Local Members of National Association of Colored Women Observe Founders Day With Open House

The local Association of Women's Clubs held open house last Saturday at their national headquarters, 1114 O St., N.W. in observance of Founders Day, which was celebrated in forty-three States. At extreme left Mrs. Ada Harris, wife of the late William B. Harris receives a cup of tea from Mrs. E. V. Jones. A congenial threesome finds Mrs. Anna Barcus, of 769 Columbia Rd., N.W. pouring tea for Mrs. Pearlie Cox, AFRO columnist and Mrs. June Morris. Just taking time out for a quiet chat are Mrs. Lillie B. Brown, 944 Westminster St., N.W., Mrs. Eudora Brown, 77 55th St., S.E., and Mrs. Yvonne Payne, 5524 B St., S.E. At extreme right, Mrs. Ruby Kendrick, executive secretary of the National Association of Colored Women, talks things over with Mrs. Mary Church Terrell, first president.

Man, 38, Shot; 2 Suspects Sought

Howard Banks, 38, of 628 Smithson St., was admitted to Provident Hospital, Sunday, with a bullet lodged between his ribs, while police sought two men in connection with the shooting.

On Monday, the two suspects, Walter Stevens, 34, of the Mosher Hotel, Mosher St., and Argyle Ave., and Chester Lawrence, 29, home address unknown, were still at liberty.

Found on Sidewalk

Banks was found lying on the sidewalk near his home by officers who took him to the hospital.

There, according to Sgt. Leslie H. Kummer, Banks told them he had an argument with the two men and was shot by Chester with a gun which had been handed to the latter by Stevens.

Artist Wins $150 Water Club Prize

Milton Avery was awarded the $150 Baltimore Water Color Club prize for the best entry, (Sea and Rocks) in the 1949 National Water Color Exhibition, sponsored jointly by the club and the Baltimore Museum of Art.

Seventeen works were chosen by the five-man jury from the 316 entries submitted. They will be shown with 31-invited paintings eligible for prizes, but accepted jury free.

The exhibition which opens formally on Dec. 3, will have as a special feature one gallery devoted entirely to the work of members of the jury. The exhibition will continue through Jan. 9.
