Business and Professionals in YWCA Interracial Session

More than a hundred white and colored delegates attended the Middle Atlantic Region Week-End Conference for Business and Professional Women of the YWCA here Saturday and Sunday.

The sessions, held at the Madison Ave. Branch, had as these, "Weighing Responsibilities in the Home, Community, State, Nation and World."

Mrs. Calkins Speaks

Mrs. J. Birdsall Calkins, president of the YWCA's U.S.A., was the guest speaker at the banquet held on Saturday evening. She stressed the fact that it was not a special privilege to accept responsibilities, but a duty to accept all of the responsibilities of a citizen.

During the banquet Miss B. Elaine Horne welcomed the delegates and guests. Mrs. Mary L. Burke, national council member, introduced the guests present. Miss Esther Stamats, executive director of the Baltimore association, introduced the main speaker; and Mrs. Bernita E. Clayton, fall conference chairman, conducted the conference in general.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Ethel Freeman and Miss Juanita Hall.

A modern dance entitled, "Man Can Triumph," was presented by the Madison Ave. Branch modern dance class, led by Mrs. Vera Cole.

Mrs. Ainslie Leader

Discussion leaders for the conference were Mrs. Peter Ainslie, who led "Courtship and Marriage"; Mrs. Alice B. Arrington, who led "A Dollar Now and Then"; Miss Eva E. Gerstmyer, who led "Attitudes, Decisions and Giving"; Miss Harriet Larrabee of the national staff, who led "Program Exchange"; and Mrs. Edna Overton Gray, who led "Citizenship Is What You Make It."

Sunday's schedule included a breakfast sponsored by the Young Adult Committee, an inspirational worship service led by the Washington, D.C., delegation, the five-discussion groups, the annual business meeting during which Miss Dorothy Gass of Reading was elected chairman for next year, and a tea sponsored by the board of directors of the YWCA and the committees of management.

Mrs. Bernita E. Clayton served as this year's fall conference chairman; Mrs. Mary Burke served as chairman for the business meeting; Miss B. Elaine Horne served as hostess city chairman.

Staff advisers were Mrs. Elmyria S. Hull, program director of the young adult department; and Miss Florence Drafts, program assistant of the Central Branch.

Yes, Ma'am, TIP-TOP is Enriched — and that's important!

Rev. Leon Hunt, Sr. of 709 Cumberland St. chats with Mr. James Flint in his store on 700 Cumberland St.

Uncle Sam says enriched bread is an almost perfect food. I always buy Tip-Top Bread because it's enriched with vitamins and minerals my family need. And we like Tip-Top's softness, freshness and grand flavor.

"How my grandchildren rush to the table when I bring out Tip-Top Bread and jelly," says Mrs. Mary A. Thomas of 930 Central Ave. "We eat Tip-Top at every meal and give the children Tip-Top sandwiches for afternoon snacks. Growing children need the nourishment of this good bread."

Social Happenings

MISS ANNIE DAY WED TO WILLIAM MORRIS

Miss Annie N. Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Walter of Northumberland County, Va., was married Sunday afternoon to William Morris at 1048 W. Fayette St.

The ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. William Morris Sr. Given in marriage by her uncle, Andrew Jackson, the bride wore an aqua crepe afternoon frock, a corsage of white roses and maroon accessories. Her matron of honor was Mrs. Gwendolyn Cooper; and William Brown stood as best man.

The couple, which was feted at a reception immediately after the ceremony, is making their home at the Fayette St. address.

ROSS—Miss Esther Ross of Montclair, N.J. has returned home after being guest, here, of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Timpson.

JOHNSON—Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Frederick, Md., Mrs. Leroy Timpson and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stitts of this city were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Timpson of Pulaski St.

Mrs. Maud P. Bell Minister's Bride

Announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Maud P. Bell, club woman and civic worker, and the Rev. Frank Smart, Baptist clergyman, was made, this week.

The couple was married in Towson, Md. on Oct. 26 by the Rev. W. C. Claver.

Mrs. Juanita J. Augustus

Beautiful But Smart

It's not surprising that Mrs. Augustus won first prize in modeling at a fashion show recently. But to combine so much charm and personality with a college degree (Morgan) is something that falls under the head of exceptional attainment.

Mrs. Augustus is a native of Petersburg, Virginia, but has traveled extensively. She now teaches English at George W. Carver High School in Towson, which makes going to school a pleasure.

Mrs. Augustus has a model's instinct for the right clothes. She is enthusiastic about Hendin's Hollywood Fashions, and is particularly impressed by the cheerful, personal attention she receives from our Miss Ida and her fashion staff.

Mrs. Augustus is one of the many smart dressers in Baltimore who enjoy the convenience of a Hendin Charge Account.

Alpha Phi Alphas All Set for Convention in Boston

with Lula Jones Garrett

When the Alphas meet in Boston, on the 19-20-21, for their Eastern Regional Convention, they will have licked two of their toughest convention problems, insufficient ducats for the Harvard-Yale football classic, and "dates" for out-of-town delegates to take to the Harvard-Yale Cabaret Party on Friday night.

The Campus Room of the Showboat with its recently-installed lifesize television screen has been reserved for cocktail-hour football parsty.

The Boston Chapter of Lambda Kappa Mu Professional Sorority has taken on the "date" problem and is enrolling—with the aid of the other sororities—a number of unattached girls into a Date Bureau. Miss Winton Yates, popular Boston miss, is in charge of the project.

With the convention almost a month away, approximately 50% of the 37 chapters in the eight-State region have made advance registrations for their delegates, according to Reynold Corts, president of Sigma Chapter, host to the convention. Already represented are chapters from as far South as Richmond, Va., and from as far West as Pittsburgh, Pa.

Louis H. Schuster, Eastern vice president, will call the convention to order at 2:00 p.m. on Friday Nov. 19, at the Professional and Business Men's Club, 543 Massachusetts Ave.

At a large meeting open to the general public in historic Faneuil Hall on Sunday afternoon, Dr. Charles H. Wesley, historian and educator, will speak on "Today's Challenge to Freedom." There will be no admission and the public is invited to attend.

HARRISONS HOSTS

Prior to the Silhouettes' barn dance on Friday night, the Miles Harrisons poured cocktails for Bonzella Miller, Delma May, Pauline Caulk, James Neal, Frank Gordon, Bernard Harris Jr. and the George Lottiers.

MRS. RATLEY HONOREE

Mrs. Thelma Ratley of Chicago, who has been seeing the town and section from the roof tree of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith, was the guest in whose honor Mrs. Smith poured cocktails on Saturday evening.

Wearing a smart green crepe made with short sleeves and square neckline, with pearls and black suede shoes, Mrs. Ratley greeted some forty-odd maids and matrons. The hostess was gowned in a black crepe cocktail frock with net yoke outlined in lace and made with a tier skirt. Her accessories were gold and black shoes of black suede.

Among those who called were:

Mesdames J. J. Logan Jenkins Sr., Frank Sykes, Lucius Butler, Frances Lukes, Pearlie Pennington, Mildred Holland;

Mesdames Harold Derry, Vivian Alleyne, Elizabeth Nicholas, Elizabeth Walker, George Paige, Blanche McRae, A. Jack Thomas, Frank Sorrell, Paul Perdue;

Mesdames Walter Webb, Lena Dickerson, Harold Seabrose, Fred Adams, Edward Fisher, Gerry Talbot, John Betty;

Mesdames Angeline Smith, William Wright, Mae Downs, Fannie White, Clarence Roberts, J. T. Gunn, Joseph Johnson;

Dr. Mabelle Weaver, Misses Carol Blanton, Dukye Woode and Lessadra Thomas.

POUPURRI

Justine Smith, who has been ensconsed in St. Josepha Hospital since her operation on Oct. 4, is home again. Vernice Reynolds and Iris Carpenter jaunted to Manhattan over the week end for a show of fashions. Baltimoreans pitched up a Philadelphia custom, last week. Showered visiting Thelma Ratley of Chicago with scores of gifts and flowers. Most elated Gal About Town after Tuesday's election surprise, who had been plugging for Mr. Dewey since her introduction to him at the convention. What is this they are saying about Fannie Howard, L. Leroy Taylor and romance?

Gerald Cook of Chicago and New York, who played for Libby Holman at the Progressive Party's rally, Sunday, was the house guest of Mrs. Laura Wheatley.

PLANS DANCE

The Cornelias, fourteen-year-old mothers' club who have supported various projects for children, are the nucleus of the Thirty Club. The husbands, realizing the importance of their wives' efforts have joined them to assist in their money-raising affa s.

The harvest dance to be held on Nov. 12 at the Elk's Hall is the first venture of the new group—proceeds will go to the youngest group of patients at Henryton Hospital, the Fablum Set.

Square dances, a Charleston contest and a door prize will be features of the evening.

Mesdames Emma L. Tucker is chairman assisted by Elsie Sessoms, co-chairman, Clementine Knox and Dorothy Lewis, invitations and tickets chairmen; and Lelia Powell, refreshman chairman. Mrs. Sadie Marshall is president.

SSS CLUB MEETS

The first meeting of the season of the SSS Club of women was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Cardozo as hostess at 1534 Druid Hill Ave. last Wednesday night.

After business, supper was served.

The following members were present:

Mrs. Marjorie Hawkins, Miss Frances Murphy, Mrs. Bertha Hatchett, Mrs. Beatrice Hawkins, Mrs. Nettie Brown, Mrs. Vashti Murphy and Mrs. Grace Murphy.

Absent ones were Mrs. Kate Brown, Mrs. Florence Carter, Mrs. Edna Reid and Mrs. Edwede Anderson and Mrs. Earl Anderson of Washington.

COUNTRY CLUB ENTERTAINS

The home of Thomas Jopes of Green Spring Valley was the scene of a Halloween party on Friday eve when his sons-in-law and daughters entertained.

Hosts were Messrs. and Mesdames Albert Diggs, Charles Gaskin and James Gwarthney. They entertained the members of The Country Pleasure Club, with a dinner party.

Present were:

Mrs. Mattie Fairfax, president; Mrs. Catherine Madden, Messrs. and Mesdames Jerome Scott, Frank Burns, John Laws, Raymond Johnson, Carter Frazier, Albert Diggs Jr., Clifford White, Mrs. Edith Cosby, Mrs. Edith Chatman, Thomas Jones, Miss Virgia Morris and Edwin Chatman.

DATE DATA

This (Friday) evening, Les Femmes will dance, formally, at the Morgan Hall. The "ULQR" will have their annual cocktail sip on the 14th in the Blue Room of the York Hotel. The stipend therefrom will benefit Provident Hospital. Last year the young women held forth in the same manner and garnered enough shekels to provide the hospital with a portable pressure suction pump.

MISS MATTHEWS FETED

Mrs. Lillian Walters held forth with a surprise miscellaneous shower, Saturday, in honor of Miss Zora Olivia Matthews who will be married Nov. 27. Among the guests present were:

Miss Marilyn Bridges, Miss Elenor Cole, Mrs. Arnita Griffin, Mrs. Mildred Hooper, Miss Violet Jennings, Miss Pearline Madison, Miss Elizabeth Manns, Mrs. Hester Matthews, Mrs. Ionnia Matthews, Miss Rosetta Waters, Mrs. Virginia Wheeler.

PALM—Mrs. Olivia Pope of 1211 Druid Hill Ave. entertained the club, last week. Plans were made for a supper party on Friday evening, Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. Janie Hawkins, 800 W. Lanvale Street.
