Dinner Party, Cocktailer Honor Mrs. Robert Vann
with Lula Jones Garrett

MRS. VANN GUEST OF AKA — Mrs. Robert Vann of Pittsburgh was guest of Epsilon Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority at its meeting on Saturday night.

Mrs. Vann, an honorary member of AKA, brought greetings from the chapter in Pittsburgh, and brought peals of laughter from the sorors as she interspersed her brief message with spicy anecdotes.

Much of the business of the meeting centered around final preparations for the bazaar and stage show to be held at Baltimore Gardens on Friday night, Oct. 22 at 8 o'clock. The bazaar is for the purpose of erecting a play ground in South Baltimore for colored children.

After the business was concluded, a song fest, games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mrs. Marie Edwards and Mrs. Katrine White are back from Reading, Pa., where they went as delegates to the Presbyterian Council. Mrs. Edwards represented the Sunday School of Grace Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. White, the missionary society of the same church.

Sister Calista, formerly head of the St. Peter Claver Community, and who is now at the mother house in Wilmington, will be honored there on Sunday. Mrs. Guy Bragg and Mrs. John Murphy Jr., of the ARC Motor Corps, will motor a group of nuns up to the celebration.

Dr. and Mrs. I. B. Higgins and Dr. Henry Welcome will take a plane for Los Angeles, Sunday, to attend the Clinical Congress of American Surgeons. Mrs. Welcome will follow by plane on Monday. Dr. Robert L. Jackson left Thursday by train. The physicians will be initiated as fellows of the Congress on Friday.

POT-POURRI

Louise Hines, who was tucked in after an operation at St. Josephs, is in circulation again. Dr. Bernard Hatcher is hospitalized at Provident. He is a bit improved at the end of the week over his condition when he entered on Tuesday.

"Black Odyssey," the story of the colored American by Roi Ottley, will be published by Charles Scribner's Sons, next week.

Bishop W. J. Walls (he's the AME Zion prelate) has purchased Canada Lee's New Rochelle, N.Y. home, and will move out from Chicago.

Mrs. Sarah Spencer Washington of the Apex Beauty Corporation, Atlantic City, has sold the five-story building at 2348 Seventh Avenue which was used during the war as a servicemen's center to a group of New York women headed by Mrs. Gertrude Thomas. The sale price was $45,500. The building will be converted into a beauty and health center. Mrs. Mabel Smythe is chairman of the board of directors of the new concern.

Ray Sprigle, white reporter of Pittsburgh Gazette, who disguised himself as a colored man to spend four weeks in the South, says it was the concensus of people with whom he talked that Baltimore Department Stores were the worst in the country in their treatment of colored patrons.

LEE BABY CHRISTENED

The infant-son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee, (Frances Wilson) was christened Sunday morning by Father Cedric Mills at St. James PE Church. He will bear the title of Thomas Montgomery Lee Jr. His two godfathers were William Lee, uncle; and George Parris. Estelle Lee, his aunt, was godmother.

Attending the ceremony were Mrs. Estelle Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Wilson, the baby's grandparents; Mrs. Jennie Wilson, Mrs. Nora Robinson, Mrs. Mary Law, Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall and Miss Clara Dorsey.

GOLFERS ENTERTAINED

Following the tournament, Sunday, Atlantic City golfers were entertained at dinner at the Sphinx by their Baltimore hosts.

There was some "entertaining" on Saturday eve, also, at York Hotel, where most of the Shore group stayed—and played, practically through the evening. Members of the Apex Club, guests, included:

MRS. IMES HONOREE

When the Philomathians dine at the Dolphin Tea Room, Saturday, their guest of honor will be Mrs. Grace McCard Imes, for so long president of the club.

About will be three new members, Miss Carol Blanton of the Morgan State College faculty; Mrs. Frederick H. Dedmond of Coppin Teachers College faculty; and Mrs. Martin Jenkins, wife of the president of Morgan.

Following Dr. Benjamin Mays' address at Douglass High School on last Thursday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Welcome had him in for a midnight snack, with Dr. and Mrs. Martin Jenkins of Morgan State College, and Mrs. Dora Hutchinson as other guests.

MISS KELLY MARRIED

On last Sunday afternoon at 4 Miss Melissa Kelly became the bride of John Sterling at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Maud P. Bell.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Baxter L. Matthews, pastor of Union Baptist Church.

Members of the families of the two contracting parties and a few friends were present.

Mrs. Sterling is the daughter of Edward Kelly and the late Elizabeth Perry Kelly of Baltimore.

Mr. Sterling is the son of Mrs. Alma Sterling and the late Rev. Samuel Sterling of Baltimore.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Maud Alexander, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Eugene H. Bell Jr. The best man, Ellwood Sterling is a brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Evelyn Dyson Johnson, organist and choir directress of Metropolitan Methodist Church presided at the piano.

The couple left on Monday for Waterbury, Connecticut, where they will make their future home and where they are both employed.

MISS BRYAN SHOWEREN

You have read the old saying that it rained frogs, but Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shields it rained everything from pots to linens. The occasion was in anticipation of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Hazel Bryan. Amid a decorative setting of a huge umbrella, the guests assembled to surprise the prospective bride. The whole affair was cleverly planned by Misses Doris Parker, Nancy Bennett and Florence Gross, who saw to it that the guests as well as the honoree spent a most enjoyable evening.

Among the guests were:

Jessie Carey, Carolina Coleman, Viola Blackwell, Annie Counts, Helen Chase, Helen Dean, Maude Haney, Gertrude Jones, Rosalie Jones.

Mindella Jacks, Evelyn Press, Alma Slayer, Mildred Williams, Anna Powell, Laura Smith, Cora Shields, Janice Shields and Elsie Blackwell.

DELTAS "RUSH"

"Come As You Are" invitations, delivered personally bade fresh-men and new students to the 1948 Freshmen tea given by the Alpha Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Taking the invitations to heart, freshmen and new students turned out in gala array of costumes ranging from slacks and culottes to sweaters and skirts.

The feature of the affair held at the Morgan Christian Center was an Applejack Contest won by Nancy Smith, a freshman from Chestertown, Md. A short program included dances by Sorors Dorothy Franklin and Deborah Thompson of Richmond, Va. Music for the program was furnished by Soror Clara Statham.

The Rush party was held in soft light furnished by tall red and white candles which cast a glow on the huge Delta Shield on the platform.

Sorors present were:

Rubye Gill, Lillie Sturgis, Mildred Roberts, Jean Harris of Epsilon Sigma;

Carrie Taylor, Frances Wallace, Marie Taylor, Gloria Sturgis, Dorothy Johnson and Mary Blackburn, visiting sorors;

Elaine Proctor, Doris Webb, Clara Statham, Katherine Leonard, Jeanne Stevens, Lillian Laurence, Virginia White, Dorothy Franklin, and Berniece Ximines, Jeannette Chi-

...n and Evelyn Jackson, of the hostess chapter, Alpha Gamma.

Alpha Phi Alpha

The monthly meeting of Delta Lambda chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity was held on Monday evening at 526 N. Stricker

A discussion on "Current Political Perspective" was a part of the program. Plans for the general convention, which is to be held in Atlantic City, this year, were also discussed. Delta Lambda Chapter will serve as co-host at the convention.

FOLLOW ME—The savings club met on October 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Jefferson, Cummings Ct. A pre-Halloween party will be given October 29. William Page, president; and Mrs. Venia Russell, editor.

SMILING NINE — were entertained by Mrs. Josephine Finch back of 1031 W. Lanvale Street

MERRY MAD CAPS — were guests of Mrs. Anna Henson of 215 N. Fulton Avenue, recently.

Newspaper Woman Party Guest

A chatty moment at the dinner party and cocktailer given for Mrs. Robert S. Vann of Pittsburgh, Pa., in Baltimore, Sunday, is recorded by the camera. Shown, left to right, are Mrs. W. Leroy Berry of Washington, Mrs. Ruth Shipley and the honoree. Mesdames Berry and Shipley were hostesses at the affair which honored the newspaper woman, who had been speaker for the executive committee of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs the day before at an annual luncheon meeting.

HOUSEHOLD OF RUTH — The Ways and Means committee of Nora P. Taylor chapter met with Mrs. Agnes Jones, 1005 Fulton Ave., to complete final plans for the annual variety supper.

Mrs. Emma Roberts and Mrs. Martha A. Hearn are chairmen of the affair.

MODERN HOSTESSES — met with Miss L. Crawford, 901 Monroe St., Thursday.

Guests were Mr. Gibbs and Mr. Kay Stewart.

Mrs. Inez Gibbs is president; and Mrs. Lucy Lee, chairman.

Miss Pearl Dyson

A Model's Life For Her

It's a long jump from a nursery school teacher to a professional model, but Miss Dyson is on her way.

Charming, cultured, well-travelled, Miss Dyson has seen the country from coast to coast. Home to her means California, New Mexico, Chicago, New York, Boston and Baltimore.

Her interests are infinite. Her tastes range from reading to bowling to horsemanship. She tackles everything with verve and enthusiasm.

Fashion, of course, is of chief concern to Miss Dyson as it would be to any model. She likes simplicity in her clothes, avoids frills. In Baltimore she does practically all her wardrobe shopping at Hendin's . . . thinks Hendin's Hollywood Fashions are very lovely and extremely smart.

Like most of Baltimore's best dressed young women, she enjoys the convenience of a Hendin Charge Account.

One of these days, you'll be eyeing Miss Dyson on a magazine cover.

Dinner Party, Cocktailer Honor Mrs. Robert Vann
with Lula Jones Garrett

Mrs. Robert S. Vann of Pittsburgh, Pa., president of the Pittsburgh Courier Publishing Company, was the guest in whose honor Mesdames Ruth Shipley and W. Leroy Berry held forth at the season's most swanky parties, Sunday.

The chic Lillian, hostessing in a cocktail suit of black taffeta highlighted with two high square pins of brilliants, and matching earrings, pushed a high cocktail table against the floral-dressed windows of her exquisite apartment drawing room, and ruth used her professional know-how to apply the proper finishings. The latter was gowned in pale blue crepe, crystal beaded. The combination was superb.

Mrs. Vann wore deep blue satin, draped at one side, and relieved with a stark white corsage and pearls.

The cocktail party, at which she had an opportunity to greet scores of old friends and meet new ones, had been preceded by a dinner party for a dozen. The latter included Mesdames Ulysses Wharton of Washington, D. Arnett Murphy, Berkley Butler, Henry Welcome, P. D. G. Pennington, T. Randolph Waters, Mark Patterson, Albert Hall, Alice Arrington, and Carrington Davis.

Guests at cocktails following, included:

Mr. and Mrs. John Berry, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. C. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. T. Randolph Waters, Dr. and Mrs. W. Berkley Butler, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Sykes, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Burwell, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Shepperd, Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brown, Howard Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Alleyne, Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Vickers of West Palm Beach, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laws;

Mesdames Xaveria McDonald, Blanche McEan, Virginia Gunn, Florence Gloster, Mattie Conner, Pauline Wharton, Hermoine Wharton, Constancia Jackson;

Mesdames Anna Wright, Mary Proctor, Leola Pinderughes, Marie Payne, Mabel Frisby, Ted Phifer, Fred Adams, Louis Harmon, Hiram Butler, Maurice Doles, James Murphy, A. A. Smith;

Mesdames Fannie Howard, Louise James, Isabel Clark, A. Jack Thomas, George Grant, Elizabeth Johnston, Dorothy Hughes, Blanche Hughes, S. Bunard Hughes;

Mesdames Elizabeth Hood, Marguerite Butler, Thelma Lawrence, Etta Mason, Pauline Watts, Elizabeth Nicholas;

Dr. N. Louise Young, Mesdames Vivian Cook, Etta Mason, Florence Gloster, Ethel Henry, Mary Proctor, Margaret Butler, Ruth Burgess, Albert Reid, Marie Payne, Anna McEachen and Clara Robinson.

PEREGRINATORS:

Louise A. Jackson of New York, and a former head nurse at Lincoln Hospital in that city, and her sister, Myrtle Anderson of Boston, who is holding a post as dietitian at Glenn Dale Sanitarium, were breakfast guests of the Harrison Tuckers, recently. The William Grigsbys held forth at a television party and dinner for the same visitors. When the Howard Morgans held forth at dinner on Saturday, their guests included Dr. and Mrs. Donald Marshall, Harry Moore, Marian Jordan and her mother, Mrs. Jordan, all of Atlantic City. The Jordans were house guests. Marian having been here for the week-end golf tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Logan Jenkins celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary, this week. Marked the event with a trip to Hampton, Va. With them went Mrs. M. L. Dardale. A card from Grace B. Stevens tells of the beauties of Bermuda, where she is vacationing.
