Enon Pastor Has Narrow Escape in Fla.

A hairing-raising experience was undergone by the Rev. A. J. Payne, pastor of Enon Baptist Church during his recent vacation in Miami, when he brushed elbows with a gunman, while unaware of the fact.

Accepting an invitation to go fishing with a man who "posed" as a minister, the Rev. Mr. Payne spent the day on a lonely bridge and nearby beach with the man.

When darkness came, however, he found out that the man had a gun in his car and had no intention of returning to town that night.

Becoming suspicious of such strange behavior, the Rev. Mr. Payne was finally rescued by a group of motorists who happened along and were kind enough to give him a lift to the highway, where he could get a bus returning to the city.

His friends later advised him that he was lucky to have survived the experience. They described his companion as a hold-up man who probably intended to rob the Rev. Mr. Payne and drown him afterward.

Fire Sweeps Love Temple Building

Firemen were summoned early Wednesday to extinguish a blaze in the three-story building at Madison Ave. and Lanvale St., housing the Love Movement Temple Church.

The blaze, discovered in the first-floor bathroom by a tenant leaving for work, was extinguished with a minimum of damage, police reported.

2 Other Fires Extinguished

A few hours earlier, firemen were called to fight blazes at 1047 Lanvale St., and at 1128 Laurens St.

The first fire caused slight damage. It was confined to a chimney in the home of Charles H. Johnson. In the second fire, however, Mrs. Sallie Robinson, 28, received cuts on the hand when she was showered by slivers of glass.

THE NEW HOME OF FULTON BAPTIST CHURCH INC.

We Are going to Move or March in Our New Church

Sunday, June 20, 1948 at 9:30 A. M.

1624 TO 1630 W. NORTH AVENUE
This is one of the great church buildings of Baltimore City. Fulton has one of the finest set-ups here in the State of Maryland. "Glory to God in the highest."

1623 W. NORTH AVE.
$10,000 Activities House and Community Center. The major portion of our church work will be carried on in this building.

1620 W. NORTH AVE.
The $10,000 Church Parsonage where Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Jackson shall reside in June.

A Brief History of Fulton Baptist Church, Inc.

The Fulton Baptist Church, Inc., was organized in 1904 by the late Rev. Samuel Ward, D.D., who pastored the church successfully for 16 years. Rev. Ward built up a large crowd, and when he passed to his reward, March 20, 1920, he left the church peaceful and with $300.00 in the bank. "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

After a suitable time in mourning the church went in prayer and extended a call to the Rev. M. D. Willis, D. D., of Washington, D.C., September 15, 1921. Rev. Willis labored faithfully with "Fulton" for 5 years and 5 months. The Lord called him to rest February 20, 1926. "Sleep on, dear pastor and friend, we shall meet you on the coronation day."

For the second time in the brief history of "Fulton," she found herself without a spiritual leader. After one year of mourning the church extended a call to the Rev. Mr. Benjamin F. Jackson, associate pastor of the Wayland Baptist Church. Rev. Jackson preached his first sermon on the second Sunday in January, 1913 in the Wayland Baptist Church of which Rev. W. J. Winston, A.M., D.D., was pastor.

REV JACKSON'S SCHOLASTIC AND ECCLESIASTICAL STANDING:

He has an A.B. in sociology from Morgan State College, an A.M. and B.D. from Howard University. He is professor of social Christianity and church history at the Maryland Baptist Center and School of Religion, Baltimore, Maryland.

Rev. Jackson has truly distinguished himself as an expert in church management and methods, an able preacher, a wise and kind pastor, a big-hearted brother that hails from the "East," and a great church financier. He had the good fortune to work in the offices with such world famed men as, the Honorable William Gibbs McAdoo, the Honorable Andrew Mellon, and General Charles Gates Dawes.

The Fulton Baptist Church is one of the great churches of the country and its members and friends deserve a lot of credit for having the good sense and wisdom for supporting and following their great and honored pastor.

The pastor, officers and members invite, solicit and urge Baltimore City to join us in our Grand March from our old church on Sunday, June 20th at 9:30 to 10:00 a.m. and give us $5.00 or more. We are praying for $5,000 on that day. Every church in the city is asked through its pastor to send us a special donation with a delegation of at least three to celebrate with us in the March.

Northwestern Station Police Befriend 'Man's Best Friend'

The turnkey at Northwestern police station, Tuesday night, had a most unusual prison cell occupant.

The visitor was brought in earlier that evening by a neighborhood character who said he had found his temporary ward wandering around as though lost. "He couldn't read, write or talk, so I brought him in to you, Sarge," the character said.

The sergeant didn't know what entries to make on the police docket but pondered over a vagrancy charge. To the turnkey he finally remarked in disgust, "Aw, h——! lock him up and let's go back to the checker game."

Well Taken Care Of

The visitor was led to Cell No. 6 on the male side of the cell block and the heavy iron door locked tight again. The following morning he was fed and given something to drink.

Shortly after 8 a.m., a neighborhood trucker rushed breathlessly into the police station inquiring about Tip-E.

A few questions were asked and answered before the trucker left with Tip E.

Oh yes, Tip E., correctly spelled Tippy, is a 45-pound, 5-year-old, black water spaniel, which had strayed from his home at 1031 Myrtle Ave.

Urban League Meets April 1 Minus Dinner

The Baltimore Urban League's annual meeting set for 8 p.m. April 1, at the General Vocational School, North Ave. and Broadway will not include a dinner this year.

Speakers will be Charles S. Garland, president of the Baltimore Association of Commerce and Lester B. Granger, executive secretary of the National Urban League.

Two Held for Role in Feb. Slaying

Climax to Bitter Feud at Liquor Party

Brought handcuffed together from the city jail where they were cellmates, two inmates were arraigned in Northwestern police court, Tuesday, in connection with a recent slaying.

They were checked as Caesar Worthington, 47, no home address, and John H. Butler, 35, of 1428 Parrish St. The dead man was Clayton McNutt, 36, of 1438 Parrish St.

Climax to Drinking

According to Sgt. Leslie Wilson, the slaying climaxed a drinking party at 1438 Parrish St. on Feb. 28 when McNutt was stabbed in the abdomen.

The injured man was taken to Provident Hospital, treated and released. Two days later as returned to the hospital and died five minutes after being admitted.

Held Without Bail

At a police court hearing immediately following the cutting, Worthington was given 60 days on the assault charge and 30 days for disturbing the peace. Butler was jailed for disturbing the peace.

When Wednesday dawned, Worthington was charged with the death and held without bail for grand jury action. Butler was held in $5000 bail as a State's witness to the fatal fracas.

C. W. Smale Added to Police Force

Carle W. Smale, 23, of 320 N. Stricker St., was one of the six patrolmen appointed to the police force, Monday.

A native of Boston, Smale, has made his home here for the past 10 years and served in the Army Air Force during the war. His appointment brings the number of colored members in the department up to 26 including three policewomen.

The latest policewoman to be named was Mrs. Cornelia L. Smith of 1715 Fulton Ave., who began her training on Monday under veteran policewoman, Mrs. Violet H. Whyte.

Appointed a month ago, Mrs. Smith remained with the Department of Public Welfare until this week. She is a native of Baltimore and attended Morgan State College and Howard University.

5 Marylanders to Be Cited by Urban League Magazine

Five Marylanders will be presented certificates of recognition by Opportunity Magazine, official organ of the National Urban League, at the 23rd annual meeting of the Baltimore chapter of the league on Thursday evening.

Lester B. Granger, league executive secretary, and Charles S. Garland, president of the Baltimore Association of Commerce, are listed as speakers for the meeting, which will begin at 8 p.m., at General Vocational School, North Ave. and Broadway.

LESTER B. GRANGER

All Honorees Women

Marylanders who will be awarded certificates are:

Mrs. Elaine Davis, cited for high scholastic standing at the University of Maryland Law School; Mrs. Juanita Mitchell, elected with Mrs. Davis to the School of Law's Review Board;

Miss Naomi Henry, specialist in psychiatric nursing and one of the first colored nurses admitted to classes at Rockland State Hospital in Orangeburg, N.Y.;

Miss Jacqueline Shaw, fifth place winner in the central juridictional speaking contest of the Methodist Church, held at Kankakee Shores, Ill.; and Miss Althea Proctor of Bowie, Md., first prize winner for the essay submitted by a college student in a contest sponsored by the National Tuberculosis Association.

Annual Report to Be Read

Alexander J. Allen, executive secretary of the Baltimore Urban League, will give the annual report of the league's activities.

The local league will be featured on a broadcast over station WBAL on Wednesday, 1:45 p.m., when the subject, "Toward a Free Society," will be discussed.

Boy, 17, Holdup Suspect, Fined

Nabbed for Pulling Pole; Drivers Robbed

With the arrest Wednesday evening of a teen-age youngster by two rookie patrolmen, officers of Northwestern district believe they nipped in the bud a series of holdups in the vicinity of Carey St. and Westwood Ave.

Police said the crime wave was begun the night before when the operator of a No. 21 trackless trolley was slugged and robbed at the same corner, the western terminus of the line.

BTC Complains

Acting on complaints filed by representatives of the transit company, Captain William C. Feehley stationed Officers Oliver R. Walker and Charles Smith, recently appointed patrolmen, to the area in plainclothes.

Trolley operators complained that when they reached the terminus, someone would pull the pole from the overhead power line and, upon leaving the vehicle to reset the pole, they would be attacked, beaten and robbed.

Youth Caught

It was while on an assignment that the rookie officers arrested Arnold Pettigrew, 17, of 832 N. Carey St., shortly after 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Apprehended after a short chase, the youth was charged with disorderly conduct "by pulling a trolley pole off," and with carrying a deadly weapon.

Officer Smith produced a small dirk knife which he found on the youth when the latter was searched.

Blames Associates

Pettigrew said the pole had been off his power wire by some associates who eluded police. Magistrate Thomas L. Fitzpatrick fined the suspect $10 and costs on the two charges.

Officers Smith and Walker were appointed on March 11. Officer Smith was making his first arrest and Walker his second.

Burglar Suspect, 22, Arrested in Beauty Shop Shampoo Seat

"He was stretched out in a shampoo chair with an apron thrown across his chest as though waiting to be served," testified a police officer in relating how he trapped a suspected burglar in a beauty shop, Sunday.

The suspect, Charles Gross, 22, of 540 Mission Ct., was charged with breaking and entering with intent to steal, and was held in $1000 bail for the grand jury on that count.

When it was learned that Gross was wanted on an assault charge, he was held under an additional $500 bail.

Arrested in Shop

Gross was arrested in a basement beauty shop operated by Mrs. Mary Reynolds at 1721 W. North Ave., when the beautician found him in the patrons' chair.

She said she had seen him loitering about the neighborhood that afternoon and happened to go into the shop to use a telephone when she saw the suspect, who appeared to be asleep. A rear door had been forced.

Wife Lodges Charge

The suspect's wife, Mrs. Corrine Gross, of 1423 Bruce St., lodged the assault charge testifying that he cut her during a fracas in her home last November.

Gross was arrested by Magistrate Thomas L. Fitzpatrick against making any statement at the police court hearing.

Jurist Lets Kilroy Off With Warning

Kilroy showed up in Northwestern police court, Thursday, but was released after a hearing by Magistrate Thomas L. Fitzpatrick.

Kilroy, whose first name is John, is a 41-year-old white printer from Washington, who was arrested for provoking a fight with John Holbrook, operator of a shoe shine concession in the Greyhound Bus Terminal.

Kilroy Set Free

Holbrook testified that Kilroy became aggressive and struck him several times when he asked the printer not to loiter in the men's rest room.

The magistrate leaned in favor the white suspect commenting that in view of the fact there were no witnesses, he had to give the benefit of the doubt, The printer was warned against returning to the rest room.

Man, 50, Fined $50 on 2 Charges

Arrested on charges of using "beautiful profanity" and possessing a paring knife, William Hatchett, 50, of 300 W. 28th St., Thursday, was fined $50 and costs in Northwestern police court.

Officer John Urich said the arrest was made after he had been attracted to where Hatchett stood on lower Pennsylvania Ave. using the "most beautiful profanity I ever heard." A search revealed the paring knife.

Passing "Friendly" Chilchat

Hatchett said he was merely yelling to a close friend and that the knife wasn't sharp enough to "cut hot butter."

In another trial, Jake Wilson, 26, of 931 Franklin St., was fined $25 and costs for carrying a razor to a dance, where the weapon was observed by a special officer.

Atlanta Specialist Tells of Business Needs Here

Dr. Joseph A. Pierce, head of the department of mathematics and statistics at Atlanta University, addressed members of the Maryland Association for the Promotion of Business at its regular monthly meeting, Wednesday, at Masonic Temple.

The address was based on a study made by Dr. Pierce of businesses conducted by colored people and business education for the General Education Board.

Many Opportunities Here

He pointed out that there are ample opportunities for the expansion of business operated by members of the race, and displayed graphs indicating that such businesses here are not getting the patronage they deserve.

The speaker told of the urgent need for better associations so that more capital can be brought together, and for better planning in the location of business places.

The study made by Dr. Pierce covered Baltimore and 11 other cities with large populations. J. Steadman Greig, president of the Maryland Association, and Dr. Willard W. Allen, insurance executive, presided at the meeting.

New Patrolmen Make 23 Arrests

During the first three weeks of operation, the five officers assigned to the Pennsylvania Ave. straight-away detail accounted for 23 arrests.

As a result of these arrests on charges ranging from common street corner brawls to carrying deadly weapons, approximately $300 in cash fines were assessed and jail terms totaling 365 days were imposed.

Followed Complaints

Officers Gardner Elzey, David L. Hubbard, Avon Cooper, Elwood Brown and John A. Gardner were given the detail after individuals complained to Police Commissioner Hamilton R. Atkinson of never seeing a colored policeman on "The Avenue."

During this same period, nine other colored officers, including Detective Sergeant J. Hiram Butler, Detective Lloyd Johnson and Policewoman Violet H. Whyte accounted for 48 other arrests. Violations ranged from disturbing the peace to handling dope.

Other officers are Leroy Moody, Edgar Stewart, Claude Hill, James Smith, Webster Lewis and William Hayes.

Truman 'Whips Up War,' PCA Club Says

President Truman's recent address to Congress was described as a "political maneuver to whip up war hysteria" by the 13th Ward Club of the Progressive Citizens of America.

The club sent a telegram to Mr. Truman declaring that "Money and guns are not the answer. We want housing and price control, not military training. We want health and the elimination of discrimination, not Greek and Turkish dictators."

Fifteen new canvassers have volunteered to gather signatures in the club's campaign to nominate Henry A. Wallace for President and Dr. J. E. T. Camper for Congress.

3 Dope Suspects Under $3,000 Bail

Sgt. James H. Butler and Detective Lloyd Johnson, this week, cracked down on three suspected dope peddlers who later were held under $3,000 bail each to face grand jury action.

Arrested on Pennsylvania Ave., they are James Plump, 25, a vagrant, who allegedly had seven marijuana cigarettes in his possession; Garfield L. Hooper, 30, of 625 Mulberry St. and Russell H. Stewart, 29, of 818 McCulloh St.

Hooper carried 27 dop cigarettes and five cocaine capsules and Stewart one capsule, it was testified in police court.
