They Danced to Aid Needy Students

Members of the Silhouettes' Club, shown above, entertained at a barn dance in Baltimore last Friday evening, funds from which will be added to their scholarship fund. The group is made up of wives of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity members.

Silhouettes, Guests Frolic at Dance to Swell School Fund

Cute invitations in a rustic mood set the tone for the gay barn dance given by the Silhouettes, wives of Kappa Fraternity men, at Morgan Hall on Friday night.

The hostesses donned colorful ginghams, overalls, pedal pushers and what-have-you, tucked their tresses beneath big straw hats or tied them up in kerchiefs or ribbons (and the guests followed suit) provided a flock of food and drinks, and music for dancing.

Hostesses included:

Vera Williams, Beatrice Tucker, Bayonne Jones, Carolyn M. Morris, Gwendolyn Lynch, Marion Webb, Elizabeth Stewart, Gladys Johnson, Carolyn Willis, Etna Blackwell, Elizabeth Williams, Catherine Prisby, Beatrice Lancaster, Lydia Mussenden, Mary Jacobs, Henrietta Daugherty, Iola Minson, Anita Williams;

Grace E. Green, Anita Henson, Mary McPherson, Margaret Ewing, Bernice Watson, Frances Wood, Mattie Coasey and Bernita Harrison.

Mrs. Harrison is president of the club. The fee they garnered at the door will be used to swell their scholarship fund.

Attending the affair were:

Business and Professional Women in 13th Annual Session

REIDSVILLE, N.C. — The National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Clubs, with representatives from cities and towns ranging from Connecticut to Texas, held a confab here last week end.

The occasion was the thirteenth annual session of this group and was the second visit within a year to Reidsville since the national executive committee met here in April. The convention lasted three days, Oct. 29, 30 and 31, using the theme, "United for Peace and Security."

The principal address was given on Saturday, during a luncheon by Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, president of Palmer Institute, Sedalia, N.C.

Other speakers included Mrs. Ethah R. Boutte, medical social work consultant of American Cancer Research, New York City; Charles Brown, director of interracial activities, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis Inc., New York; the national president, Mrs. Florence M. Hill of Philadelphia, who extended greetings at the opening of the session on Saturday; and the local president, Miss Beatrice B. Lomax; and Miss Elizabeth Johnson of Baltimore.

Dr. Brown Honored

Dr. Brown was the recipient of the Community Service Award given by the clubs.

Telegrams From President

Local organizations sent greetings and baskets of flowers. Telegrams and greetings were received from President Harry S. Truman, Mrs. Maidie H. Xuma of South Africa, Gov. Gregg Cherry, Mayor W. A. Potter of Reidsville, Pearl Buck and Miss Frieda S. Miller of the Department of Labor.

The body voted that the community service award in the form of a scroll, to be given by each local club to an outstanding woman in the community, will be known as the Sojourner Truth Award. It also went on record as recommending the recognition of the part played by Sojourner Truth in the first Women's Rights Convention, which is celebrating its centenary this year. It voted to ask that a stamp be issued honoring her along with Lucretia Mott and Carrie Chapman Catt, who have been so honored.

Mrs. Odessa Young, founder of the national club, will be honored by a national Founder's Day on her birthday in April.

Mrs. Hill Re-elected

Mrs. Florence M. Hill was unanimously re-elected president. Thelma Young of Wilmington was elected first vice-president; Sadie McDonald, Reidsville, second vice-president; Mamie Hall, Camden, corresponding secretary; Bernice Greenage, Washington, recording secretary; Alberta Person, Brooklyn, financial secretary; Minnie D. Hurley, New York City, treasurer; Eunice O. White, Philadelphia, editor of the official organ, "Responsibility."

The New Haven Club, Mrs. Grace Dadd, president, will entertain the fourteenth convention next year.

Members of the Baltimore club attending were Mrs. Daisy B. Jones, president; Miss Elizabeth Johnson, junior president; Miss Jeannette Spriggs, Miss Hattie A. Tyler, Mrs. Virgie Waters, Miss Danna Lyles, Mrs. Caroline Randolph, Mrs. Mae le Smith and Mrs. Jillian S. Watty.

Vinson-Walker Betrothal Told

Mrs. Mary Walker of Staunton, Va., and this city, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Naomi E., to John C. Vinson.

The ceremony will take place, Saturday, at the home of the bride's mother, 813 Forrest St.

Mr. Vinson is the son of Mrs. Clarence B. Vinson of Clayton, N.C.

"The NEW tiny diamonds of LUX are wonderful!"

says Mrs. Fanny Dorsey Dennis
Philadelphia beautician

They give you faster, richer suds . . . keep nice washables lovely up to 3 times as long

Here's the really new way to care for your nice things. New, diamonds of Lux! There's nothing in the world just like these tiny, sheer diamonds.

They're so much faster . . . burst into suds at the touch of water. They're richer, last longer. They do more for you, too. Remove soil which other types of suds can't—leave fabrics cleaner, fresher.

Use these wonderful new Lux diamonds for all your nice washables. Colors stay lovely up to 3 times as long, tests show. So avoid harsh washing methods. Get your new Lux diamonds today. Anything safe in water is safe in this new Lux.

A SPENCER will MAKE YOUR WORK E-A-S-I-E-R

It will be designed especially for you to support abdomen and back—give you healthful posture and fine figure lines!
