FIRST DIVISION AT STAKE IN GRID CLASH

Hampton vs. Morgan Held as Toss-up Here Saturday

Expect 10,000 to Witness Bears' Final Game of Season; Records About Equal

BALTIMORE

The Morgan-Hampton game tomorrow (Saturday) poses a problem for football prognosticators, what with neither team boasting a proud record for the season and both deeply involved in battles for first-division ranking in the CIAA for the year.

A glance at the records shows Morgan with a 3-3 standing for the six games played against Hampton's 2-3-1 for a like number of contests. This would indicate that there isn't much to choose between the two rivals in this respect.

Further study reveals that Morgan might be a slight favorite on the basis of performances against common foes. The Bears, for instance, defeated Howard, 13-2, and the Pirates lost to Howard, 6-0. At the same time, Morgan lost to Lincoln, by 12-7, while Hampton was defeated, 12-0, by the Lions.

Yet, there is little comfort for Morganites in a review of their championship meeting with A. and T. For the same Aggies who conquered the Bears, 6-0, were easy prey to the Buccaneers by a margin of 21-0.

Homecoming Game

Eddie Hurt's charges enjoy a psychological advantage in this one coming up, however, one which the Pirates may find difficult to overcome. The Bears will be playing their homecoming game and there will be upward of 10,000 rabid Orange and Blue supporters in Hughes Stadium when the kickoff time arrives.

There is a possibility that, with good weather, the crowd may exceed that estimate, particularly since it will be the locals' swan song in Baltimore for 1948. As usual, the Bears will take off next Saturday to await their annual Turkey Day clash with Virginia State at Petersburg.

While the Bears have amassed a total of 125 points against their opponents in six games to date, 70 more than their foes have tallied in the same number, Jimmy Carter is known to have a solid defensive team in his Blue and White youngsters from alongside the Chesapeake Bay.

Howard Harriers Win 3rd Straight

WASHINGTON

Howard University harriers, capturing the first four places, won their third straight cross-country meet with a 17-41 victory over National Airport Army Base team, Monday, on the latter's course.

Stanley Womack led teammates to the tape in 21 minutes, 23 seconds over the four-mile course, barely nipping William Hinton at the tape. Hinton was timed in 21 minutes, 25 seconds.

Other Howard runners finishing in the order were Norvel Lee, third; Robert Cameron, fourth; and George Lee, fifth.

James Bruce, bespectacled, long-striding Bison ace, did not compete, having been admitted to the hospital where he underwent an operation following an attack of appendicitis. His condition is reported good.

Results

Womack (H), first; Hinton (H), second; N. Lee (H), third; Cameron (H), fourth; Emens (NAAB), fifth; Rice (NAAB), sixth; G. Lee (H), seventh; Land (H), eighth; McCullough (NAAB), ninth; McCarthy

Ready to Quit Newark Eagles

Mrs. Manley Says 'Just Impossible to Continue'

"We are not quitters, but it is just impossible for us to continue," Mrs. Effa Manley stated Monday in confirming the disbanding of the Newark Eagles, Newark representatives in the Negro National Baseball League.

Mrs. Manley, co-owner and business manager of the disolving club which has been a member of the league since 1935, continued to express bitterness against Branch Rickey.

She accused the president of the Brooklyn Dodgers of trying to wreck colored baseball and accused colored baseball fans of being "gullible" in believing Rickey was interested in anything more than gate returns and hiring colored players.

Won 1946 Title

The Eagles first operated in Brooklyn and came to Newark in 1935. They have played their home games at Ruppert Stadium and in 1946, won the colored world championship.

Interracial Cage Quints Victorious

Baltimore's two interracial basketball teams defeated their respective opponents Thursday night, the Fultons downing the Centaurs, 41-16, and the Easterwood Pro gressive A.C. tripping Battery A.C., 30-19.

Charles and Hudson, with 14 and 12 points, respectively, set the scoring pace as the Fultons captured their second straight game of the young season.

The victory over the Battery five gave the Easterwoods an even-with-the-board record for the campaign to date, they having dropped their opening game last week to the aggregation.

Fultons and Easterwoods face Camp Holabird teams tomorrow (Saturday) night at Holabird.

Pellone Replaces Janiro vs. Gavilan

NEW YORK — Tony Pellone, New York Italian, has been substituted for Tony Janiro, of Youngstown, Ohio, for the 10-round welterweight go at Madison Square Garden Friday night against Kid Gavilan, of Cuba.

The substitution was made Monday when 20th Century Sporting Club officials were told Janiro could not go through with the bout.

Second Army Cagers Top Easterwoods With Ease

A smooth-working Second Army quint (white) romped to an easy 42-29 victory over the Easterwood A.C., interracial basketball team, at Richmond Market Armory Saturday night.

The visitors, possessed of superior height and experience, enjoyed a front-running win all the way. Maj. Valentine (Dutch) Lentz, former West Point cage coach, watched his hardwooders post a 19-13 advantage at halftime.

From that point on, there was little of the aspect of "contest" to the rough-and-tumble fusslin. Ted Kachnowski, of the victors, copped scoring honors with a 16-point output and George Pretlow led the Easterwood five by virtue of his 10-point contribution.

On Thursday night, the Easterwoods will oppose the Battery A.C. cagers on the preliminary card to the Baltimore Bullets at the Coliseum.

Scene From the Capital Classic

Halfback Joseph Tompkins (65) of Virginia State, picked up five yards on the above play before being stopped by West Virginia State's Clarence Clark (77), right end, and Halfback Oliver Ellis (56), midway in the second quarter of the seventh annual Capital Classic at Griffith Stadium Saturday night. West Virginia State won, 18-2.

Capital Classic Pays Off

Lincoln Hard Pressed to Down Fisk in Mud

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Fisk University held a favored Lincoln University eleven of Pennsylvania to a 6-0 decision here Saturday night before 3,000 spectators.

The game was marked by poor field conditions, and the spirited playing of an underdog Fisk eleven. It was a moral victory for Fisk.

Little took place in the first quarter, Lincoln gaining only 19 yards rushing. In the second quarter, play was equally poor, but with about seven minutes left to go Lincoln managed to score on a 25-yard pass from Smith to Bob Branch. The conversion was unsuccessful.

This was the only score of the game although Lincoln threatened twice in the fourth quarter. The first threat was a 50-yard push to the Fisk 1-yard line where the ball was lost on downs. The second time was when the ball went over for a supposed touchdown only to be called back for a 15-yard penalty against Lincoln.

There was another penalty on the next play, and the game dragged on from there. It was the end of any real action.

The game was slow and action mediocre, largely due to the muddy ground from a heavy rain the day before. For Lincoln George Harmon was outstanding, this being his first game of the year. His backfield work was superb.

In the line Frank McRay and Capt. Sidney Bridgeforth did well. Julius Parker saved Fisk from many a tight spot by his excellent kicking.

Teacher, 31, Wins AAU Distance Run

PHILADELPHIA

Showing both speed and stamina, a 31-year-old history teacher at Lincoln University annexed the Junior National AAU 30-kilometer championship here Sunday.

Thomas M. Jones, making his first appearance in the competition since 1940, won by covering the 18.65 miles in one hour, 47 minutes and 19 seconds.

Thirty-four harriers from Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey and Massachusetts, traversed a course that started at the C.R. Club, 310-312 S. Darien St., and which ran to City Hall, out the Parkway and East River Drive to Lincoln Drive and return.

Gets Long Lead

Jones, former track captain at Earlham (Ind.) College, enjoyed his biggest advantage at the five-mile mark, when he led by a quarter-mile. The runner-up, Warren Dupree, Foxboro (Mass.), was a city block behind Jones at the finish.

Jones finished sixth in the competition eight years ago. He holds a master's degree from Haverford College and is now studying for his doctorate.

Bisons Triumph in Mixed Tilt

WASHINGTON

With forward Felix Blake scoring twice in the second half, Howard University's soccer team kept its undefeated record intact with a 2-0 triumph over Bloomsburg (Pa.) Teachers in an interracial tilt, Friday, on the Bisons' athletic field.

The contest marked the first time a white soccer team has engaged the Bisons on the Hilltop athletic field, and gave the locals their second victory over the visitors this season. Howard defeated Bloomsburg, 4-2, recently on the latter's ground.

The Howard booters extended their streak to eight games, beginning in 1947.

The lineups:

BLOOMSBURG

FORWARDS — Davis, Dent, Hartman, Getcher, Johnson, Reichert.
HALFBACKS — Henry, Heydenrich, Blake.
FULLBACKS — Singer, Hulsizer, Baker, Obshro.
GOALIE — Kline, Pugile.

Hornets Rate as Dangerous Foe, Coach Jackson Asserts

Howard Mentor Puts Hopes in Aerial Attack; Looks to Lincoln U. Contest

WASHINGTON

Gradually overcoming an up and down early-season performance, Howard University Bisons will seek their fourth consecutive win when they have to face Delaware State Hornets, tomorrow night (Saturday), at Dover, Del.

A confident Howard eleven is gunning to sweep its remaining two games, Delaware and Lincoln, but has been cautioned by Coach Eddie Jackson not to under estimate the Tank Conrad-coached gridders who are still dangerous.

The Delaware tilt cannot be classed a breather game as the Hornets looked bad in only two games this season, losing to both Wilberforce and Morgan, 41-0, Coach Jackson said.

He recalled that Delaware topped Lincoln, 7-6, and put up a stiff battle against N.C. while losing 34-0, and Winston-Salem to whom they bowed, 12-7.

In addition to its victory over Lincoln, Delaware topped J. C. Smith, 14-12, and drubbed St. Paul, 48-0.

Expects Strong Foe

Expecting plenty of opposition from the Hornets, Coach Jackson disclosed that he is anticipating a strong ground attack led by Claude Epps, 180-pound former All-CIAA boxer, combined with a formidable air assault with the Hart brothers, Hutch and William, from Irondale, Ohio, as the backbone of the strategy.

Although Delaware's line averages close to 200 pounds and appears sluggish at times, it is scrappy and seldom yields much yardage through the center anchored by Bill Stephenson at tackle and Jimmy Price at guard on the strong side of the line.

The Hornets, employing their single-wing strategy, upset Howard, 19-7, two years ago at Dover, but received a 27-0 drubbing last season at Brooks Stadium in a mud battle.

Ross to Star

Reflecting over his 6-0 victory over Hampton last Saturday, Coach Jackson appeared impressed over his newly-clicking passing combination, Charles Ross to Donald Jones, which accounted for the winning TD, and emphasized both will see plenty of service.

In addition to hurling the winning TD, Ross, a 180-pound junior from Armstrong High School (D.C.), completed four or five straight passes, Coach Jackson revealed. Jones, after taking Ross's pass, eluded three tacklers, and sprinted to pay dirt.

Other performers showing up favorably in the Hampton game and slated for action against the Hornets are Cliff Lee, 180-pound end from Atlantic City, N.J.; Ralph Spencer, 200-pounder from Armstrong High (D.C.); and Alexander Parker, 185-pound halfback from Cardozo, who got off several good punts from his own end zone.

To Travel by Bus

The Bisons, 45 strong, will leave the Hilltop Saturday morning, for Dover by bus.

The locals' probable starting lineup will include: Lee, 180, and Spencer, 200, ends; John Carter, 185, and Sam Jordan, 215, tackles; Otto Jordan, 190, and William Bell, 165, guards; Jug Marshall, 180, center; Ross, 180, quarterback; Asahel Abrams, 180, and Chris Roberson, 185, halfbacks; and Sandy Greene, 215, fullback.

Satch Blanks Stars, but Team Loses

LOS ANGELES (ANP) — Satchel Paige exhibited the best hurling seen on the barnstorming circuit since the year, but his team lost to Gene Bearden's All-Stars, 8-7, before 10,000 fans at Wrigley Field last Sunday.

Ol' Satch easily outpitched his teammate on the world champion Cleveland Indians and led the game with a 7-0 lead after the sixth inning. He struck out five men and even drove in a run in the first game of a twin-bill as his Kansas City Royals slammed Bearden for seven runs.

With Lamarque, Porter and Miller twirling the last three frames the major and minor league players scored eight runs while Murray Dickson held Paige's team scoreless.

In the six-inning nightcap the Royals rallied for four runs in the fifth to defeat Bob Lemon and the all-stars, 5-2.
