Smart Hair Style for Spring

Taking part in the Master Beautician's Association's popularity contest, Mrs. Florence Bishop of 1011 N. Carey St., models the "Simplicity" coiffure styled with a close curl in the back, bangs and croquignole wave clinging close to head. Winner of the contest will represent the local association at the national convention in Washington in August.

Among the Clubs

LES BONNES FILLES — were guests of Mrs. Elsie Ball, recently. At cards Mrs. Maggie McNeil took first prize, Mrs. Martha Mason, second; and Mrs. Delma Fross, third. Carl Douglass was guest.

BUSINESS WOMEN EXCELS —The club was organized the first of the year at the home of Mrs. Rosa L. Stewart, 714 N. Appleton St.

The last meeting was held at the home of Miss Mary Boozer. Officers of the club are:

In making wedding cakes we have the name
Of being artisans that brought us fame
Our masterpieces are truly arty
And add real grace to the wedding party.

You'll want that coming wedding to be just about as perfect as possible. One of our wedding cakes will help you to achieve that goal. They are the acme of perfection.

Make Them With Our Tested Recipe:
4 cups sifted WASHINGTON'S ALL-PURPOSE flour; ¼ tsp. salt; ¼ cup sugar; ¼ cup lukewarm water; 1 egg; ¼ cup raisins; ¼ cup shortening; ¼ cup sugar; ¼ cup diced citron; ¼ cup crystallized cherries or fruit peels.
Soften yeast in lukewarm water. Scald milk, add shortening, sugar and salt. Cool to lukewarm; add two cups flour and beat well. Add yeast and beaten egg, blend thoroughly; then add the mixed fruit and nutmeg and the remaining flour. Mix, turn onto a floured board and knead until smooth and glossy. Place in a greased bowl, cover and let rise in warm place until doubled in bulk, then punch down and divide into portions for individual rolls. Shape into buns, place on greased shallow pan, allowing some room to spread. Grease, cover and allow to double in bulk. Bake at 375° F. about 25 minutes. Frost if desired, or dust with sugar and cinnamon before baking.
