business Girls' Luncheon, Peters Business School, the Master Beauticians' Association, the Barbers' Association, the Frontiers' Club, the Blue Triangle and B. and P. Clubs of the YWCA.

Native of Philadelphia

A native of Philadelphia where she attends Jones Tabernacle AME Church, Miss Adams is a graduate of William Penn High School and Temple University. She taught and directed dramatics at the Hedgerow School of Dramatic Expression and has done social group work and school counseling.

During the war she held a post office job, and was doing promotional work and survey for a Philly newspaper when she obtained her present position four months ago.

Drive to Obtain Recreation Center for Turners Station Enters 2nd Phase

The united campaign for a Turners Station Community Building entered its second phase, Sunday, when the community-wide sponsoring committee met at Lyons Recreation Center and reported the drive was forming "according to plan."

Initiated by the Turners Station Progressive Association, the campaign is planned to raise $10,000, with which to purchase the building that formerly housed the Ernest Lyon Nursery School for a community center for all Turners Station residents.

Actual solicitation will begin Mar. 7, after a kick-off mass meeting on Sunday, Mar. 6. Dr. Dwight Holmes of Morgan State College will be principal speaker.

If residents of the community can raise $10,000, they will be able to purchase the building, which is valued at $35,000.

For Use of All Sections

Turners Station, a settlement of some 15,000 persons, has no community recreation building at present. The sponsoring committee plans to also use the building for a health center and eventually a YMCA.

If obtained, the building will be available to residents of Edgemere, Balmew, Turner Homes, Day Village, Sollers Homes, Lyon Homes, Turner Manor, Hillsbird Homes, North Point and Sparrows Point — all settlements comprising the Turners Station area.

Dr. Arthur L. Johnson is chairman of the campaign and Alexander J. Allen and Yancy L. Whitaker, co-ordinators.

Easter Soloist

Elwood Gary, operatic tenor, now on a coast-to-coast concert tour, will return to Baltimore from California in time to appear as soloist for the City-wide Easter Sunrise Service in the Municipal Stadium on Mar. 28.

Mr. Gary's selections, by popular request, will be the "Lord's Prayer" and "The Lord Is My Light."

Other features of the musical program, of which Mr. G. Frank-lin Onion is in charge, will include choral and congregational singing, and a symphony orchestra directed by R. Iula.

Free Rent Contest Opened to Tenants of Day Village

A contest that will offer tenants up to three months' free rent has been announced by the management of Day Village, a private housing project in Turners Station, through a letter sent to the 500 Village families this week.

Winners will be selected on a point system and 10 prizes will be awarded. Points will be computed by a committee consisting of three residents of the Village and Avon B. Collins, project manager.

A certificate of honorable mention will be given tenants who participate in the program, according to the announcement which was signed by Mr. Collins and Milton L. Ehrlich, president of the developments.

Highest points will be given for prompt payment of rent (20 points), care of homes and grounds (10 points), and to residents of units that show a minimum of maintenance (10 points).

Active interest in project affairs and promotion of good fellowship among tenants are among other things that will gain points for the competing tenants.

The plan is designed to "foster civic pride and neighborliness in the Village," the announcement said.

Youth Rally Urges Robeson to Run

enslavement of millions of people

UMT Step to War

"I don't want to see the youth of this country engage again in some kind of conflict to preserve oil belonging to Sinclair, Harrison, or other rich Wall streeters," he declared, adding:

"To be shot down for them is as much a part of the Fascist pattern as for the youth of Germany, Italy, France, or Spain to be shot down for Hitler, Mussolini, De Gualle, or Franco."

Mr. Robeson stated that there are many ways to settle the differences among nations and that those differences can be worked out by peaceful means.

"Universal Military Training, another step toward war, is not one of them," he concluded.

Outstanding Schools Represented

Young people came here as unofficial representatives of such schools as:

Cornell, Sampson, Skidmore, Harvard, Brooklyn College, Queens College of the City of New York, Hunter, Columbia, New York University, Howard, Wayne, Wisconsin, Chicago University and many others.

At a panel discussion Sunday at Turner's Arena they passed a resolution on "red-baiting" which stated:

"We condemn and repudiate the unscrupulous attacks leveled against us by sources that would intimidate and divide us, injure our cause and provoke popular disapproval by the use of red-baiting.

"Our answer is to double our efforts against UMT and redouble our efforts to keep our country firmly on the road to world friendship and pace through the United Nations."

The group called upon the United Nations to implement a program of world disarmament.

As a constructive alternative to UMT, it was proposed that the three to five billion dollars earmarked for use in the UMT program be diverted to furthering the health, education and social security of the American people.

It was also suggested that a substantial part of the eight to nine billion dollars now being spent each year on other military purposes be diverted to use in the UN, through which they believe a co-operative economic reconstruction plan for Europe may be fully carried out.

Late Monday afternoon, the group voted to continue the resistance to the UMT movement and elected as its national officers the Rev. John Darr, Congregational minister president; Mrs. Elsie Wilcox, executive secretary; and Dr. Walter Lier, treasurer, all white.

The group also authorized setting up a residence committee, to be built administrative and executive, in New York, and a Washington committee to facilitate their program here.

In addition to opposing UMT, the group attacked segregation in the Nation's Capital.

General Opposition UMT

Prior to Mr. Robeson, the group had heard Brig. Gen. H. C. Holdridge, who said, "Rather than look to the false safety of the atom bomb, we turn our thoughts to constructive peace and democracy through the United Nations."

General Holdridge was also entered the race for President of the United States as "the people's representative."

Robert W. Kenny, former attorney general of California, and president of the National Lawyers' Guild, called UMT "Operation Goosestep."

Teen-agers' Bill of Rights

A 15-point Teen-Agers Bill of Rights was drafted, calling for:

Abolition of the Un-American Activities Committee, the passage of laws prohibiting racial and religious discrimination in admission to schools at all levels.

The teaching in public schools minority group history, and the contributions of these groups to American life as part of a program to combat racism;

Passage of FEPC legislation, and Federal and State appropriations supplied to build a network of teen-age non-discriminatory recreation centers in urban and rural communities as a means of combatting delinquency.

Please remember—the design
Is back of every party line
Is to help to make the service go around!

TODAY, many people are still waiting for telephones. And party lines mean more service for more people, sooner.

If you're on a party line, you can help yourself to better telephone service by following these few suggestions:

1. Try to make your calls reasonably brief.
2. Whenever possible, allow an interval between calls so that others can use the line.
3. Try to answer the telephone as promptly as you can.
4. Please don't interrupt when the line is in use, except in case of emergency.
5. Ask the children to follow these good-neighbor suggestions, too.

Remember to use your telephone "sharingly." Party-line service is good service when everyone co-operates.

Mrs. Jackie Robinson Pet at Urban League's Dinner

with Lula Jones Garrett

NEW YORK — The National Urban League and the Urban League of Greater New York turned on top-drawer swank at their dinner meeting, Thursday evening.

There were a flock of grade-A speakers, but Jackie Robinson took the applause, particularly when he turned his speech into a tribute to Mrs. Robinson, giving her credit for his success and adding that she really stood by when the going got tough. His stay at the dinner was brief since he was dashing off by plane that evening for California. Branch Rickey was another winning personality.

The Aubrey Pankeys were there. Lionel Hampton drew his share of the spotlight. Assemblyman and Mrs. William T. Andrews were about. Lester Granger made the speech of the evening, and Forrestal dodged the subject that most of the guests had come to hear, that of the administration's stand on discrimination. The Doug-las Elimans, Dr. Marjorie Carlwright, Mrs. Yorke Allen of Town Hall fame, and Dorothy Parker were among the 550 folk who attended. Some 200 were turned away.

PLAN HOWARD DINNER

The Baltimore chapter of the Howard University Alumni Association has completed plans for the celebration of Charter Day.

A banquet will be given at Morgan Christian Center on March 2 with Dr. Bernard Harris as master of ceremonies and Dr. Dwight O. Holmes of Morgan State College, speaker.

Rivers Chambers orchestra will furnish music.

Roy S. Bond, attorney, is president of the group, and Mrs. Charles Barnum and Mrs. Howard Hughes head the committee in charge of the celebration.

ON THE CUFF

Come Sunday afternoon the Stork Club will pour tea at the YWCA in the name of sweet charity.

Funds from the affair will buy nighties for children of the Henryton Sanatorium. The arrangements are under direction of Elsie Robinson and Jean Turpin.

Tillie Young, gadding about Mexico, is having herself a time. The gangs had such a ball at the Sphinx Club Mardi Gras that the affair has been stretched out to include Saturday night.

Epsilon Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha is initiating for the first time (they tell me) in ten years. Put on pro Thursday eve. were Corrine Procope, Annette Hall, Jo Ruth Hollis, Theresa Weaver, Theresa Kennedy and Beatrice Butler.

SIGMA WIVES MEET

The Sigma Wives met at the home of their president, Mrs. Juanita G. Hill. Plans were discussed whereby the 7-point program of the Maryland League of Womens Clubs could be merged with the present plans of the auxiliary.

To this end chairmen were appointed as follows: Mrs. Frank Saunders, education; Mrs. William Buckner, legislative; Mrs. Alfred Dixon, social; and Mrs. John Colton, music. At the close of the meeting a surprise "hanky" shower was given the vice president, Mrs. Alfred Dixon, in observance of her birthday.

APO WIVES TOGETHER

The APO Wives who got together monthly during the war when husbands were on the war fronts are still carrying on were the guests of Mabel Byrd and Elen Fisher on Saturday past.

Those about to enjoy a menu of Chinese delicacies topped by a variety of Valentine goodies were Mae Dyson, president; Pearl C. Wilson, Georgie Chester, Ann Finkney, Bea Wright, Bea Bueford, Esther Blake and Mattie Gardner.

ZETAS MEET

The Alpha Zeta Chapter, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., met in its monthly session on Monday at the YWCA.

The Parent Consultation Service will collaborate with the P-TA of School No. 136 in a conference to be held on March 18 at Oak Street AME Church for the purpose of developing the theme "Understanding Your Child."

Two delegates, Sorors Catherine Mayo and Lillie Ross were selected to represent Alpha Zeta at the Maryland League of Women's Clubs which meets on Sat. March 20.

Felicitations were extended to Sorors Hilda King and Anna Holt upon their recent marriages. Congratulations were extended to Soror Shorter upon the birth of a son.

Honor was paid to the memory of Soror Irafell Williams whose loyal, lifetime support of Zeta gave impetus to the organization.

Interest was centered upon the annual Finer Womanhood Week celebration, February 22-28.

On Sunday a Worship Service and coffee hour will be held at Morgan Christian Center.

On Wednesday, the annual dinner meeting will be held Sorors Helen Hill of New York and Edith Lyons of Washington will be the respective guest speakers.

On Friday, the Westminster Choir will be presented in recital at Douglass High School.

The closing activity will be the Blue Review sponsored by Gamma Chapter at Morgan.

Hostesses for the evening were Sorors Dorothy Meekins, Jane Harrison, Elizabeth Denby, Mary Thomas and Weida Alston.

Other members present were:

Sorors Beatrice Hall, basileus, Beatrice Mayo, anti-basileus, Margarette Carroll, tamias-grammateus; Alice Hall, tamias; Ethel Thompson, epistoleus;
