Pennsylvania Avenue

By E. R. REA

"THERE IS NO BUSINESS Like Show Business." Some of the biggest hearts can be found among show people, and the people behind the show business and night life business.

THIS WAS EVIDENCED Friday night of last week when the owners of practically every club with entertainment, and their entertainers joined the benefit show at the Royal Theatre, which was staged to aid the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund.

MORE THAN $1900 WAS RAISED, all of which, except Federal tax, went to the cancer drive. The theatre gave its facilities free, all entertainers appearing on the program, and other workers, gave their services gratis.

IT WAS MORE THAN A FOUR hour show. Unfortunately! It could not be prolonged. Some of the acts did not have the opportunity to go on stage, but they were there, and willing.

THE MARYLAND DIVISION of the Runyon Cancer Fund Drive is grateful to those who participated.

THE SUCCESS OF THE MIDNIGHT show was made possible through your unselfishness. Since the writer of this column solicited your co-operation and services, I wish to express my appreciation to you—entertainers and night club operators — for the part you played in the splendid program.

THE EFFORTS AND SERVICES which you have performed in this worthwhile endeavor, will be a great aid in fighting a disease which knows nothing about race, creed, or color.

THIS SHOW WILL BE overshadowed and will ask for special display. Your services are required in a different role—that of helping preserve America. It doesn't matter about party affiliations—the vote is the thing.

CONGRATULATIONS THIS WEEK to Bernice Keene, hat check girl at the Avenue Cafe, who had a birthday yesterday (Thursday, the 28th). Reginald Moore observed his last week without any signs of being ready to join the Benedict class.

Jean Austin, the chirper, has the best soprano vocal organs in local night life circles.

THE DEMOCRATS STAGED a $1500 rally last week in the Blue Room of the York Hotel. Both Governor Lane and Mayor D'Alesandro were there. Somebody cracked: "Wouldn't Emerson's face be red if he 'crashed' in here now."

FUNNY PEOPLE — The Druid Hill Ave. Bullocks (Cornell and Thelma), he a former Norfolk burlesquer, she a school marm, who had a minister to make them one, now have a lawyer to make them two again . . . Machinery in the Joe Louis Punch bottlery, 500 block W. Biddle St., advertised for public auction . . . During Downtown Week celebration the only thing not labeled jim crow was the gasoline tank that dropped from a show-off bomber.

ED WHARTON tells me that the employees of the Social Security Board will give a Halloween dance tomorrow night, (Saturday), at Morgan Hall—Pa. at North. Ed is a relative of Martin Dyer Jr., the first non-white student ever enrolled at St. John's College . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks, 169 Winters Lane, Catonsville, taking in the Friday night tele-lite at the Casino.

THE MIDNIGHT SHOW set for Sunday at the Goldfield Theatre by Dantini, nationally famous magician, billed as a performance that will "scare the hell out of you" . . . Then the Monumental Democratic Club will give its first dance of the season at the Elks Home, Tuesday night, Nov. 2, with Bubby Johnson's orchestra jazzin the joint. Alexander Henry is the chairman of arrangements. William (Bat) Gray, assistant.

IT SHOULDN'T HAPPEN to a dog, but it did, and a crowd of some 15 eyewitnesses agreed. They agreed that the sordid, inhumane death of a playful pooch Wednesday night, 10:10 o'clock at Pennsylvania Ave. and Baker St., under the wheels of a yellow Cadillac convertible, could have been avoided.

THE WELL-KNOWN TRAFFIC jams in the 1500 and 1600 blocks Pennsylvania Avenue, are caused by illegitimate (BOOTLEG) cabs. Just why this infestation and the POLICE DEPARTMENT—Northwestern—knows that it exists, is allowed without any action whatsoever to something the man-in-the-street can't figure out. But, it has been figured—to 1—1 a $64 question or a matter of a $2 one.

THEATRE AND NIGHT CLUB patrons can't park in these areas because the BOOTLEGGERS freeze them out. If legitimate cars do find a parking space, they are blocked in bumper-to-bumper, and can't get out.

UNLESS YOU ARE DRIVING A BOOTLEG CAB, should you drive in a vacant spot, you are quickly and without reservation told that, "You can't park here." Then you hear that command—DON'T ASK QUESTIONS, JUST MOVE OUT—IT'S HEALTHIER FOR YOU AND THE LOOKS OF YOUR CAR.

BETTER THINGS AHEAD — Gambys opens Saturday (Friday) with Wini Brown, the notable brown chirper, formerly with Lionel Hampton's orchestra, as the main attraction.

THEN THERE'S 'Spo-De-O-De', one of Harlem's best-known comedians, last seen in 'Caldonia,' the Louis Jordan musical. Maude Thomas, the premiere blues singer and accompanist Kay Randall, a personal favorite from Philly, and the Reuben Woods orchestra, all on tap seven nights a week.

'TIS VERY VERY DOUBTFUL that the transfer of the Wagon Wheel licenses to the 1500 block will go through. Although the block is predominantly colored business, the protests came from other competitive sources.

IF YOUR SCOTCH AND MILK is turned into clabber beginning tonight at the Avenue Cafe it won't be the weather. Rather, it will be the torrid, torso-whirling of Princess LaRae, the queen of fire, aided by the funcopations of Redd Foxx; the lyricizing of "Peaches" Webb; the barytonals of Arthur Daniels, and the danastional rhythms of the Avenue Play Boys, plus other stars.

NOTICEABLE NOTICES—"Seven Houses for Sale, All Vacant." . . . "Application has been made to convert this three story house into a five-family apartment." . . . On Avenue delicatessen window: "Hot lunches and sandwiches to take out." . . . On a North Avenue show window: "All the food you want to take out."

THE THEATRE SHOWCASE — "Time of Your Life," REGENT; "Heartaches," NEW ALBERT; Stage Revue, ROYAL; "So Evil My Love," LENOX; "Pitfall," HARLEM.

THAT'S ALL FOR NOW, except — Six months before the Mineola scandal rid along the Avenue and elsewhere, this column predicted it. Here's a new note. (Sneeze now, it'll be too late, later on: There will soon be an investigation—something about so many big, fine, "hot rocks" being bought for cash by persons of "no visible income," and who have paid no income tax.

Dantini to Present Midnight Horror Show at the Goldfield

Plans are all set for the appearance of Dantini and his troupe of Zombies at a midnight performance of the "Midnight Zombie Jamboree," on stage at the Goldfield Theatre, 924 Sharp St. Sunday night.

Dantini

This attraction is considered the most unique of its kind, with the performances by Dantini almost approaching the unbelievable.

In recent weeks he has appeared with Orson Welles in the musical extravaganza, "Around the World in 80 Days," and has been featured on a Philadelphia television show.

In addition to the stage show there will be shown one of the latest horror pictures to hit the screen.

Tickets are already on sale at the Goldfield box office.

The uncanny Dantini is making spot which was recently vacated by the resigning Mattie Marshall.

Cannon is a native of Birmingham and a product of the elementary and high schools there.

Ravens Quartet

MOBILE, Ala. — Music fans attending the dance, featuring the famous Ravens' quartet here last Thursday were treated to a change in the vocal lineup of the pollwinning aggregation as Richard Cannon took over the lead tenor spot, first tenor.
