110 Students Begin Work at Howard U. Law School

Arrangements Made to Admit 155 This Term; Other University Courses to Begin Oct. 4

WASHINGTON

Approximately 110 first, second and third year students who registered for the 1948-49 term at Howard University's Law School on Tuesday began their classes on Wednesday.

In order that a larger number of students than the number who matriculated last year may be accommodated, it was necessary to expand the curricula and to rearrange the institution's facilities, it was revealed.

Registration in the other schools of the university will take place between Sept. 22 and Oct. 1; and instruction in all other divisions is to begin on Oct. 4.

Opening Exercises Slated

The formal opening of school exercises will be held in Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel on Oct. 5.

Dr. George M. Johnson, dean of the School of Law, said that of first-year, 29 second-year, and 24 third-year students registered the first day for the new term.

The dean stated that 60 students are to be admitted this year by re-arranging some of the existing classrooms. This is 10 more than it was possible to admit last year.

Only Best Students Admitted

Out of 59 first-year students who have already been certified for admission, 47 registered the first day. These certified by the Board of Admissions were selected largely on the basis of their undergraduate records as revealed by their transcripts.

The lowest out of those selected had a weighted average of C-plus; and the first five had an A-minus average. The others had a "B" or better average. A total of 155 law students are expected to be enrolled this year.

Only four comprise the final graduating class of the Evening School, which is being discontinued after this year.

About 75% of the first year students are veterans. Six are women. They come from about 20 different colleges. Sept. 11 is the last day students may enter the Law School for the first semester.

College Orientation Planned

New students in the College of Liberal Arts, the School of Engineering and Architecture, the School of Music and the College of Pharmacy are required to report for orientation services in the Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel at 9:30 a.m. on Sept. 22.

Registration in the Colleges of Medicine and Dentistry will be held from 9 a.m. to noon, Sept. 25. Students in the junior department of the School of Music will register on the same day.

The first trimester instruction in the Colleges of Medicine and Dentistry begins on Sept. 27. All freshmen in the College of Dentistry are required to take aptitude tests on this day.

Registration of new students in the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Pharmacy and the School of Music and the School of Engineering and Architecture is to be held on Sept. 22 and Oct. 1.

Grad School Registration

All students in the evening classes of the Graduate School, School of Social Work, College of Liberal Arts, School of Music, School of Engineering and Architecture, Music, Social Work, Re- 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., Sept. 29.

Former students in the Liberal Arts and Pharmacy Colleges, Schools of Engineering and Architecture, Music, Social Work, Religion and the Graduate School will register on Sept. 30 and Oct. 1.

Burglary Haul of $1000 Made

While Mr. and Mrs. William A. Henson of 1028 N. Fulton Ave. were attending church services on Tuesday evening, thieves entered their home and made away with an array of possessions valued at approximately $1000.

The Hensons, who had left their three-story home shortly after 7:30 that evening, discovered the robbery when they returned around 11 p.m.

Someone had mounted the wooden stairway at the back of the house and climbed through a kitchen window, which inadvertently had been left unlocked.

$700 in Cash Missing

The things taken included jewelry, wearing apparel, a set of silverware and more than $700 which had been hidden in various places throughout the house.

The theft was reported to Northwestern District police immediately upon its discovery.

Housing Exhibit at Gilmor Project

Jointly sponsored by the Northwest Community Council and the Gilmor Homes Tenant Council, the exhibit, "Baltimore Housing, Past, Present and Future," will be shown Sept. 15-26 at the Gilmor Homes.

Wilbur Hunter, Peale Museum director, will speak at 8 p.m. on the opening night, and will be followed on Wednesday by Yates Cook, the Health Department's director of housing.

Oliver C. Winston, director of the Housing Authority, will speak on Monday, and on Thursday, representing the Commission on City Plan, will be Dr. Robert L. Jackson.

Youth Day

The closing Sunday will be "Youth Day," with activities including a parade of youth groups, centered around the theme, "Better Housing."

Gentry McDonald is chairman of the exhibit committee, while Raymond J. Briscoe is president of the Northwest Community Council.

Institution Parolee Held in Attack Attempt

A 17-year-old youth, said by police to have been previously committed to a local mental institution, was held without bail, Thursday, to face grand jury charges for an attempted criminal attack.

The youth was arraigned in Northwestern police court as James A. Melvin of 1225 N. Gilmor St.

A 32-year-old housewife told police she was awakened in her basement apartment in the 900 block of N. Fulton Ave. shortly after 2 a.m. on Aug. 23, by someone standing above her.

Fought Assailant Off

The intruder she charged under threats of personal harm, attempted to abuse her but was fought off.

After the stranger had fled, the matron was examined at Provident Hospital; and an investigation began by officers. The arrest of the suspect followed. Melvin made no statement, Thursday.

West Palm Beach Gets 4 Colored Policemen

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (ANP)—Four men with high school education or better have passed tests to become policemen in the colored district in West Palm Beach, Police Chief Truman Matthews announced here last week.

Alley Garbage Pail Rummager Jailed

Caught rummaging through back alley garbage pails, a 45-year-old man who said he "works when he can get it," was given 10 days in jail, Tuesday.

The accused is John Brown of 1411 McCulloh St., who was arrested on Labor Day after being warned by Officer Joe Brown.

A few minutes after Brown's arrest, Eugene Cureton, 45, of 1708 Madison Ave., was nabbed while sleeping barefooted and half clad on a pile of cinders in a neighborhood alley.

Officer Brown said Cureton was "paralyzed drunk" so he brought him in for safe keeping. Cureton was dismissed.
