Rail-Union Suit Ordered Transferred to Ohio

WASHINGTON

The United States Court of Appeals has ordered that the suit of the 21 colored railroad firemen against the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen be transferred to the Northern District of Ohio because the Brotherhood's headquarters are in Cleveland.

A District Court ruled improper in granting the men a temporary injunction against the Brotherhood, the higher court has ruled.

GLOVER—In loving memory of my dear husband, father and brother, Louis Glover, who departed this life Sunday, November 3, 1947.

NEWHAM—In loving memory of our beloved mother, who departed this life exactly one life two years ago, November 1, 1946.
Two from a mother breathes her last farewell, The stroke seems more than tongue can tell.
The world seems cold, dreary and lone without the smile of mother's face.
Her life was spent for her family, while living heart that beat so quiet, Deep trust in God that all was right, Her joy to make some other heart light. She died suffering one day or two, Her work was done, God knew what he was doing, God knew what was best, We know he said: "Well done, dear faithful one."
