Clergyman Weds Business Woman

Thirty Club's Harvest Dance to Benefit Henryton's Children

The Thirty Club bedecked Elks Home with clever rural decorations, invited in several hundred friends, dispensed hot dogs and soft drinks and had a romping good time, Friday, all as an aid for the children's ward of Henryton Hospital

Clever was the decor, with its signpost near the entrance with a Welcome sign, a Farm mother scare crow, pumpkins and all, in the center, and the prospects of a rail fence swerving down the scene to the rear of the orchestra.

Hosts, hostesses and guests donned ginghams, overalls, slacks, or what-have-you, danced to a specially arranged program of

Giving the affair were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Burkett, Calvin Douglass, James Gilliam, Talmadge Hill, Marshall K. Hood, W. A. C. Hughes Jr., C. C. Jackson Jr., Henry Johnson, Charles King.

Fraternity to Donate $700 to Cheltenham

During a program to be held on Sunday at 3 p.m. at the Cheltenham Training School, members of Zeta Sigma chapter of the Epsilon Beta Sigma Fraternity will present to the institution's board of management a check for $700, part of their $3000 pledge for a library for the school.

The school choir will sing; and Edward N. Wilson, secretary of the board, will welcome the guests. The address of presentation will be made by Alfred A. Dixon, Sigma chapter president.

Dr. Henry to Take Check

Dr. Robert J. Hill, secretary-treasurer, has been chosen to turn the check over to Dr. William E. Henry, Cheltenham board head, who will respond.

The public is invited to this meeting, at which John W. Woodhous will preside.

Community Center's Dedication Scheduled

The Turners Station community center building, which was purchased with funds raised by residents last spring, will be formally dedicated at 4 p.m. on Dec. 5.

This announcement was made by Dr. Eugene D. Byrd, acting chairman of the center's managerial board.

The building, which is located in Ernest Lyons Homes and valued in excess of $35,000, formerly housed a nursery school.

$7,000 Raised in Campaign

It was declared war surplus early this year and the Turners Station Progressive Association, under Dr. Arthur L. Johnson, immediately launched an effort to acquire the structure for recreational purposes.

The association made arrangements with the Federal Government to buy the building and sponsored the fund-raising drive for $10,000 of which a total of $7,000 was raised.

Programs have already been arranged to raise the balance due and set up an operating fund for the center. First among these will be the presentation of the Baltimore Boys Choir at Sellers Point High School on Dec. 12.

Beauticians' Concert Chairman Appointed

NEWARK

Mrs. Laura M. Ross has been named general chairman for the concert featuring James Dean, English baritone soloist, which will be presented at King Hiram Craftsman's Center, 106 Broad St., on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 28.
