

Frank O. Wilhide and Ruth E. Wilhide, his wife, and C. Ross Wilhide and Blanche Wilhide, his wife vs.

Harry Whitaker Porter, widower, and Harry W. Porter, executor of the Will of Gertrude Mae Porter, deceased

No. 17967 Equity

In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland

To The Honorable Judges of said Court.

The petition and report of sale of Walter E. Sinn and William M. Storm, trustees in the above-entitled case, respectfully show:

1. That your petitioners duly qualified in this case in accordance with the decree passed herein on May 24, 1955, by filing a surety company bond in the penalty of five thousand dollars ($5000.00), and thereupon proceeded to and advertised the property decreed to be sold, and inserted an advertisement giving a description of the property decreed to be sold and of the time, place, manner and terms of sale in the Frederick Post and in the Frederick News, for at least three successive weeks prior to the day of the said sale, as appears from the printer's certificate of said fact which is filed herewith as part hereof and marked "Exhibit Advertisement", which is prayed to be taken and considered as part hereof.

2. That on Saturday, June eighteenth, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, at eleven A. M., your petitioners attended on the premises situated in Walkersville, Maryland, at the time and place mentioned in said advertisement of sale, and did then and there offer for sale at public auction the real estate described and advertised to be sold, being all that parcel of ground containing thirty-eight square perches, more or less, situated on the south side of Frederick Street, near Main Street, in Walkersville, Frederick County, Maryland, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon, and all rights, ways, privileges and easements thereto belonging or appertaining, and being the same real estate which was conveyed unto Gertrude Mae Porter and Octavia V. Wilhide, as joint tenants
