Carver Drubs Douglass to Deadlock City Series

Trainers Lead Throughout to Gain 43-32 Decision

Playoff With Dunbar Necessary to Decide City Schoolboy Championship

Carver Vocational High School basketers clinched a tie with Dunbar for the city schoolboy cage title Wednesday afternoon, when they defeated a game Douglass High quint, 43-32, on the Douglass court, before 500 partisans.

The victory over Douglass makes a playoff between Carver and Dunbar necessary to determine the city scholastic champions. The game has been tentatively set for next Friday afternoon.

In continuing their winning ways — currently in the midst of a 10-game streak — the Trainers stayed in the van from start to finish, but the contest wasn't as lopsided as the score might indicate.

Led by their diminutive guard Alexander (Farmer-John) Thomas who collected 12 points to share top scoring honors with Carver's Jerome Burton, the high-spirited Duck cagers were a constant threat. With the fray moving at an unusually fast pace, the Carverites posted a 12-6 lead at the close of the first quarter.

In the next period, Thomas and Burton vied in a spectacular hooping duel, which featured a series of spectacular baskets from within the 15-foot mark. Carver led, 26-18, at the half, but up to this point the Ducks were pretty tired some.

Throughout the third quarter the winners maintained their lead, and were holding a comfortable 34-23 margin going into the final session.

During this period the winners displayed their—class, as Robert Harper, Wilbur Lewis, and Donald Quarles registered two-pointers to widen the gap. The victors were deadly on the foul line, inasmuch as Burton caged eight out of nine charity tosses, while Harper, Quarles and Lewis hit for eight additional one-pointers.

Burton and Thomas were the lads that made things interesting, although both fives played brilliantly.

Coach Lloyd (Sodie) White's hoopsters controlled the backboard and employed an effective passing attack. For the first time this season Donald Quarles, Carver's leading point-getter was held out of the double-figures.

Edwin Curry was also outstanding for the losers.

The Douglass midget varsity saved the Carver Jayvees, 27-12, in the preliminary game.

HARDWOOD CHIPS: Coach Bill (Sugar) Cain's Dunbar Poets dropped a 63-47 verdict to Armstrong last Monday in Washington. Carver will be seeking its 11th win Friday night against Parker-Gray in Alexandria, Va. The Douglass Vet cagers will meet the Morgan jayvees in the preliminary to the Morgan-Shaw game at the Coliseum.

Baltimore Garden Friday night ers' quint at 2:30 p.m. on the No. On Saturday the Douglass Hi Vet- 122 floor. Dunbar is slated to erans entertain the Coppin Teach- play Cheltenham on Friday.

Breaking a Garden Jinx

Herb McKenley, national 400-meter champion and holder of the world record for 440 yards, breaks the tape ahead of the field in the Buermeyer, 500, feature of the New York A. C. meet at Madison Square Garden, Saturday night. In winning the event in 57.3 seconds, the former Illinois star broke a four-year jinx which had kept him from scoring a victory on the Garden boards. Trailing him are John Hammack, Army, and Art Bigley, Navy Olympic squad, both white.

Reserves Take Over to Beat Baltimore's Dunbar, 69-43

WASHINGTON

With its reserves bearing the brunt of a strong offensive, Armstrong trounced Dunbar of Baltimore, 69-43, here Monday, extending its record to eight victories against two setbacks.

Forwards Charles (Fritz) Matthews and Jay Peterson rang up 14 and 17 points, respectively, to lead Coach Charles Ballinger's Orange and Blue cagers.

Armstrong, now runner-up to Carver Vocational for the South Atlantic Championship, will meet the league leaders, in a double-header, Mar. 3, at Banneker gym. Carver's record stands at nine wins and one defeat.

Bertola KO's Jimmy Bell in 5th Heat

CHICAGO. — Enrico Bertola, Italian heavyweight hope making his American debut, knocked out Jimmy Bell, Washington, D.C., 190-pounder, in the fifth round of a scheduled ten here Tuesday night.

Bell, a clever boxer managed by D.C. businessman, John Carter, disported himself well in the early going, though suffering a nine-count knockdown in the second. He reached Bertola consistently with his left and scored several well-timed right chops to the head.

It was Bertola's 27th win in 29 bouts, seven of which were reputedly gained over Gino Buonvino, whom New York is trying to build as a contender for Joe Louis's title.

The Italian lad dropped Bell for the nine count in the second round with a right-handed blast to the chin and floored him with another right hand behind the ear in the fourth. The gong clanged at the count of six enabling Bell to return to his corner to recuperate.

Forty-three seconds after the start of the fifth round Bell fell victim to a heavy right to the head.

AS I SEE IT

By AL SWEENEY

WASHINGTON

If the Pigskin Club is serious in its announced intention to revive the organization to the point where it will be a vital factor in the local sporting scene, it got off on the wrong foot at its recent "banquet."

Whether it was intentional or not, the fellows who earn their daily bread by turning out trivia for the sports pages are up in arms over the way the high officers of the Pigskinners excluded them from their festive board.

Pulled Boner

In inviting executives of the various papers, the sportswriters feel that the organization "pulled rank" at the recent affair. And nothing causes one to get "browned off" faster than when he feels that somebody has gone "over his head" to do something.

Although, editors are nice guys and love to eat, they are so deep in Supreme Court decisions, the latest trends in the atomic era and the political scene, etc., that they for the most part wouldn't know a T-formation from the single wing, when displayed on the gridiron.

Out of Touch Too Long

Many of the editors were formerly sportswriters, but they have been out of touch with sports for such a long time, that they aren't aware that the "flying tackle" has been outlawed.

This writer hears that the club members allotted a certain number of tickets earmarked for the "working" members of the press. But, a certain character, who isn't on speaking terms with certain pressmen offered to buy the freebees up and distribute them himself.

It's a bad situation and this writer hopes that the Pigskin Club members will correct it in the future.

Incidentally, we note that one of the awards went to one man for his part in the promotion of the Capital Classic. There is no doubt that the man played an important role in the success of the 1947 football promotion.

However, I believe that the credit should go to-the man, who originally bankrolled the Capital Classic — G. C. Coley. Remember, that it was Coley who planked down about $10,000 for the original promotion in 1942.

Game, the Important Thing

A game like the Capital Classic carries tremendous prestige for the community and has grown into a national institution.

So, let's not get typical about the whole thing (if you know what I mean), settlement, and clear the field for the 1948 presentation. They tell me that Wilberforce State's Greenwave and Virginia State's Trojans have tentatively accepted invitations to play in this fall's edition of the grid grapple.

It should be a terrific struggle with plenty of football on tap. And that's the only thing that the corner is interested in. A good, solid sports attraction.

Personalities don't count. The sport is the thing. And no man is bigger than that.

Howard High Cagers Out of Losing Rut

WILMINGTON, Del. — The improving Howard High School basketball team captured a pair of intra-city clashes last week.

The Wildcats, who had previously lost six of nine games, nipped Salesianum School, 47-45, and then went on to avenge an early season loss to Brown Vocational, 46-33.

Jesse Brown, Howard forward, was the big gun in both wins with a total of 27 points, 21 of which he netted against Brown.

Bears Face Three Foes in CIAA 'Stretch' Run

Shaw, Union, Delaware to Furnish Opposition

Morgan Cagers Launch Drive Tonight for Berth in CIAA Title Tourney

The Morgan State College Bears, intent on winning a berth in the third annual CIAA basketball tournament, set—for Washington, Mar. 11-13, enter the first stage of their "stretch" bid tonight (Friday).

Coach Marse Hill's charges take on the Shaw University Bears as a dore-runner to crucial contest with Union, Tuesday night, and Delaware State next Friday. All games are slated for 9:30 tonight at the Baltimore Garden.

The Bears are not only looking to the tournament bid in this five of contests, for they have scores to settle with both Union and Delaware State.

The latter handed the locals a severe pasting in January when Morgan journeyed to Dover to get a 70-45 shellacking. And the Panthers took a hard-fought tilt at Richmond by the slim margin of one point, 29-28.

Tonight's tilt with Shaw finds the Bears holding the favorite's role, in view of the easy manner in which the Turtlemen were dispatched on Feb. 5, at Raleigh.

Williams to Box Gavilan Feb. 27

TRENTON, N.J. — World light-weight champion, Ike Williams, was signed here at his home, Saturday, to meet Luis (Kid) Gavilan, of Havana, Cuba, in a non-title bout at Madison Square Garden, N.Y., Feb. 27.

Gavilan, who defeated Vinnie Rossmo at the Garden last Friday night, must make 142 pounds (he weighed 144¼ on Friday) for the smaller ringman. The Keed's managers have posted a $2,500 forfeit to assure he'll make the required figure.

Contracts called for Williams to receive 35 per cent-of the next receipts.

Williams gained his 12th straight victory here last Monday night when he defeated Livio Minelli 144½, in 10 rounds at the Arena. In his score over Rossmo, Gavilan (Spanish for "hawk") showed a tendency to stop in the stretch. That caused Palermo and his partner in Williams's management, Frank Palumbo, to accept the match at a low weight for Gavilan.

Morgan to Pass Up AAU Carnival

Morgan State College will not be represented in the National AAU track and field games in Madison Square Garden, New York, tomorrow (Saturday) night.

Edward P. (Eddie) Hurt, the Bears' athletic director, told the AFRO Thursday that the meet was being passed up because it was felt none of the Morgan runners was in a satisfactory condition for the affair.

The men who were in training for indoor work have been thrown so far behind by weather conditions that we didn't consider it worthwhile to send representation. It would not be fair to the athletes."

Passing of the 1948 meet marks the first time in more than five years that the local college has failed to list at least one entry.

Louis Leaves on Exhibition Tour

NEW YORK — Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, carting close to 225 pounds under a natty dress suit, embarked on the line Queen Mary Thursday for London where he is scheduled to appear in a 20-bout exhibition series.

To be certain that there would be no eating hardships faced by his entourage, the champ personally supervised the storage of 350 pounds of steak in the liner's refrigerator.

The party included six others besides the Brown Bomber. They are his wife, Marva Trotter Barrow, Manager Marshall Miles, Trainer Mannie Seamon, a Chicago friend, Nelson Sykes, his secretary, Leonard Reed, and Miles's chauffeur, Eddie Green.

This tour is not expected to pare any excess weight off the heavyweight champ's carcass. As soon as he returns in April he'll be off to West Baden, Ind., to start right training for his 25th defense.

In the meantime, he'll be doing his best to bring back vaudeville.

Mixed Mat Card Here Tues. Nite

Baltimore wrestling fans will get their first view of colored grapplers on a mixed mat program Tuesday night at the Coliseum.

Frank James, who was unbeaten in several all-colored shows here last year at the Baltimore Garden, will tangle with Don Kindred, of New York, in a one-fall preliminary bout.

Kindred is known to New Yorkers as the Harlem Angel, probably getting the idea for his moniker from the number of wrestling "Angels" who have been in the headlines for some time.

James, following his bouts here will return to Detroit and, working out of that city, wrestled with success throughout the Middle West.

Inter-County Nines To Form '48 League

William Marshall of the Agenda A.C. has proposed the organization of an inter-county baseball league for the coming season and plans for setting it up are under way, according to C. C. Jackson of the Department of Recreation.

The first meeting will be held on Mar. 5, at the Bureau of Recreation, 1139 N. Calvert St. at 8 p.m. The following teams are invited: Catonsville, North Point, Chase, Edgemere, Texas, Pumphrey, Cedar Hills, Mt. Winans, Havre de Grace, Perryville.

Other teams interested may contact either C. C. Jackson, Bureau of Recreation, or call William Marshall, Dundalk 570-J.

Brown, Greene Spark Scholastic Leaders

YORK, Pa. — Lou Brown and Gene Greene are two of the reasons York High School is currently leading the Central Pennsylvania Scholastic Basketball League with nine victories in 10 games.

The duo has played outstanding ball all season, and last week contributed 31 points as York trounced Steelton High, 62-27, the scrappy Brown setting the pace with 16. Steelton's Al Saunders was held to three markers.
