ANL All Stars Win, 6-1, Before 17,928 at Stadium

Marquez's 350-Foot Homer Decides Issue in Colorful Tilt; Whitewashed in Chicago, 3-0

NEW YORK—The Negro National League All Stars defeated their rivals here Tuesday night at Yankee Stadium, 6-1, before 17,928 fans in the renewal of the "dream game."

Loser in the annual East-West classic before 42,000 cash customers on Sunday night in Chicago, the NNL nine had to come from behind to soundly trounce its Western rivals.

The American Leaguers took a big one-run lead in the top half of the third inning, but this was erased in the lower half when Luke Marquez, Grays' centerfielder, poled a 350-foot homer into the bleacher stands scoring catcher Bill Cash of the Philadelphia Stars ahead of him.

Minofa Helps Scoring

Oreste Minofa of the New York Cubans added another tally on an error by Willie Grace of the Cleveland Buckeyes, and the National Leaguers sewed up the contest in the eighth when Herb Souell of the Kansas City Monarchs made a wild throw with the bases loaded.

The Sabbath contest at Chicago which, incidentally, was the West's first tenth triumph in 16 starts, was no less than a story of how the NAL overpowered the Eastern's top name batters.

The trio of Bill Powell, Birmingham; Jim LaMarque, Kansas City, and Gentry Jessup, Chicago, set the invaders down with three hits, one a double off the bat of Buck Leonard, veteran Homestead Gray first baseman, with two down in the fourth.

The NAL swatters, in the meantime, were collecting seven safeties off the combined offerings of Rufe Lewis, Newark; Red Fields, Grays, and Bob Griffith, New York Black Yankees.

With the Westerners pushing across two of their runs in the second, Lewis was charged with the loss, while credit for the victory went to Powell.

Willard Brown, former St. Louis Brown outfielder, opened the second with a single, and scored as Bob Boyd, Memphis first sacker, and Neil Robinson, Memphis outfielder, followed with successive one-bagers. Boyd also crossed the pan when Luke Easter, of the Grays, made a bad peg in an attempt to choke him off at third.

Odd Double Play

An odd double play, initiated by Junior Gilliam of Baltimore, brought the scoring to a close. Gilliam fielded Powell's rolling and threw to Lou Louden, Cubans, to nip Robinson at the plate. Then Quincey Troupe, who had walked, was caught in a rundown between second and third.

The winners scored again in the eighth. Lorenzo (Piper) Davis, Birmingham, doubled, and moved to third as Brown singled to right. Davis then tallied on Boyd's loft to center.

The second inning uprising of the West was partial vindication for the humiliation to which they were subjected in the initial frame. Lewis, Abe Manley's speedballer, thrilled the huge crowd by fanning the side in the bottom half of the inning.

LaMarque was the victim of two of the losers' three hits. One came off the deliveries of Powell. Jessup hurled hitless ball during his 3-inning stay on the hill.

D.C. Takes AFRO 4-0, in No-Hitter

The AFRO softball team knows what it means to run up against an invincible pitcher after bowing to Washington's Banneker softballers, 4-0, in a game in D.C., last week, in which Ellis of Banneker, hurled a no-hit, no-run game.

The wiry-armed Capital moundsman struck out 10 men and did not permit a Baltimorean to get past second base. Maith, AFRO hurler, pitched 5-hit ball for the visiting team, but the excellent feat was unavailing.

Given Gift of 3 Runs

Only one of Banneker's 4 runs was earned, with errors accounting for the other three runs scored against the Baltimoreans.

Otis Trouper, former Morgan athlete, was one of the stars of the visiting team, but he threw out every AFROITE who tried to reach the keystone sack during the game.

Down Sollers 9, 14-12

The AFRO softballers did not fare so badly, however, in the game played against the Vets of Sollers Home on Aug. 18, which the newsmen won by a score of 14 to 12.

Pounding out 19 hits against the Turners Station team, the AFROITES added one more game to their long string of victories.

Roger Bowie was the star of the game, with four safeties, including a 4-run homer. Daddy White played his usual air-tight game.

35 Lettermen Among H.U. Candidates Set to Report

Walt Spruill, Flashy Halfback, Falls to Make Eligible List; New Aide Named

WASHINGTON

An estimated 50 Howard University football candidates, 35 of them letter-men veterans, are expected to report to Coach Eddie Jackson, Wednesday, for their first grid practice.

With Banneker and the Bisons' athletic field still in renovation stages, daily drills are scheduled on two fields with the morning workouts billed for 9 a.m. on the grounds near Howard University's medical school. The evening sessions have been booked for 3 p.m. on the Armory grounds.

Coach Jackson stated that he is looking for his first day outing to be small, but expects the squad to increase in the week with tardy arrivals.

He named a new assistant to his coaching staff to augment the team of Sam Barnes of Oberlin, Tom Johnson of Springfield and Kenny Powell of Johnson C. Smith.

The new appointee, a line coach, is Kenny Simms, a husky 200-pound end, who played on the University of Nevada's grid teams in 1942, 1943 and 1945.

Simms, who stands 5 feet, 11 inches, played with Marion Motley, now Cleveland Browns' bruising fullback, in 1942.

A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Simms attended Crispus Attucks High School where he played basketball and made all-city in football. While at Crispus Attucks, he was a teammate of Sodie White, former grid great at Talladega College.

He holds the B.S. degree in physical education from DeKalb County Teachers in Illinois. Currently he is working toward his master's degree at New York University.

Simms is married to the former Miss Dozas Gass of Sumter, S.C., and resides at 4419 Falls Terrace, S.E. They have one child.

The Bisons' initial outing will serve only to take stock of the potential strength of the last team, and to appraise the ability of new prospects.

Coach Jackson revealed that one of his chief scoring threats will be lost to the team this year because of scholastic ineligibility.

He is Walt Spruill, 180-pound halfback, whose sensational touchdown jaunts in midseason, played a prominent part in the Bisons' 7-2 grid record.

The South Rover, N.J. All-State star who teamed with Chris Robertson of Stone Harbor, N.J. to earn the nickname of "Touchdown Twins," is returning to school, but there is little hope that he will become eligible to be of service to the Bisons.

The Bisons also are expected to be without the services of Jim Alexander, a 6-foot, 3-inch, 210-pound tackle, who rated a strong candidate for a regular berth. Alexander, it was disclosed, is returning to school, but has decided to pass up football this year.

Other Veterans Lost

Other lettermen who will be lost to the squad, having used up all their eligibility include William Zide Plays—Simon to C. Thompson, C. Brown to C. Thompson.

Zide, a guard, and Simon, a 230-pound center from Poughkeepsie, N.Y., who is a candidate for the Brooklyn Dodgers' professional football team, and Tank Turner, 180-pound end from Atlantic City.

Coach Jackson, whose grid teams have compiled a record of 17 victories, 2 defeats and 0 ties in three seasons, made no prediction on the probable outcome of his squad this year.

"I don't know until the season ends," he said jokingly.

East Side Tops Blue Jays for Junior League Crown

The East Side Junior Softball team defeated the Blue Jays in a three-game playoff for the second-half championship of the Junior Division at Playground No. 139.

The Blue Jays led throughout and going into the last of the seventh, were ahead 6-4. However, the first East Side batter, C. Thompson, went out second to first. Hughes doubled and C. Brown scored. Smith, East Side, walked. Coborn singled, scoring Hughes. Then J. Thompson, batting for Irwin, doubled to score Coborn. On a throw to the plate, Thompson took third, then went the rest of the way home when the catcher let the ball get away from him.

Tomatoes Winners In All-Star Tilt

In the first of Inter-Playground games, the Green Tomatoes defeated the White Potatoes 1-0, this week.

Both teams are made up of players from the teams of the Junior League. It was a pitching duel between W. Lewis, Aeroplane, who was on the mound for the White Potatoes and C. Adams of the East Side club, who pitched for the Green Tomatoes. They yielded 4 and 3 hits, respectively.

E. Quarles singled in deep left field and when E. Allen let the ball roll through his legs Quarles came all the way home for the only run of the game.

Fathers Top Sons in Athletic Meet

WASHINGTON

That a little child shall lead them did not hold true in the Father and Son Day staged last Thursday on Carver Playground where the fathers took top honors in the athletic activities.

In the first game of a double-header softball bill, the fathers rallied behind the slugging of Carl Green and Milton Warren and the air-tight fielding of Bill McNeill to top the sons, 5-2. However, they succumbed in the nightcap, 5-3, to the hurling of Bill Chappel, Lincoln University athlete.

With William A. Brown calling his ringers and Ben Brown, Joe Jackson and James Hall Sr., turning in top performances, the fathers easily defeated the sons in horseshoe pitching.
