Young Robber Given 40 Years

Lawyer Saves Him From Sex Charge

Spared a conviction on more serious charges of a sex attempt by his court-appointed lawyer, 22-year-old Curtis Marshall was sentenced, Wednesday, to 40 years in the penitentiary for robbing two women and assaulting one of them, from a 20-year sentence in Florida.

The defendant was an escapee for a sex crime, and had arrived in Baltimore on the day the local crimes occurred, Judge Herman Moser was told by William Maynard, deputy State's attorney.

Counsel Win Point

William Murphy, court - appointed counsel for Marshall, scored upon one of the women's failure to identify her attacker and the lack of evidence that he attempted actual sex relations, to win an acquittal for Marshall on that charge.

He was convicted instead on the lesser count of the indictment which charged simple assault.

Arrested in Crime Area

Both women, white residents in the Belair Rd. section, testified that they were accosted in the early evening of Oct. 20 while walking from trolley stops to their homes.

Marshall, who said he is from Buffalo, N.Y., was arrested a short time later in the neighborhood by Officer Daniel Peterson.

Confession Admitted

A confession to both robberies was admitted into evidence, although Marshall claimed he had been beaten in the head by a police officer.

There was also evidence that a ring, containing a picture of Marshall's wife, was found near the scene of one of the robberies, and that he was carrying $76 when arrested.

Came Here in Truck

Other money was scattered on the ground near the wooded section where one of the women was dragged, the State's attorney said.

It was revealed that Marshall had arrived in Baltimore that day on a truck. He told police he was from Winter Park, Fla.

Successful Florist in Florida

One of Florida's most outstanding floral designers is W. O. Perry, colored florist in Miami, operating a shop which compeles fully with established operations of the same kind operated by whites. He also owns the Acme Decorating Company, which is the only colored concern in the South engaged in street decorating for national and State organizations in Florida and adjoining states. Phi Kappa Psi Officers Mum on Charter Revoking

Withhold Comment on Amherst Chapter's Plans to Initiate 1st Minority Student

CLEVELAND—(NNPA)— Two national officers of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity have refused to comment on reports from Amherst, Mass., that Amherst College's chapter of the fraternity intends to initiate Thomas Gibbs, a colored sophomore from Evanston, Ill. despite some opposition within the fraternity.

At Amherst, on Nov. 9, Frederick D. Green, II, president of the Amherst chapter, said Gibbs would be initiated on Nov. 23. It then became known on Nov. 12 that the Amherst chapter was suspended by the national officers.

Howard L. Hamilton, national president, of Columbus, Ohio, and Clarence F. Williams, national secretary of the fraternity, offices of which are here, both refused to discuss the Amherst affair. However, they said it was strictly a fraternity matter.

When first reached at his office, Williams said he had "no comment." An employee of his office said: "We have fifty-two chapters, some of them in the South, so you can see what this means to us."

The only Cleveland chapter of the fraternity is at Case Institute of Technology. Its president, William F. Gatey, referred all inqui-ness tour around the country to contact company customers.

He comes to Washington about twice yearly and will go from here to Baltimore. Mr. Makel has been employed with the Calvert Corporation about eight years. He is a native of Chicago, where he was originally hired, and now works out of the home office, 408 Lexington Ave., New York.

Makel attended Lincoln University (Pa.) His duties are to keep up public relations between the company, distributor, retailer and consumer. Makel is the only colored national representative that travels extensively. There are three others with the Calvert Corporation on a local basis, two of whom operate in New York and one in Chicago.

Use of Epithet Over Airlanes Regretted

Use of the epithet "n——" in an original poem read by a woman attending the Ladies Day radio program on Station WCBM, Thursday afternoon, was described as "an unfortunate accident" by station officials.

Speaking for the station which was immediately inundated with telephone calls of protest, a Mrs. Himmelman said:

"It was purely an accident, an unfortunate one and certainly not something we like. It was an extemporaneous program. We had no idea such a thing was going to happen and we felt terrible when we heard it.

Don't Approve

"We certainly don't approve any such thing."

Expressing disapproval for the Four Beseche Brothers Furniture Company, sponsors of the program, H. Anton, sales manager, said,

"We regret the occurence sincerely, because we are not in favor of using any terms which insult or hurt any racial group."
