UNION AND HAMPTON ON ROAD:

Trojan-Eagle Grid Tilt Top Contest of Week

By ART CARTER

RICHMOND—Because its outcome may have a definite bearing on the CIAA championship, the Virginia State-North Carolina College game at Petersburg, Saturday afternoon, looms as the prize jewel among week-end gridiron battles for Virginia collegiate eleven.

As a matter of fact, it is not only the big game for Virginia teams but the only gridiron contest to be played in this vicinity come Saturday.

Virginia Union University, still smarting under the 10-0 shellacking handed them by Howard last Saturday, will journey to Lincoln, Pa., for a clash with the Lincoln Lions, while Hampton, sharing an unbeaten record (though tied once) with Va. State, travels to Tuskegee, Ala., for a tilt with the Tuskegee Tigers.

Both Unbeaten

In the Trojan-Eagles clash, two unbeaten elevens will be battling.

The Trojans are red-hot after stopping Bluefield, 14-0, and toppling Johnson C. Smith, 34-0, while the Eagles have walloped Delaware State College and eked out a 14-13 victory over the strong Morgan State College eleven, last Saturday.

The Eagles will be the first acid test for the power-running Trojans, while the Trojans rate as another tough hurdle for the Eagles, thus making the competitive angle as tension-laden as it possibly could be.

Coach Harry (Big) Jefferson's boys, hoping to carry an unbeaten streak into the Capital Classic against W.Va. State in Washington on Nov. 6, have been busy all week tuning for the Eagle contest.

The veteran mentor has an array of fine running backs and a capable set of passers, which bodes no good for opponents.

The Trojan line, sparked by Big Wiley vs. Prairie View at Dallas (site) Ben. Whaley, too, is as formidable as any in the conference, off observation to date, and is set to give a good account of itself.

On the other hand, the Eagles' triumph over Morgan puts them high on the prediction ladder—and the Petersburg contest looks like a toss-up.

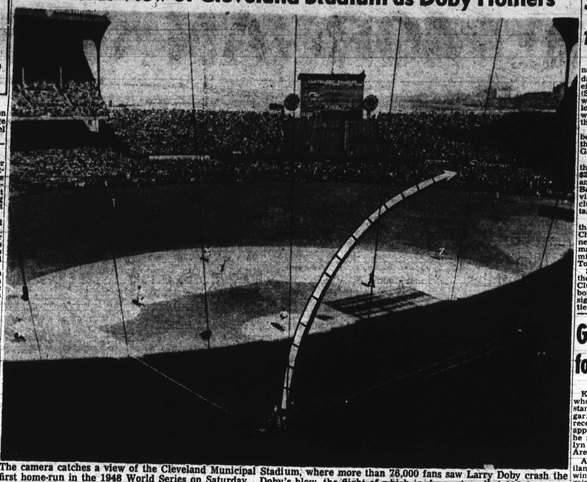
Take your pick, either team, but it certainly may be an important tussle in the conference race as the time moves swiftly to the Turkey Day classics.

Union Favored

In spite of its loss to Howard, Union rates the favorite over the week Lincoln eleven, which dropped a 7-6 game to Delaware State, while Hampton is an even money favorite to win at Tuskegee.

To date, however, the Pirates have been uncertain on the road, though showing titular talent at home, and the Tuskegee Tigers are tough to stop in Alabama.

General View of Cleveland Stadium as Doby Homers



The camera catches a view of the Cleveland Municipal Stadium, where more than 76,000 fans saw Larry Doby crash the first home-run in the 1948 World Series on Saturday. Doby's blow, the flight of which is shown, travelled 385 feet over the barrier in right centerfield and into the standing room crowd. It was knocked off the celebrated Johnny Sain and won the game, 2-1, for Steve Gromek.

Sugar Ray, Belloise Sign for Tournament of Champs

NEW YORK (NNPA)—The tournament of Champions last Wednesday announced that Andy Niederreiter, its promoter, had signed Ray (Sugar) Robinson, world welterweight champion, and Steve Belloise, high-ranking Bronx middleweight, for a 10-round title bout in the Jersey City Armory on Dec. 7.

The Twentieth Century Club had been dickering for a bout between the two boxers for Madison Square Garden on Dec. 17.

Under the terms of the contract, the two fighters are guaranteed $20,000 each, with Robinson having an option of 35% of the gate and Belloise, 27½%. Radio and television receipts, if any, will be included in the receipts, for percentage purposes, Neiderreiter said.

Robinson signed for the bout in the offices of the Tournament of Champions with a number of witnesses present. Belloise and his manager, Eddie Walker, had submitted their signed contracts to the Tournament of Champions Oct. 5.

Sol Strauss, acting director of the Twentieth Century Sporting Club, which was eager to land the bout, said he knew nothing of the signing for the bout, but the Twentieth Century had Robinson's promise that, "he will fight Belloise for us at the Garden Dec. 17."

Lions Score 1st Tally in 2 Years

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, Pa. — The Lincoln University Soccer team finally overcame their "no-goal" jinx of the past two years by outscoring Elizabethtown College of Elizabethtown, Pa., 3-0, last week on the Lincoln field.

Playing their first game of the current season in honor of last year's deceased manager, Edward Reed, the Lions got off to a quick start, scoring in 8 minutes after the opening whistle.

Fraser, Arch Tally

The first goal was shot by Fraser, outside right, with an assist from Arch, outside left. The second tally was scored by Arch, clever outside left, who also scored the third tally in the third period.

Outstanding defensive work for the Lions was performed by Full-backs Odelugua and Delgado, who kept the Herr-coached men from any serious scoring threat.

The visitors muffed their only sure goal chance by failing to capitalize on a direct penalty kick. Half-time score 2-0.

Lineups:

LINCOLN		ELIZABETHTOWN
Brady	Goal	D. Sneeze
Odelugua	L.F.	J. Liehter
Delgado	R.F.	F. Keith

Gavilan Slated for Capital Bout

WASHINGTON

Kid Gavilan, Cuban welterweight who made an impressive but losing stand against Champion Ray (Sugar) Robinson in a non-title bout recently, will make his first local appearance Wednesday night, when he faces Vinnie Rossano of Brooklyn in a 10-round rematch at Uline Arena.

A rugged two-fisted fighter, Gavilan has made 10 starts this year, winning six, losing three while gaining a single draw. His record reads something like this for 1948:

Gene Burton, draw, 10 rounds; Joe Curcio, knockout in 2, Vinnie Rossano, defeated in 10; Ike Williams, lost, 10; Doug Ratford, lost, 10; Tommy Bell, defeated, 10; Rocco Rossano, knockout in 1; Roman Alvarez, decisioned, 10; Buster Tyler, decisioned, 10; and Ray (Sugar) Robinson, lost, 10.

On the other hand, Rossano defeated Pete Mead, and boxed draws with Charley A. Zivic and Norman Rubio to draws last season. He also holds wins over Johnny Lawyer, Tony Riccio (twice), Danny Kapilow, Irwin Keyes and Bill McDowell. However, he came out on the losing end of a furious 10-rounder with Gavilan in their first meeting earlier this year.

Challengers Drop Tight Fit to Finos

a hard-fought, 6-0 decision to the Junior Finos Sunday afternoon at Druid Hill Park.

The Finos recovered a Challenger lateral in the first period and went on to score. From that point on, it was a nip-and-tuck battle with neither team able to gain any appreciable advantage.

James Wade, Raymond Owens and Joe Harvey were outstanding in the losers' cause.

Challengers meet the Junior Police Boys Club eleven Sunday at Druid Hill Park at 11 a.m.

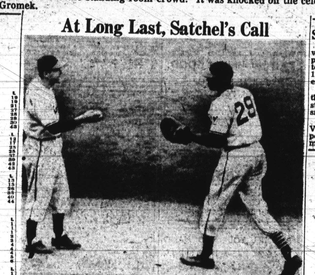
Smith Kayoes Prado

TRENTON, N.J. — It took Calvin Smith, hard-hitting Philadelphia lightweight, less than a round to dispose of Filo Prado, Mexican 135-pounder, in a programmed eight-rounder here last week.

Prado was counted out at 2:44 of the opening heat after Smith had stretched him with a righthanded smash to the chin.

In an eight-round co-feature, Van Butler, local favorite, outpointed Vern Lesser, New York middleweight.

At Long Last, Satchel's Call



After many, many years' waiting, Satchel Paige gets his call to pitch in a World Series game which, incidentally, was a history-making event. Manager Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians hands the ball to the first colored pitcher to toe the mound in a World Series game. It was in the fifth game at Cleveland last Sunday. Paige came in the eighth inning after the Tribe had lost the game, 11-15. He gave up no hits and was charged with no runs during his two-thirds of an inning on the hill.

Horse Show Carded at Homestead Park

WASHINGTON

The annual fall horse show of the Land and Sea Sportsmen's Club, which will include several added attractions including an old-fashioned barbeque, will be held Saturday at Homestead Park, Vista, Md.

The show, which opens at 11 a.m., has attracted a large entry list, including many local star performers as well as many top horses from distant localities.

A well-balanced program for juniors, jumpers and hunters has been arranged and the quality of the entries indicates competition of the keenest variety.

Local horse show fans can reach Homestead Park by driving out Bladensburg Rd. to Fence Cross, turn right, follow Rt. 50 for 6½ miles.
