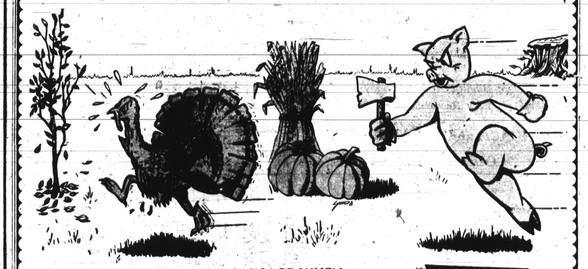
PORKY PIG SAYS—
"Wait a minute Tom, the gleam in my eyes is by no means entirely for you — I have just got to stuff you with CRAYTON'S Sausage — 'cause we make a fine combination."

A TASTE TREAT FOR YOU!

Holiday time, and here's Chef Porky all ready to give you an idea that is sure to ring a bell with your family and guests. It's his version of a dressing that will make your bird tempting and tasty for a real holiday treat. It's not the turkey alone that makes your holiday dinner perfect. It's everything that goes with it. Do you know that the seasoning from the stuffing penetrates into the turkey to give it extra flavor. And when we speak of flavor, well it's CRAYTON'S Sausage that can give your stuffing the best flavor in the world.



ORDER YOUR CRAYTON SAUSAGE WHEN YOU ORDER YOUR BIRD.

RECIPE: CHICKEN OR TURKEY STUFFING

½ pound CRAYTON'S Sausage
1 pan corn bread (or 1 loaf stale bread)
2 cups diced white bread
1 cup celery
salt and pepper to taste
2 small onions
1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1 egg
1 teaspoon paprika
sprig parsley

Fry sausage meat 10 minutes with onions, celery and parsley. Crumble corn bread and white bread in bowl. Add seasoning and sausage mixture. Salt and pepper turkey or chicken inside and out. Stuff and bake.

Thanksgiving Program to Offer More than Feasting

with Lula Jones Garrett

Now, let us see how things are happing up for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Come Thursday and, of course, scores of the natives will follow the college crowd to Petersburg for the annual Turkey Day classic with Morgan and Virginia State in the tussle.

The following day has a hefty schedule. Would you be interested than jaunt to the YWCA at night, where the Book-A-Month Club has invited friends to their open meeting to hear Dr. A. Wormley speak on The American Novel of 1948; or if sentimentality is your dish, then to Grace Presbyterian Church where Cecelia Owings will plight her troth to David Driver at 5 p.m.; or if you are in a very gay mood, then by all means drop in on Club 135's "Bad Taste Party" at Elks Auditorium.

The latter sent out the most amusing invitations of the season, promising that George A. Brown, Melvin Callaman, H. Garland Chisnell Jr., Jerrold Griffin, Thomas W. Harris, U. Theodore Harris, Jesse Hurt, Sterling Johnson, Bill Pinderhughes, John Procope Jr., Chuck Richards, Douglas E. Roberts, Charles Thompson and Vincent Tubbs (in absentia) will guarantee a high old time.

If you feel lucky you might try the card party the Hampton Alumni is having on the same evening (Friday) at the YMCA. Lois Carter heads this group, and Margaret Williams is in charge of the party.

ALL GOOD DEEDS

The past week was full of "good deed" doings. On Sunday night dropped in at the Blue Room of York Hotel where the JUG's were hustling like scullery maids as they piled their umpire guests with cocktails and hor'deuves—all for a fee and the price to go to their fund, which aids Provident Hospital.

They are a bunch of cutie pies, and you couldn't imagine such fine egos going to the task of waiting on so many guests that they had them standing in line.

In the group are Delle Avant, Rose Whittaker, Millie Brackett, Eunice Rogers, Virginia Biddle, Catherine Watson, Ella Bailey, Mable Hogan, Madeline Pyles and Coral McLaughlin.

Not only were they exuding charm upon guests to draw out the shekels, but had used it upon the top entertainers then in town, who popped in between their shows and crooned for the girl's guests.

And speaking of using personality where it did the most good, members of the Thirty Club turned on theirs to draw out the town's big fee shots for their dance on Friday night. And draw them they did. At the first counting they had garnered near to $400, with a bunch of tickets still to be accounted for. The money they collected will be used for the needs of children at Henryton Sanitarium.

Cute incident of the dance — the door prize, a pressure cooker which Eugene Prettyman won, was exactly what the Mrs. had requested a week before as an anniversary gift.

WYCHE-DIGGS WEDDING

Alice Diggs and Vernon Wyche, both of Hampton, Va., were married here on Saturday at 8 p.m. by the Rev. Willis J. Winston at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Jackson.

The bride wore a brown suit and hat, white kid gloves, silver fox furs adorned with an orchid. The matron of honor, Mrs. Jackson, wore a black faille suit with a grey feather hat and an orchid.

The bridegroom wore a grey suit as did the best man, Herbert E. Jackson, brother-in-law of the bride.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Corrine Turner of Hampton, Mrs. Marguerite Burd, Leon Henry and Mrs. Adella Whaley of Easton, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Mills, Mrs. Frances Bee, Frank Diggs, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper G. Diggs, Mrs. Alberta Day, Miss Josephine Brooks, Mrs. Marian Barnes, Mrs. Alfreida Steward of here about.

CLUB DOINGS

Florence Gloster was hostess to the Auxiliary to the Maryland Dental Society, this week, when the group discussed program plans including a Christmas party and continued sponsorship of the Provident Dental Clinic.

They recently added a new X-ray to equipment of the clinic, for which they are mainly responsible.

About were Vivian Alleyne, Mary Hackett, Mary White, Mamie Jones, Llewellyn Walker, Alice Sykes, Waltye Doles, Dr. Maybelle Weaver and Eula M. Watts.

The Baltimore Chapter of the National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses met at Provident Hospital on Wednesday, heard talks from their two advisors, Dr. Bernard Harris and Dr. Robert Jackson. Completed plans for their card party tonight (Friday) at Druid Health Center and cooked up new ones for a musical tea on Dec. 12.

At the session were Bernice Brown, Aleda Parker, Nannie Bass, Elsie Harris, Mabel Hawkins, Beatrice Buford, Mildred Gambrill, Edith Fields, Pearl Winston, Agnes Williams, Juanita King, Matilda Young, Louise Lockerman, Edna Gover, Ada Veney, Anita Henson, Mary Fitchett, Mildred Hughlett, Vivian Pendleton, Lottie Dickerson and Panida Friend.

C. R. Campbell was hostess to the Monumental City Medical Auxiliary on Thursday. They, too, planned a benefit for Provident Hospital to be held the first of the year.

At the session were Mesdames Albert Burwell, George Adams, M. L. Barksdale, Gilbert Banfield, John Chaney, Berkley Butler, William Coleman, and president, Mrs. Bernard Harris.

The Maryland League of Women's Club issued their 1948-49 Year Book, this week, with a detailed account of their six-point program. Alice Arrington is president of the League.

The Philomathians, meeting with Mrs. Joshua Maxwell on Saturday, heard Linwood Koger, attorney, of the Citizens Planning and Housing Association.

Attending the session were Mesdames Mildred Holland, W. A. C. Hughes, Carl Murphy, T. I. Brown, William Wright, Mae Downs, William Phillips, Elmer Burgess, John Hampton, Ralph Cook, Martin Jenkins and Frederick Dedmond; and Misses A. Dakye Woode and Margaret Williams.

MORGAN FRESHMEN FETED

Recently all freshmen and new students at Morgan State College were entertained at an afternoon tea in the spacious parlors of Truth House by Mrs. Thelma Preyer Bande, dean of women.

The entire color scheme for the tea was orange, green and rust, with motifs of turkeys and pumpkins, symbolic of the Thanksgiving season.

The directors of residence halls, Mrs. Arnetta Ford and Mrs. Alberta Wylie, poured, and members of last year's Charm Club acted as hostesses. Miss Ruth Ann Collins, of Frederick, Md., was mistress of ceremonies.

Participating on the program were Misses Hazel Snead, Clara Skipwith, Verdell Church, Joyce Denby, Lois Wilson, Gloria Tucker and Lillier Parrott.

FINNEYS FOR COCKTAILS

Mr. and Mrs. Radcliffe B. Finney entertained at a cocktail party on Saturday night in the honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Malone from Cleveland, Ohio, who were their house guests for the week end.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kye Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews, Md. and Mrs. Billy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Evans, Donald Mack, Miss Tucker and Cornelius Tingley.

ZETAS MEET

Alpha Zeta chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. met on Monday evening at the YWCA.

A resume of the recent meeting in Baltimore of the Atlantic Regional was made by several sorors who were in attendance. Soror Evelyn Hunt of New York was the guest speaker at the dinner meeting held at the Morgan Christian Center.

The Parent-Consultation Service met with the P-TA of School No. 138 last Thursday and had a profitable session having Mrs. C. Robinson as principal speaker.

On Dec. 6 the service will have a similar gathering at Douglass High School to be the discussion, the Rev. Joshua Williams, Mrs. P. Pindle and Soror Marion Webb will represent the community, the parent, and the school, respectively.

Gamma chapter occupied a float in the campus demonstration last Saturday. The chapter will conduct initiation and induction ceremonies early next month.

Zetas will co-operate with The Council of Churches and Christian Education of Maryland-Delaware, Inc. in trying to promote more friendly racial relationships in the commercial field.

Zetas will collaborate with the Maryland League of Women's Clubs in its housing and criminal court projects during the month.

Sorors Beatrice Hall and Althea Cornish for Alpha Eta were elected delegates to the annual Boule which will meet in Philadelphia, Dec. 28-31, 1948.

Soror Elizabeth Frances Johnson, basileus of Gamma chapter, recently elected one of the national presidents of the Business and Professional League, will represent Gamma chapter at the Boule.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party which will be held at the next meeting in December.

Hostesses for the evening were Sorors Ethel Payne, Alice Taylor, Carrie Scott and Addney Brown.

Other sorors present were:

Beatrice Hall, basileus; Beatrice Mayo, anti basileus; Alice Hall, Tamias; Marguerite Carroll, tamias-grammateus; Ethel Thomas, epistoleus; Geraldine Powell, parliagmentarian; Florence Purvis, sergeant-at-arms;

Thelma Ashe, Nellie Buchanan, Mary Butler, Edna Duvall, Elma Beth Dunby;

Odessa Ford, May Fortune, Anna Holt, Edna Hopkins, Mary Taylor, Lillian R. Webb.

FETED ON ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Anne Calhoun and Miss Bertha Fleming feted Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clair on their 18th wedding anniversary on Saturday evening with a dinner party.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clair, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cregier, Miss Rola Knox and Jessie Stephens of New York City, Mrs. Mary Bostic, the Rev. Mrs. Edith Williamson, William Calhoun and Edward Johnson.

MATINEE ENSEMBLE MEETS

On Saturday evening Alberta Diggs Jones was hostess to the Matinee Ensemble Club.

After a brief business meeting Mrs. Bertha Winston gave a review of outstanding news of the month. Following this report Miss Lottye Shaw told of her trip abroad, giving a vivid account of places visited and recounting some of her most thrilling experiences in London, Paris and Holland.

Prizes for the hostess's quiz went to Mesdames Violet Bill Whyte, Hattie Smith and Jane Wilson.

Those present were: Mesdames Vivian Alleyne, Catherine Banks, Mamie Douglass, Odell Payne, Nellie Wood, Martha Warren, Hattie Smith, Lottye Shaw, Bertha Winston, Jane Wilson and Miss Emma Bright.
