Man, 23, Gets 6 Months for Wounding Woman

William Rozier, 23, of 763 W. Lexington St., was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction, Wednesday, when convicted of stabbing Miss Mabel Faulkner, also of the Lexington St. address.

Magistrate Frank J. Schap imposed the prison term.

Ready for That Man From Missouri

Samuel T. Jackson, custodian of the President's office in the White House since 1909, gives the President's chair an extra fine polishing as the staff of the Executive Mansion prepared to welcome Mr. Truman back to Washington where he will remain for the next four years. Thanks to the voters of the country, who showed in the Presidential election last Tuesday that they did not desire the "change" offered by his GOP opponent, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Discharge 'Party' Has Sad Ending

One woman was sentenced to a year in prison, and a white Army veteran from Alabama, was out of $400, Monday, as a result of an interracial party staged in celebration of his discharge from the service.

The ex-soldier, Dewey Denton, testified that he had been released from the Army at Aberdeen, Md., on Oct. 31, when he met Miss Lillian Hunter of the 600 block Franklin St. in a Pennsylvania Ave. bar.

He said they went to the home of Miss Pauline Coates in the 1000 block Argyle Ave., and that he missed $400 the next morning. The money was never recovered.

Judge Niles acquitted Miss Coates on charges of stealing the money and running a disorderly house, but convicted Miss Hunter on a morals charge.

When he imposed the sentence of one year, Judge Niles indicated that he would discuss the possibility of probation for Miss Hunter with the protective service division of the welfare department.

Miss Hunter denied that the evening's celebration went any further than a drinking party. She said some $80 Officer Jerome Glass found her carrying the next day in a baby's shoe was given her by her boy-friend to "pay some bills."

Miss Hunter was not charged with stealing the soldier's money.

Purse Snatcher Given 6½ Years

Sentences totaling six and one half years in the House of Correction were imposed, Monday, upon John A. Turner, 27, convicted purse snatcher.

The man, who lives in the 900 block Pierce St., was first arrested on March 26, when Patrolmen Carl Small and Walter Lewis answered the screams of Mrs. Genevieve Lonesome, 814 Fulton Ave., and caught Turner in an alley near Edmondson and Arlington Aves.

James F. Price, assistant State's attorney, told Judge Emory Niles that before Turner came to trial on charges of robbing Mrs. Lone-some of her purse, he was committed to Crownsville Hospital and later escaped from there.

On Aug. 1, however, Mrs. Elisabeth Bristol of the 1300 block Franklin St., reported that her purse was snatched at Edmondson Ave. and Carlton St.

Ticket Trips Him

One of the items in Mrs. Bristol's purse that evening was a railroad ticket to Missouri, which she had purchased for days earlier to attend a Masonic convention there.

Working on this case, Officer Paul Wagner warned railroad officials to be on the lookout for the ticket, which had been stamped on the back with a number assigned to each of the persons scheduled to attend the convention.

It developed that a grocer, Meyer Dobrowski of the 500 block Fremont Ave., turned up at the railroad station to cash in the ticket, and he revealed that it had been sold to him for ready cash by Turner.

Judge Niles convicted Turner on charges of robbing Mrs. Lonesome, and found him guilty of receiving the stolen ticket, in Mrs. Bristol's case. Turner claimed that the ticket had been sold to him by a man on the street.

Active Members Night

An interesting program that includes weight-lifting demonstrations, a movie and a television from the Coliseum, has been planned for the first annual Active Members Night at the Druid Hill YMCA on Nov. 16.

The program will enable the active (voting) members of the Y to enjoy a night of entertainment when they visit the building for a business meeting at 8:15 p.m.

At the business session, the board of managers for the coming year will be elected from a slate submitted by a nominating committee.

Members of the nominating committee are Dr. Evan A. Gilkes, chairman; Truly Hatchett, Charles Lawson, Alonzo Lancaster and the Rev. Cedric E. Mills.

According to a schedule announced by William H. Kindle, Y executive secretary, the activities will begin at 7 p.m., with wrestling and weight-lifting demonstrations, followed by a movie "The Invincible Bridge" at 7:30.

Suspect in Pickpocket Stunt Denies Guilt

Although identified from a line-up of eight men as the one who robbed Jan Bayne, white, of $90, Frank Smith, alias William Howard, advanced the alibi that he was in a restaurant at the time.

Smith, also known as "Peaches," of 327 W. Sehnor St., said that it was probably his friend from Cherry Hill who looks like him who committed the robbery.

Mr. Bayne testified that Smith had asked him the time, Saturday night, and when he began to look at his watch, Smith grabbed and broke it.

Missed Wallet Later

He heard a rip. he said, just before Smith ran out, but because of his concern over his watch, he did not miss his wallet for several minutes.

He could not chase Smith because he is crippled with a broken hip, but he did get a good look at him, Bayne added.

Smith is being held for trial under $1500 bail.

IN MEMORIAM
BROOKS, In memory of our beloved sister, Marguerite, who passed away November 11, 1946.
Dear sister, you are not forgotten,
Nor will you be while we live;
Still the memory may grieve us,
As you always were before.
Fondly loved and deeply mourned by
Sister, MARY, HELEN and OLLIE MAE.
CONTEE, In loving memory of my dear husband, JOHN H. CONTEE, who passed away November 13, 1945.
GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN
Dear Jack, it seems so long ago
And we are sitting all alone
In our hearts there comes a longing
For you only could come home.
Friends may come we have forgotten you
Time may pass and we may smile
But little do they know our heart aches
That lie behind that smile.
We miss you in the road that path
Where we used to walk
Where rests the one we loved so dear,
But whom we could not save.
Dark days and nights you bore your pain,
Dear Jack, we did our part
And we saw that you were suffering
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he (God) in his loving care
Transplanted Grace to thine
Where you will be happy, CHILDREN.
Dear mother, in loving memory of our dear mother, ANNIE BOWIE, who departed this life sixty years ago, November 13, 1888.
Down in my heart lies a picture,
Hung there by memory's hand
Of a mother I shall love to cherish
Because she was one of the best.
Loving Daughter, ELONA.
DUPPINS—In sad but loving memory of our dear mother, ANNIE HALL DUPPINS, who departed this life sixty years ago, November 13, 1888.
Today my heart is heavy,
My eyes are dim with tears
To know I miss you, mother dear,
Now but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But I find it not so true
For eighteen long years have passed,
And my heart still aches for you.
My lips cannot tell how I miss you,
My heart cannot tell what I feel
God alone knows how I miss you,
He has taken you home to dwell.
Dearest Lady: Thy purpose we know
But all is well that's done by thee.
Sister Ella Lewis Hampton.
Sister, ELLA.
DUPPINS, In loving memory of our beloved mother, ELIZABETH DUPPINS, who departed this life sixty years ago, November 13, 1888.
Sixty years a friend and lover was you,
Sixty years a friend and a teacher too
Sixty years a friend and lover was you,
Sixty years we miss you.
MARY BURRELL.
LEWIS, In loving memory of our dear aunt ELLA, who passed away one year ago, November 13, 1947.
Gone from earth and being in heaven,
Fresh with every changing year,
But your memory will be cherished,
In the hearts that hold you dear.
Dear Aunt Ella, we miss you
All in self-denial you lived for others
Loving Nieces.
LILY BOND and MATTIE BELL.
RANDALL—In loving memory of our dear mother, MARGARET RANDALL, who departed this life seventeen years ago, November 2, 1947.
Lying out yonder
Mrs. C. A. EDWARDS, Baltimore
MRS. ELLA RANDALL, Baltimore
MRS. ESTHER BARGE, New York
MRS. ANNIE BOWIE, Baltimore
ALBERT, ALONZO, SCOTT, MISS ANNIE EDWARDS, Norfolk, Va.
SUMNER—In loving memory of our dear aunt, MARY M. SUMNER, who passed away November 13, 1947.
We often think of her who is gone,
Her memory is the only friend that grief can call its own.
Lone is her home, neglected the hearth, where joy and love dwelt of yore
Our love for her will still keep green, and grief will last the more.
HER FAMILY.
TURNER—SUSIE, who passed away November 13, 1947.
Dear Susie, we miss you in life's picture,
A lovely one we have lost to view,
In memories frame I shall keep it,
Where it shows of the work of a true.
MARY JONES, sister; MRS. HOLLEY SAMUEL, NEPHEW; JAMES, ROBERT and Sister, ANNIE SMITH.
WATSON—In loving remembrance of our son and brother, CLIFTON L., who passed away 8 years ago, November 13, 1940.
Deep in our hearts lies a picture,
Of a loved one laid to rest
In memory's frame we shall keep it,
Where it shows of the work of a true.
Loving Mother, Father, Brother and Sisters.
WILSON—In loving remembrance of our dear wife, mother and daughter, ANNA J. WILSON, who died Nov. 13th, 1943.
Time speeds on, two years have passed,
Since death its shadow cast
Within our home, where all seemed
Bright and fair.
And took from us a loving wife,
We miss that light and ever will.
Your smile, your voice, your kind advice,
Were never to remain with us long.
For up in Heaven we will meet again,
Never to part.
NATHAN WILSON
Dear mother, home is not forgotten
Though on earth you are no more,
Still in memory we hold you dear
Not in memory alone, but in our hearts
A wonderful mother, nurse and aid,
One who was true and kind never could
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
Dear mother, we miss your counsel
Your kind advice, your helping hand
Loved by your friends and all whom you knew
My wonderful mother—that mother was
MARY
Sincerely Mother,
LYDIA JONES.
WHITE, A tribute of love to the memory of our dear mother, Mary L., who passed away October 13, 1938.
There is a little word called, "Mother,"
Oh! how it thrills the heart
With a tenderness and beauty
That for her is set apart.
In all the world of mothers,
In all the world of mothers
We know we know that there are others,
In our hearts there is only one.
HER DEVOTED CHILDREN.
