4 Ex-GI's to Get Course in Farming

The State Department of Education has agreed to extend its farm training program to four Anne Arundel County ex-GIs, the NAACP announced this week.

The veterans are Arthur Thorogood of Churchton, and Charles W. Hayes, William Harried and Robert E. Simms of West River, all of whom have had their qualifications and credentials approved by both the Veterans Administration and the State Department of Education.

Plans are being arranged whereby the veterans may receive their technical classroom training under J. C. Whittington, agriculture instructor at the Bates High School in Annapolis.

Needed 4 to Form Class

Three of the veterans were approved several weeks ago but their applications were delayed because they were not numerically strong enough to form a class.

Under the system whereby white veterans are included in the farm training program provided by the GI Bill of Rights, four applicants must be certified before a class can be formed.

The veterans appealed to Milton Brown, executive secretary of the NAACP, who after repeated conferences with the State Board and the VA, broke the deadlock.

One of the specifications of the farm training program is that a veteran must have at least 200 hours of classroom work in addition to practical experience.

Democrats to Support Garmatz in Primary

Ward leaders and key men of the Third Congressional District of the Citizens Democratic Club met at the York Hotel Blue Room, recently in a "kick Off" meeting to re-elect Congressman Edward A. Garmatz.

Lloyal Randolph, State chairman, Dr. Bernard Harris and Joseph Neal led the list of speakers who lauded the Congressman for his work since he replaced Mayor D'Alesandro in the Washington post.

Quotes Record

In seeking the continued support of the group, Congressman Garmatz recalled that he has voted in favor of the European Recovery Plan, tax reduction and legislation favoring veterans and labor.

Approximately 60 political key figures of the District attended the meeting and pledged their support in the coming primary fight.

Panel Investigates Jobless Pay Law

The members of the 14-man panel appointed last week by Governor Lane to study the existing unemployment compensation laws will meet in the offices of the State Industrial Accident Commission next Wednesday.

Joseph Neal representing all the CIO unions throughout the State, is the first colored man to be named to the group.

The panel is to make a report of its findings with any suggestions for corrections of the present laws to the Governor in October.

'Don't Blow Your Top, but I Love Another,' Wife Tells GI

"Now please don't blow your top when you hear this, Phil, but I'm in love with another man and want a divorce."

Thus wrote Mrs. Ruth Harris of 1207 McCubbin Ct., and had her request granted when the husband complied, winning the decree, but giving custody of their child to the wife.

Mr. Harris, now of 1804 Pressman St., told the court that the letter floored him when he received it on May 23, 1945, while he was serving in the Army and was stationed in South Dakota.

Exhibited Letter

The letter, which he exhibited said:

"Dear Phil: I have received quite a number of letters from you which I have not answered. The last letter I received from you has set me to thinking about something I should have told you.

"Just in case you should be shi ped out, it would be better to get all this straight. I have been selfish in holding out on you.

"I realize that was very stupid on my part and that it would only hurt you to go on believing in me then find out what the score is. So I am going to be perfectly frank and open with what I have to say.

"I trust you won't blow your top—it is neither necessary or worth it.

"This may be a shock to you, but I know I could never live with you or be a wife to you anymore. Believe me, I did not mean for this to happen—maybe it is just the way life goes—in the hands of fate.

"I now find myself in love with another man. This is not just a sordid, cheap affair. I know I will never be able to give him up, and I don't want to.

"It is gravely necessary for you to do as I ask (give me a divorce). Please, above everything, don't act like a child about this. Be sensible and be a man.

"Sincerely, RUTH."
