IN OUR CHURCHES

Just returned from the AME Bishops' Council in Dallas, Tex. Bishop George W. Baber will deliver the 11 a.m. sermon Sunday at Allen AME Church, pastorate of the Rev. Thomas C. Freeman.

At 2:30 p.m. the Rev. Rufus Bonds and his spiritual choir will take part in the Women's Day service at Allen.

Mrs. Emma McQueen Hines, a member of Emmanuel C. C. Church, feels so strongly the need of contributing to the organ fund of the church that she will sponsor a recital of the Orchid Music Guild there at 4:30 p.m. Sunday.

Participants Blind

The remarkable thing about this program is that all of the participants and the sponsor are blind.

At night, installition of officers for the Sunday School will be held. James Campbor Jr., is superintendent, Mrs. Louise Chase, secretary; and the Rev. Wilbur H. Waters, pastor.

Reporting that there are 17 million children in America who have no religious training and do not go to church, Grace Presbyterian Church is calling youngsters to attend the Pastor's Class held every Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Sunday School room.

The Dramatic Club of the church was presented in a panel discussion of "The Living Bible," Sunday evening by the Westminster Fellowship. The Rev. John T. Colbert is pastor.

Mason—Remey—of Washington, who recently returned from an extensive Bahai's teaching trip in Switzerland and other European countries, will give an illustrated lecture on Switzerland mountain climbing at 8 p.m. Sunday at the Bahai's Center, 527 N. Charles St.

Florida Minister Speaks

Dr. W. F. Ball of Jacksonville, Fla., a candidate for the AME Bishopric, was the Men's Day speaker at Payne AME Church recently.

The day's program, under the leadership of J. Percy Bolden netted $692.

The junior church and junior ushers will present a musical program at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Edith Conner and Isaac Harmon are presidents of the two groups. The Rev. C. Baker Pope is pastor.

Shiloh Baptist Church recently made its annual visit to the communion service of Morning Star Baptist Church, pastorate of the Rev. George J. Garnett. The sermon was delivered by Shiloh's pastor, the Rev. J. Timothy Bodie.

On March 7, the Shiloh minister and congregation will take part in the eighth anniversary service of the Rev. B. L. Matthews at Union Baptist Church.

Pharmacist Was Buried Monday

Obsequies for Dr. Luther E. McNeill, 63, pharmacist, of 1328 N. Carey St., were held at 12 noon on Monday at Ames Methodist Church, Carey and Baker Sts. Burial followed in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

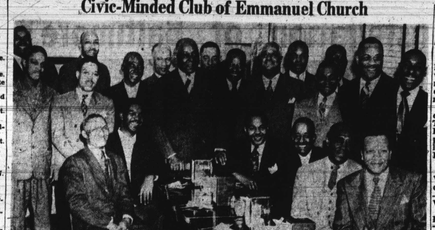
Following a heart attack on Wednesday Dr. McNeill died Thursday at his home. He was well known as a druggist at the Penn-Del Pharmacy where he had worked on the night shift for a number of years.

Graduated From Howard

Born in Southport, N.C., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McNeill, the deceased graduated from the Howard University School of Pharmacy. He once operated his own drug store at Pressman and Carey Sts.

At various times he had worked at most of the local colored drug stores including Weaver's Pharmacy at Druid Hill Ave. and Pressman St. He is survived by: His wife, Mrs. Rosie Murdock McNeill; six sons, Luther G., Joseph, Harry, Neal, Clarence and Paul; four sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Hines of Southport, Mrs. Jursey; Mrs. Beulah Nurse of Sharon Hill, Pa., and Mlle Bertha McNeill, of Washington; two brothers, William and Oliver McNeill, and eight grandchildren.

Civic-Minded Club of Emmanuel Church



The Community Advisory Council of Emmanuel C. C. Church, organized Wednesday with the pastor, the Rev. Wilbur H. Waters, presiding, has dedicated itself to the promotion of equal civic rights and the eradication of the evils that beset the community. Standing, left to right are, George Bowden, Gilbert Jones, Ellsworth J. Coates, publicity chairman; James Matthews, Earl Giles, Arthur Stansbury, chaplain; the Rev. Mr. Waters, Howard J. Muir, welfare chairman; George Queen, sergeant-at-arms; Oscar F. Jackson, vice president; Andrew Troy, James Handy, treasurer; Samuel Adams, Philip Timberlake, entertainment chairman; and Walter Smith, special assistant. Seated are John Beckets, Arthur B. Thompson Jr., John E. Hill Jr., executive secretary; William Dowery, Nathan Plantier and Walter Jones, public relations chairman

District 5 Committees Set Up in '48 Red Cross Fund Drive

District 5 of the Red Cross Fund Drive has enlisted the aid of 350 workers on eight committees to raise the 1948 goal of $7,500, according to William J. W. Allen, chairman.

The first report meeting is slated for March 3 at the Masonic Temple, with the Revs. Arthur J. Payne and Sima Williamson as prep speakers. Mrs Maud L. Williams will preside, and the Faith Baptist Church choir will sing.

Committee chairmen are:

Trade and industry—Alfred White and Mrs. Victorine Adams; dentists—Mrs. C. J. Watts; doctors—Dr. C. M. Lawrence; clubs—Mrs. Vivian E. Cook;

Morgan State College—Charles Key; fraternal groups—Mesdames Lula Richardson and Emma Sleaney; special gifts—Mrs. Vivian Alleyne; Masons—John H. Mitchell.

District 5 is maintaining headquarters at the Masonic Temple, Mulliado and Mosher Sts., through out the drive, which is to end officially on March 23.

Pharmacist Jobs Open With Veterans' Units

The United States Civil Service Commission still is receiving applications for pharmacists at $2,644 to $4,902 a year. Service is with the Veterans' Authority in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and West Virginia. Application blanks may be obtained from most first and second class post offices.

Evangelist to Preach at Gillis Methodist

A sermon by W. I. Hawkins, evangelist, will highlight morning services Sunday at Gillis Methodist Church, pastored by the Rev. Theodore C. Jackson.

At 3 p.m., the annual sermon of the Flower Circle will be presented; and the night service will feature the female Golden Gate Quartet of Philadelphia.

Lawson to Address Civic Group's Blue Ribbon Tea

Belford V. Lawson, national president of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, will be principal speaker at the Eastside Community Committee's 4th annual Ribbon Tea to be held 4 p.m. Sunday in the Dunbar High School auditorium.

A brilliant Washington attorney, Mr. Lawson spoke at last year's annual tea and is being brought back this year by popular demand.

The teas are sponsored by the Women's City-wide Committee for Delinquency Prevention, and have drawn large interracial audiences. More than a thousands persons attended last year's affair despite bitter cold weather.

Dr. Bernard L. Harris, a member of the Board of Parks and Recreation, will introduce Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro at the tea. Mrs. Kelly L. Jackson, president of the Co-operative Women's Civic League, will introduce the main speaker.

Proceeds from the tea are used to send 125 boys to camp Francis W. Wood during the summer.

3 Groups for Music

Music will be furnished by the Interracial Fellowship Choir, Dunbar High School Senior Glee Club and the Holliman's Student Orchestra.

Mrs. Sadie L. Maddox is chairman of the tea; Mrs. Frances McGlotten, assistant; Mrs. S. J. Mack, secretary; Mrs. Martha Baker, treasurer; and Mrs. Birtsal Rose, president of the sponsoring group.

Service to Be Staged for Preachers, Deacons

The fourth annual service for local preachers, evangelists, deacons and deaconesses will be held Sunday at St. Matthews Methodist Church, 23rd St. near Greenmount Ave.

MANY RHEUMATIC PAIN SUFFERERS RELIEVED BY OLD SOUTH'S OWN RELIEF

Two generations of Southern folks have used famous C-2223 when rheumatic pains strike. No better home-help for relief of rheumatic pain has been found when dampness and bad weather make your muscles feel so painful and sore. One teaspoonful of C-2223 in water usually starts to bring grand comfort, and blessed relief from rheumatic-pain "misery." Caution, use only as directed. Get a bottle of C-2223.

• Often you start to feel quick relief after the first spoonful.
