

Q Next?

A Next is my brother, James Jones, of Basking Ridge, New Jersey, and his wife was named Helen, and they have four boys and one girl.

Q Was his name "Junior" by any chance - James, Jr.?

A Yes, he was named after my father.

The next is Robert Lee Jones, 98 Quitman Street, Newark, New Jersey. He has two daughters: Doris and Marion. His wife's name is Ellen. And I am next: Anna May Jones. I am a widow.

Q You have been married?

A I have been married and my husband is dead.

Q Your name is now Jones; did you marry a Jones?

A Yes.

Q Your name was Jones and you married a Jones?

A Yes. The next is Albert Jones, 52 Fairview Avenue, Somerville, New Jersey; and his wife is named Bessie, and there are three boys living and one girl.

The next is my sister, Jennie E. Jones, Somerville, Route 1.

Q Is Jennie Jones living?

A Yes, she is living.

Q We have Mrs. Jennie Jones here.

A This is her. There were three children dead in between: Harry, Ruth and Ava.

Q Were they married?

A No, they were babies. The next one is my sister, Josephine McKoy, 123 Madison Avenue, Westville, New Jersey. Her husband's name is George.

Next, Ferbie Morgan, 98 Susquehanna Avenue, Westville, New Jersey. Her husband's name is Philip. And the last, Louise Jones, who lives with my sister. She is from 123 Madison Avenue. That concludes the list of the children.

Q That is the list of the children of James Jones?

A Of James Jones.