Social Workers' Group Meets

On Monday, Mrs. Muriel E. Johnson, of the Maryland Training School, newly-elected president of the Social Workers' Roundtable of Baltimore held a luncheon meeting of the Executive Committee at the YWCA.

Committee chairmen appointed were:

Social action, Mrs. Dollie Walker; membership, Mrs. Mary Spellman; publicity, Miss Regina E. Scott; social, Mrs. Virginia Gunn; finance, Andrew Johnson; program, Mrs. Vera Scott and Miss Anita Williams.

Plans were discussed in reference to making a study of the social problems affecting delinquency in Baltimore. However, further information in regard to this study will be given consideration and further discussion at a luncheon meeting on Friday, Oct. 8, at the YWCA.

The newly-elected officers of the Social Workers' Roundtable are as follows: president, Mrs. Muriel E. Johnson; vice-president, William H. Kindle of the YMCA; recording secretary, Mrs. Marjorie Coles of the Juvenile Court; corresponding Mrs. Fleda C. Harris, of the Family and Children's Society; treasurer, Mrs. Juanita G. Hill, of the housing department; and parliamentarian, B. Frank Harris of the Bragg Home.

N.C. Orphanage Sends 3 Wards to College

OXFORD, N.C. — Public contributions to the Student Loan Fund have enabled the Colored Orphanage of North Carolina (for the first time in the institution's history) to send three of its wards to college.

One girl is a sophomore at Fayetteville State Teachers College, another a freshman at the North Carolina College at Durham, and a boy is a freshman at A. and T. College of Greensboro.

HOLABIRD EMPLOYEES HONOR CO-WORKER

On the occasion of the 30th anniversary of service with the civil service, Leslie L. Brooks was honored by his co-workers with a surprise party, Thursday.

Mr. Brooks has been with the Signal Corps and other branches of civil service since Sept. 23, 1918. The party was attended by all supervisors including the civilian in charge of Annex No. 1, and a great number of employees. As a token of their esteem they presented a fitted dressing case to Mr. Brooks.

Earlier in the day he received a Certificate of Service from the chief signal officer by the commanding officer of the depot at a ceremony held in the commanding officer's office at Baltimore Signal Depot.
