High costs force us to ask for another increase in telephone rates

Higher wages an important factor

When rising costs forced us to ask for increased telephone rates in December, 1946, it was our first request for an increase since 1925. In the public's interest we asked for only the bare minimum required at that time.

Since then, telephone costs—like those of every other business—have gone up. Recent wage increases, together with the high costs of construction, materials and supplies, have brought our expenses to the highest level in history.

The rate increases previously granted are less than we asked for and much less than needed to meet today's increased costs of operation.

That is why we have asked the Public Service Commission for another increase in telephone rates.

Our earnings are not enough to attract investors' money

We must have sufficient income to meet our day-by-day operating costs. And there must be enough left to pay a fair and reasonable return to investors—the people whose money is used to build telephone facilities. Otherwise, these people will not continue to put their savings into the telephone business.

Since 1939, our plant investment has increased by over $70,000,000—or more than doubled. But our 1948 earnings for each dollar of plant investment are 25% lower than they were in 1939.

Our earnings under the rate increases granted are insufficient to attract the additional capital needed. And, without the investors' money, we cannot put up the buildings and add the equipment we need to meet public demand for service.

What we have done and what we plan to do to provide more and better telephone service in Maryland

To maintain good telephone service, we have spent more than $60,000,000 since V-J Day for buildings, central office equipment, cable, wire and other telephone plant. And we must spend $60,000,000 more in the next few years to meet the public's telephone needs.

This tremendous program will mean more dial service, more individual lines for party-line subscribers, additional facilities for faster local and long distance service, and improvement of telephone service in rural areas.

Good service at fair rates is in the public interest

We don't like to have to ask for higher telephone rates. But there is no other course open to us. Our financial situation is such that there is no margin in our earnings to absorb today's high operating costs.

Telephone service must not become a bottleneck to the growth and industrial development of the state. It must keep pace with the growing needs of Maryland and of your community!

It is our job to furnish the kind of telephone service you want and need. We are asking for only enough to do that job—and no more.

Telephone rates are up much less than most other prices

Compare today's prices with prewar prices. What do you pay today—

FOR FOOD? DOUBLE?
FOR CLOTHING? 90% MORE?
FOR MOST OTHER THINGS?

Telephone rates in Maryland have gone up, on the average, less than 20%.

Les Femmes Club Hostesses at First Formal of Little Season

One of the gayest affairs of the season was the formal dance given by Les Femmes Club, Friday night, at the Morgan Hall.

Mrs. Melvina Jackson and Dolly Chester entertained at a cocktail parties before the dance.

Autumn colored leaves and ferns decorated the hall and made a picturesque background for the lovely frocks. Each member of the club wore a corsage of pink roses tied in pea green ribbon on her wrist and a single rose to match in her hair.

Mrs. Natalie Mitchner looked very "senorita-ish" in a black taffeta strapless gown with a black sheer stole which she draped over her head.

Miss Dorothy Jackson was gowned in a midnight green and green plaid taffeta original copied from Vogue.

Beaded birds adorned the elegant black crepe dress worn by Mrs. Evelyn Bullitt. A rhinestone necklace and earrings completed her costume.

Mrs. Matthews in Black

Mrs. Virginia Matthews chose a black silk quilted affair trimmed in gold. Her accessories were also gold.

Mrs. Tessie Quarles wore a rust colored corduroy dress decorated with gold cords.

Gold sequins glimmered on the front of Mrs. Madelyne Pullen's black crepe gown.

Agnes Willis' white taffeta strapless gown was accented at the waist with a vivid red cummerbund which formed a bustle in the back.

Two Wear White

Mrs. Melvina Jackson donned a white jersey frock with a multi-colored bustle. Cerise gloves and a gold choker tied with a ribbon to match them added to her costume.

Mrs. Helen Gunthardp wore an attractive white jersey evening dress with a print top.

Mrs. A. Leroy Jackson's black taffeta frock with the black velvet cape which could double for a peplum was very chic.

A pink and green taffeta bow caught the sides of the navy strapless which Mrs. Hazel Spruill wore.

Mrs. Susie Watkins looked charming in a pink marquisette strapless bumber trimmed in red and silver sequins.

Miss Evelyn McKinney's cute white marquisette gown was trimmed in lace and formed a bow in the back.

Gold sequins set off Mrs. Nellie Wright's black crepe.

Mrs. Mabel Yancey was garbed in a low cut white brocade creation. Gold crocheted gloves and other gold accessories completed the costume.

Hostesses included:

Mesdames Susan J. Watson, Madeline Pullen, Tessie Quarles, Nathalie Mitchener, Melvina A. Jackson, Agnes Willis.

Mesdames Hazel Spruill, Dolly Chester, Nellie M. Wright; Miss Virginia Matthews, Miss Dorothy Jackson and Mrs. Helen R. Gunthrp.

Their guests were:

Baltimore Gets League Guild

An Urban League Guild, an auxiliary group to the Baltimore Urban League and an affiliate of the National Urban League Guild of New York City, was organized, here, Thursday.

The unit was the ninth to be set up during the past year and a half. Other guilds are now located in Richmond, Norfolk, Atlanta, Louisville, Memphis, Little Rock, Fort Worth and Jacksonville.

Function of the organization is to publicize the league movement among groups and individuals, to interpret the program of local and the national leagues and to lend financial support to the program.

Miss Chisholm Organizes

The organization on Thursday evening was effected through Miss Isobel J. Chisholm, director of promotion and publicity of the national office.

A steering committee named to serve until officers are elected included Mrs. Rebecca Gregg, Mrs. Elizabeth Nicholas, Miss Ethel Freeman, Mrs. Anita Edwards, Miss A. Dukye Woode, Mrs. Lillian Turner, Miss Dorothea Nevins, Dr. Catherine L. Shultz and Mrs. Maud B. Smart.

Sixty charter members were listed at the session.

Mrs. Muriel Johnson presided.

Mrs. Beffie Reeler, R. W. Lewis Engaged

WASHINGTON

The engagement of Mrs. Beffie Reeler, 2114 L St., N.E., and Raymond W. Lewis, 504 44th St., N.E., has been announced by her father, William Marshall of LaPlata Md.

The bride-elect is an employee at the United States Government Printing Office, while Mr. Lewis is employed in the Post Office Department. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lewis.

The wedding will be solemnized, Nov. 21, at 4 p.m., at 3513 10th St., N.W., with the Rev. Mr. Allen, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Gertrude Goodwin will be matron of honor and Robert Sturdevant will be best man. A reception at the 10th St. address, from 6 till 8 p.m., follows the wedding rites.

Bona Finitimi Club Planning Musical Tea

The Bona Finitimi, a charitable organization which fosters the aim to help those in need, is sponsoring a musical tea on Nov. 21 for the benefit of Provident Hospital.

The tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Mooney, 714 N. Arlington Ave.

Last week the group presented six dozen diapers and a dozen shirts to the Children's Ward of Provident.
